40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 ¶ And it was about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the ¶ earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the vail of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and, having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 ¶ Now, when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 ¶ And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off beholding these things.

50 ¶ And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man and a just:

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them:) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews; who also himself waited for the kingdom of God:

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 ¶ And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath-day, according to the commandment.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by two angels to the women that came to the sepulchre, who report it to others, but are not believed. 12 Peter visiteth the sepulchre. 13 Christ appeareth to two disciples going to Emmaus, 36 and to the apostles, eating before them, and explaining the scriptures concerning himself: 49 he promiseth them the Holy Ghost, 50 and ascendeth into heaven.

NOW, ^a upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye \parallel the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen. ^b Remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 ¶ Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and, stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering, said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and besides all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre:

23 And, when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone farther.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And, as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken he shewed them his hands and his feet.

 44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the Psalms, concerning me.
 45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, 46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day;

47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And ye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy;

53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

¶ The GOSPEL according to Saint JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 The divinity of Christ. 6 The mission of John. 14 The incarnation of the Word. 15 Christ's superior dignity witnessed by John. 35 Two of John's disciples follow Jesus.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 ¶ The same was in the beginning with God.

3 ¶ All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 ¶ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me; for he was before me.

16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 ¶ No man hath seen God at any time: the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us: what sayest thou of thyself?

23 ¶ He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world!

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 ¶ And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record, that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again, the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

1 Or, abide.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where wilt thou dwell?

1 That was two hours before night.

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

1 Or, The Disciple.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah, which is, being interpreted, The Christ.

1 Or, I saw.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, A stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

1 Gen. 49. 10. About 16. 18. m. I think so.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered, and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree; I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and said unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered, and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

C H A P. II.

1 Christ turneth water into wine: 12 he goeth into Capernaum, 13 thence to Jerusalem, and purgeth the temple of buyers and sellers: 18 he giveth his own death and resurrection for a sign. 23 Many believe in him because of his miracles, but he would not commit himself unto them.

And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And both Jesus was called and his disciples to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the servants which drew the water knew,) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory: and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples; and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And the Jews' passover was at hand; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence: make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

a Psalm 69. 9.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered, and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

b Mark. 16. 11.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When, therefore, he was risen from the dead his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now, when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast-day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

C H A P. III.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration; 14 the efficacy of faith in his death. 16 God's great love toward mankind, in sending his Son for their salvation. 18 and the condemnation for unbelief. 22 Jesus baptizeth in Judea. 25 John's doctrine concerning Christ.

There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest except God be with him,

3 Jesus

3 Jesus answered, and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man, which is in heaven.

14 ¶ And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up;

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 ¶ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already; because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Enon, near to Salim, because there was much water there; and they came, and were baptized:

24 For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, ¶ A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy, therefore, is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony, I hath set to his seal that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God; for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

35 ¶ The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

C H A P. IV.

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria, and revealeth himself unto her: 27 his disciples marvel: 31 he declareth to them his zeal to God's glory: 39 many Samaritans believe on him: 43 he departeth into Galilee, and healeth the ruler's son who lay sick at Capernaum.

When, therefore, the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus, therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink:

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? (for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered, and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered, and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus faith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband;

18 For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in ^b Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship; for salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 ^c God is a spirit; and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean-while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; ^d for they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe; not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now, after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee:

44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then, when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, ^e where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAP. V.

1 Jesus, on the sabbath-day, cureth an impotent man at the pool of Bethesda; 10 the Jews cavil, and persecute him for it: 17 he justifieth himself by the example of God his Father; 19 and asserteth the power and judgment committed to him by the Father: 31 he appealeth to the testimony of John, 36 of the Father, 39 and of the scriptures.

AFTER this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem, by the sheep-^{||}market, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the troubling of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but, while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

1. Jerem.
1. N. 21. 22.

10 ¶ The Jews, therefore, said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath-day; ^b it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

1. Pet.
2. 1. 10.

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, ^a a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews, that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 ¶ Then answered Jesus, and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man; but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth: ^a they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear I judge, and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 ¶ If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ^c There is another that beareth witness of me, and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, ^d and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light; and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, ^e hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, ^f nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you; for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ¶ Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 ¶ I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 ^h How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

45 ¶ Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses ye would have believed me: ⁱ for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

C H A P. VI.

5 Christ feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes: 15 he withdraweth himself from the people who would have made him a king, and walketh on the sea: 22 the multitude flocking unto him, he reproveth their carnal views: 30 they ask a sign like that of the manna, and he declareth himself to be the bread of life. 66 Many leaving him, Peter, in the name of the twelve, professeth steadfast faith in him.

AFTER these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 ^a And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ¶ ^b When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 (And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.)

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here which hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and, when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would.

12 When they were filled he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve-baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jesus, therefore, perceived that they would come and take him by force to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 ^c And when even was now come his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum: and it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose, by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship; and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks;)

24 When the people, therefore, saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered, them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 ¶ Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: ^d for him ^e hath God the Father sealed. ^f Or, ^g work such.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered, and said unto them, ^h This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. ⁱ John 3. 23.

30 ¶ They said, therefore, unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 ^j Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as ^k Exod. 16. 14. it is written, ^l He gave them bread from heaven to eat. ^m Numb. 11. 7.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. ⁿ Psalm 78. 23.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, that ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, ^o Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven? ^p h Matth. 13. 55.

43 Jesus, therefore, answered, and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 ^q It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man, therefore, that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. ^r i Isaiah 54. 13. Jerem. 31. 34.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, * save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: whosoever eateth of this bread, he shall live for ever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews, therefore, strove among themselves, saying, I how can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Who eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father; so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he, in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 ¶ Many, therefore, of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 ¶ What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto me of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe, and are sure, that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you, ye also, and have sent you forth?

71 ¶ He said of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

1 ¶ Jesus refuseth to go to Jerusalem at the feast of tabernacles, but afterwards goeth up in secret. 11 The Jews seek him: 12 he teacheth in the temple: 30 many believe; officers sent to take him: 40 diverse opinions concerning him among the people: 45 the officers, struck with his discourse, return without him, and are rebuked by the Pharisees, who also came with Nicodemus for taking his part.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 ¶ Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren, therefore, said unto him, Depart hence; and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly: if thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come; but your time is always ready.

7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; * for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 ¶ Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now, about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory; but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 ¶ Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? ¶ Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered, and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 ¶ Moses, therefore, gave unto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers,) and ye on the sabbath-day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath-day receive circumcision, ¶ shall that law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath-day?

24 ¶ Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him: do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is; but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him; for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 ¶ Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 ¶ Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 ^b Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me? and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 ⁱ In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink.

38 ^k He that believeth on me as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (^l But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

40 ¶ Many of the people, therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 ^m Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Beth-lehem, where David was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees, believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (ⁿ he that came to Jesus by night being one of them,)

51 ^o Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered, and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery: 12 he praebooth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine; 33 enjoineth the Jews who boasted of Abraham: 50 he miraculously hideth himself from their cruelty.

Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him: and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery: and, when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 ^p Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So, when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, ^q He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last; and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, ^r I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees, therefore, said unto him, ^s Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered, and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 ^t It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the temple, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said, therefore, unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words many believed on him.

31 ¶ Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed:

32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If I the Son, therefore, shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed: but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father; and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your Father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 ¶ Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 ¶ He that is of God heareth God's words: ye, therefore, hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 ¶ Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil: but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me, of whom ye say that he is your God.

55 Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you; but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day; and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 ¶ Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER IX.

1 A man who was born blind restored to sight: 8 he relateth the means of his cure: 13 he is brought to the Pharisees, who examine him strictly: 34 they excommunicate him: 35 he is received of Jesus, and censured him. 39 Christ chargeth the Pharisees with spiritual blindness.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must work the works of him that sent me while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is, by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way, therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours, therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

Anno DOMINI 32.

9 Some said, This is he; others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath-day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath-day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age, ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and said unto them, Why, herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God he could do nothing.

34 ¶ They answered, and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they || cast him out.

35 ¶ Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world; that they which see not might see, and that they which see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees, which were with him, heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAP. X.

1 Christ declareth himself the door, and the good shepherd; 19 diverse opinions concerning him: 22 he proveth to the Jews by his works that he is the Christ, and asserteth his unity with the Father. 31 The Jews go about to stone him: 39 he departeth from them, &c.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by me, if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself: I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 There was a division, therefore, again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad, why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil: can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not; because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken, 36 Say ye of him whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works; that ye may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in the Father.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand.

40 And went away again beyond Jordan, into the place where John at first baptized, and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle; but all things that John spake of this man were true.

42 And many believed on him there.

C H A P. XI.

1 The sickness and death of Lazarus; Jesus raiseth him to life, many Jews believe. 27 The Pharisees hold a council against Christ; Caiaphas prophesieth; Jesus withdraweth himself. 55 At the approach of the passover the Jews enquired about him; the rulers give orders to apprehend him.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. 2 It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard, therefore, that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that faith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless, let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then, when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 (Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off.)

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, I thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:
26 And whosoever liveth, and believeth in me, shall never die. Believest thou this?
27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.
28 And when she had so said she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.
29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.
30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.
31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.
32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here my brother had not died.
33 When Jesus, therefore, saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.
35 Jesus wept.
36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!
37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?
38 Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.
39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh; for he hath been dead four days.
40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?
41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.
42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.
43 And when he thus had spoken he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.
44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.
45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.
46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.
47 ¶ Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.
48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him; and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,
50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.
51 And this spake he not of himself: but, being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;
52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.
53 ¶ Then, from that day forth, they took counsel together for to put him to death.
54 Jesus, therefore, walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.
55 ¶ And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.
56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?
57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were he should shew it, that they might take him.

C H A P. XII.

1 Mary anointeth the feet of Jesus; Judas murmureth at the cost. 9 The people seek to see Lazarus; the chief priests consult to kill him. 12 Jesus rideth into Jerusalem; 20 certain Greeks desire to see him: 23 he sheweth the benefit of his death to believers. 37 The generality of the Jews believe not; 42 yet many chief rulers believe, but do not confess him: 44 he urgeth faith in his divine mission.
Then Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.
2 There they made him a supper, and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.
3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.
4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,
5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?
6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.
7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.
8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.
9 ¶ Much people of the Jews, therefore, knew that he was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.
10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On the next day, much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon: as it is written,

15 Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people, therefore, that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees, therefore, said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among them, that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came, therefore, to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew; and again, Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 ¶ He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people, therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 (This he said, signifying what death he should die.)

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you: walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him;

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, 40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spoke of him,

42 ¶ Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried, and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of myself: but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak, therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Jesus washeth his disciples' feet, and exhorteth them to humility and charity: 18 he foretelleth the treachery of Judas: 31 he commandeth his disciples to love one another: 36 he forewarneth Peter that he should thrice deny him.

NOW, before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, (the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him,)

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet!

7 Jesus answered, and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not, save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 ^b Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all; I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, ^c He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 ¶ Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 ^d Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 ^e When Jesus had thus said he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, That one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter, therefore, beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then, lying on Jesus' breast, saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a kiss, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then, having received the sop, went immediately out; and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 ^f A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow till thou hast denied me thrice.

C H A P. XIV.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples with the promise of an heavenly mansion: 5 he professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life, and one with the Father: 12 he promiseth them power to do greater works than his own: 15 he requereth their obedience, and promiseth the Comforter.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 ¶ Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believeest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you, I speak not of myself: but the Father, that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 ¶ Verily, verily, I say unto you; He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 ^a And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ If ye love me, keep my commandments:

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues; yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doth God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that, when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 ¶ But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless, I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And, when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin; because they believe not on me:

10 Of righteousness; because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more:

11 Of judgment; because the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 ¶ A little while, and ye shall not see me; and again, a little while, and ye shall see me; because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said, therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

22 And ye now, therefore, have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

28 I am come forth from the Father, and am come into the world; again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 ¶ His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no || proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus; the band of men fall to the ground.

10 Peter smiteth off Malchus' ear. 12 Jesus is taken, and led unto Annas and Caiaphas. 15 Peter's denial.

19 Jesus examined before Caiaphas: 28 his arraignment before Pilate; the Jews prefer Barabbas.

When Jesus had spoken these words he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 ¶ Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus, therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also which betrayed him stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he. If, therefore, ye seek me, let these go their way;

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 ¶ Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 ¶ Then the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews, took Jesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to Annas first: (for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.)

14 ¶ Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, (for it was cold,) and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 (Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.)

25 ¶ And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself: they said, therefore, unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate, therefore, heard that saying he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment-hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go thou art not Cæsar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar.

24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples, therefore, said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord, and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth at the sea of Tiberias, and maketh himself known by a great draught of fishes: 12 he eateth with them: 15 he thrice repeateth his charge to Peter; 18 foretelleth him of his death, 22 and rebuketh his curiosity concerning John. 24 The conclusion.

After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast, therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now, when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship, (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three; and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 ¶ Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And, when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter seeing him, saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 ¶ This is the disciple which testified of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

¶ The ACTS of the APOSTLES.

CHAP. I.

1 Christ after his resurrection, having given instructions to his apostles, and commanded them to wait in Jerusalem the coming of the Holy Ghost, which he promiseth after a few days, ascendeth into heaven in their sight. 10 After his ascension they are warned by two angels to depart, and to look for his second coming: 12 they return, and give themselves unto prayer. 15 Peter exhorting to fill up the place of Judas, Matthias is chosen by lot to be an apostle.

THE former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, ¶ being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5^b For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they, therefore, were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons which the Father hath put in his own power:

8 But ye shall receive ¶ power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9^d And, when he had spoken these things, while they beheld he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 ¶ And, while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 ¶ Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath-day's journey.

13 And when they were come in they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said (the number of the names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, This scripture must needs have been fulfilled, ¶ which the Holy Ghost, by the mouth of David, spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.

18 ¶ Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and, falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; inasmuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, ¶ Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and, ¶ His bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore, of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained, to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots: and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAP. II.

1 The descent of the Holy Ghost upon the apostles; they speak diverse languages to the general amazement, but some discern them. 14 Peter sheweth that the inspiration spoken of by Joel was now fulfilled; that Jesus was now risen from the dead, and, according to David's predictions, ascended into heaven, and had shed forth the promise of the holy Spirit, in full proof of his being the Messiah. 37 A great number converted by Peter's preaching, who being baptized, converse devoutly and charitably together, the apostles working many miracles, and the church daily increasing.

AND when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them:

4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now, † when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were ¶ confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common,

C H A P. III.

1 A lame man healed by Peter and John. 12 Peter declareth to the people that this cure was not wrought by any power or wisdom in himself or John, but by the power of God through faith in the name of Jesus, whom they had ignorantly crucified, but whom God had raised from the dead according to the scriptures; and exhorteth them by faith to seek remission of sins, and salvation in Jesus, whose coming had been spoken of by Moses and all the prophets.

NOW Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man, lame from his mother's womb, was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up; and immediately his feet and ankle-bones received strength.

8 And he, leaping up, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the beautiful gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And, as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Peter saw it he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied the holy One, and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted you;

15 And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.

16 And his name, through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know; yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 Repent ye, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you;

21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, ^b A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things, whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul which will not hear that Prophet shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, ^c And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

C H A P. IV.

1 The rulers of the Jews, offended with the teaching of Peter and John, imprison them. 5 Being brought before the council, Peter boldly avoucheth the late cure to have been wrought in the name of Jesus, and that men can be saved by no other name. 13 The council, struck with the boldness of the two apostles, after conferring together, dismiss them with a threatening charge to speak no more in the name of Jesus. 23 The church betaketh itself to prayer. 31 The presence of the Holy Ghost is signified by the house shaking, and the apostles thereby emboldened to speak the word. 32 The unity and charity of the church, &c.

And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them,

2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now even-tide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 ¶ This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now, when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

17 But, that it spread no further among the people, let us frarily threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach, in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered, and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

21 So, when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And, being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

b Psalm
2. 1.

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For, of a truth, against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, 28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word,

30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 ¶ And, when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 ¶ And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart, and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

C H A P. V.

1 Ananias and Sapphira, profanely tempting the Spirit of the Lord, at Peter's rebuke fall down dead. 12 The apostles work many miracles to the great increase of the faith. 13 They are all imprisoned, but released by an angel, and sent to preach openly in the temple: being brought before the council, 29 they support their witness with great freedom. 33 The council, restrained from their bloody design by the advice of Gamaliel, beat and dismiss them with a charge not to speak in the name of Jesus. 41 They rejoice in their sufferings, and cease not to preach Christ.

U^t a certain man, named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lye to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

¶ Or, deceitful

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias, hearing these words, fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up; and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people: (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them; but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick lying to the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that, at the least, the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

¶ Or,

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation,

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison-doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors; but, when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest, and the captain of the temple, and the chief priests, heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: (for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned:)

27 And, when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew, and hanged on a tree:

31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharise, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee, in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now, I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel, or this work, be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The apostles, desirous that the poor might not be neglected, recommend, 5 and, with the consent of the church, appoint to the office of deacons seven chosen men. 7 The word of God prevaileth. 8 Stephen, full of faith and the Holy Ghost, confuting those with whom he disputed, is brought before the council, and falsely accused of blasphemy, &c.

AND in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministrations.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude; and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch;

6 Whom they set before the apostles; and, when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 ¶ And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 ¶ And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law.

C H A P. VII.

1 Stephen, called upon to answer the charge against him, relateth how God called Abraham, and gave him and his seed the land of Canaan by promise; 9 how Joseph was sold by his brethren, and of Jacob's going into Egypt; 17 how the Israelites were oppressed in Egypt, during which time Moses was born, and sent of God to deliver them; 37 that this same Moses witnessed of Christ, received the law, 44 and set up the tabernacle of witnesses: 51 he reproacheth his hearers with imitating their fathers' rebellions against God, and persecution of his prophets, by having themselves crucified the just One, and transgressed the law they had received. 54 Stung with reproach they stone him.

Then said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, ^aGet thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, where-in ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day: and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt, and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction; and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers,

16 And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor, the father of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew, and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil-entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And, when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it he wondered at the sight: and, as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Moses which said unto the children of Israel, A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me: him shall ye hear.

59. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 ¶ And when Simon saw that, through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent, therefore, of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 ¶ And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and, sitting in his chariot, read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up, and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, ² He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away; and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And, as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And, when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus; and, passing through, he preached in all the cities till he came to Cæsarea.

C H A P. IX.

1 Saul going toward Damascus, by a light from heaven is stricken to the earth. 10 Ananias is sent to him, by whom he is restored to sight, and baptized: he straightway preacheth Christ. 23 The Jews of Damascus seek to kill Saul: 26 he goeth to Jerusalem, and is received by the apostles.

31 The church hath rest, and is multiplied. 32 Peter healeth Eneas of the palsy, 36 and restoreth Tabitha to life.

ANd Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And, as he journeyed, he came near Damascus; and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he, trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him unto Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man, named Ananias, coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and, putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

Anno DOMINI 36
18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales; and he received sight forthwith, and arose and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

A. D. 36
23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled the Jews took counsel to kill him:

27 Corinth. 11: 23
24. * But their laying await was known of Saul: and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.
25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 ¶ And when Saul was come to Jerusalem he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him:

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 ¶ Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified; and, walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

A. D. 36
32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Eneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt in Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple, named Tabitha, which, by interpretation, is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days that she was sick, and died: whom, when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And so much as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down and prayed; and, turning him to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and, when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up; and, when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

1 Cornelius a devout centurion, being commanded by an angel, sendeth for Peter, who in the mean-time is prepared by an heavenly vision: 17 he goeth with the messengers: 34 he preacheth Christ to Cornelius and his company: 44 the Holy Ghost filleth on them, and they are baptized.

A. D. 46
T Here was a certain man in Cæsarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway:

3 He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter;

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea-side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And, when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And, when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the house-top to pray, about the sixth hour.

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready he fell into a trance,

11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth;

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 ¶ Now, while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise, therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 ¶ And, as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And, as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gain saying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask, therefore, for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send, therefore, to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter: he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner, by the sea-side; who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately, therefore, I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now, therefore, are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew, and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the judge of quick and dead.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost:

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which, when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay, and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cæsarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And, as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them; and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem; and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch;

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And, when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ In these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them, named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world; which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cæsar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter; who, upon the prayers of the church, is delivered by an angel. 20 Herod, in his pride assuming the the glory, due to God, is smitten by an angel, and dieth miserably. 24 After Herod's death the word of God prospereth. 25 Barnabas and Saul return to Antioch.

NOW, about that time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church;

2 And he killed James, the brother of John, with the sword.

3 And, because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And, when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quarters of soldiers to keep him, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter, therefore, was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel: but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself he said, Now I know of a surety that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together, praying.

13 And, as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came in to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And, when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking. And when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now, as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him; and, having made Blastus † the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day, Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 ¶ And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Paul and Barnabas, set apart by the Holy Ghost, 4 are sent forth. 6 At Paphos, Elymas the sorcerer is smitten with blindness. 13 Paul at Antioch preacheth the necessity of faith in Christ for justification. 42 The Gentiles desire to hear the word again; many are converted. 44 The envious Jews gain say and blaspheme; the apostles profess to turn to the Gentiles, of whom many believe. 50 The Jews again persecute Paul and Barnabas.

NOW there was in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, † which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

6 ¶ And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos they found a certain forcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus,

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the forcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty, and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness! wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 ¶ Now, when Paul and his company looked from Paphos, they came to Parga in Pamphylia; and John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Parga they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and, beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people ^a when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, ^b and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years † suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, ^c he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that ^d he gave unto them judges, about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 ^e And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And when he had removed him, ^f he raised up unto them David to be their king: to whom also he gave testimony, and said, ^g I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 ^h Of this man's seed hath God, according to his promise, raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus;

24 ⁱ When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course he said, ^k Whom think ye that I am? I am not he: but, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loofe.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath-day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 ^l And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 ^m But God raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, ^a Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, ^{now} no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, ^o I will give you the sure [†] mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, ^p Thou shalt not suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, ^{||} after he had served his own generation, by the will of God ^q fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he whom God raised again saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you, therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware, therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in ^r the prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in you days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 ¶ And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them [†] the next sabbath.

43 Now, when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath-day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you; but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles:

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, ^s I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 ¶ But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium. 8 At Lystra they heal an impotent man, and refuse divine honours with abhorrence. 19 Paul is stoned, but escapeth alive.

21 Having passed through diverse places, and confirmed the churches in faith and patience, they return to Antioch, and give an account of their ministry.

And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude, both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks, believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil-affected against the brethren.

3 Long time, therefore, abode they, speaking boldly in the Lord; which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made, both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were aware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycania, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak; who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said, with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying, in the speech of Lycania, The gods are come down to us in the likenes of men.

12 And they called Barnabas Jupiter, and Paul Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, ^a which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein;

16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless, he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people; and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him he rose up, and came into the city; and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison-doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

38 And the sergeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romans.

C H A P. XVII.

1 Paul preaching at Thessalonica, some believe. 5 The Jews raise an uproar. 10 Paul and Silas sent to Berea. 13 Being persecuted at Thessalonica, Paul cometh to Athens, 16 where he disputeth, 22 and preacheth the living God, to the Athenians unknown; his general call to repentance, &c. 32 some mock, others believe.

Now, when they had passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath-days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alledging that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead: and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and comforted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And, when they found them not, they drew Jason, and certain brethren, unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

13 ¶ But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren went away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now, while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him: and some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods; because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto ¶ Arcopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know, therefore, what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians, and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of ¶ Mars-hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your ¶ devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom, therefore, ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 ¶ God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things:

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him; though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead some mocked; and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed; among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinth, first to the Jews, and then to the Gentiles: 9 he is encouraged by the Lord in a vision: 12 he is accused by the Jews before Gallio the deputy, but is dismissed. 18 Paul passeth from city to city, confirming the disciples. 24 Apollos cometh to Ephesus, being instructed more perfectly by Aquila and Priscilla, he preacheth Christ with great efficacy.

After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

16:1

2 And found a certain Jew, named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome,) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft he abode with them, and wrought: (for by their occupation they were tent-makers.)

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 ¶ Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee; for I have much people in this city.

2:15

11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

1 Cor.
1:12

12 ¶ And when Gallio the deputy of Achaia the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment-seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews! reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment-seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took Sotthenes the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat: and Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence unto Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila, having shorn his head in Cenchrea; for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them he consented not;

22 And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ And a certain Jew, named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and, being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom, when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

C H A P. XIX.

1 Paul findeth disciples at Ephesus; they receive the Holy Ghost: 8 he preacheth there for two years, God confirming the word by special miracles. 13 Certain Jewish exorcists for attempting a miracle are obliged to fly away naked and wounded; the gospel received by many, and magical books burned. 21 Demetrius and the silversmiths raise an uproar against Paul, which is appeased by the town-clerk.

And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus; and, finding certain disciples, 2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

1:12

5 When they heard this they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 ¶ And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

A. D. 57.

9 But when diverse were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul;

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus, whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

A. D. 59.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.

24 For a certain man, named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying, that they be no gods which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard those sayings they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some, therefore, cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice, about the space of two hours, cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is † a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

† Or, the temple-keepers

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddesses.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies; let them implead one another.

† Or, the courts days are kept

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken he dismissed the assembly.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth to Macedonia, and afterwards cometh to Troas: he preacheth long, and breaketh bread.

2 At Miletus Paul calleth the elders of the church of Ephesus to him, and taketh a solemn and affectionate leave of them, committeth God's flock to them, and commendeth them to God's grace: 36 he prayeth with them, and departeth.

And after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months: and when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man, named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep; and, as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he, therefore, was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews;

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there;

23 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But none of these things move me; neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

28 Take heed, therefore, unto yourselves, and to all the flock over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

37 And they all wept fore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him;

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now, when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days; who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days we departed, and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæsarea; and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, (° which was one of the seven,) and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.

10 ¶ And, as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep, and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem, for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 ¶ And when we were come to Jerusalem the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present.

19 And, when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do, therefore, this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may ^b shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, ° we have written and concluded, that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, entered into the temple, ° to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 ¶ And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place; and further, brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For he had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together; and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And, as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar;

32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done?

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 ° Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And, when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

4 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwell there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will, and see that just One, and shouldst hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now, why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth; for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free-born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 Paul pleading his cause, Ananias commandeth to smite him; Paul's spirited reply: 10 he is committed to prison, but encouraged by the Lord. 12 The Jews' conspiracy against Paul is discovered unto the chief captain; 23 who sendeth him to Felix the governor.

And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, a Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing-until we have slain Paul.

15 Now, therefore, ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him; and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 ¶ And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cesarea, and horsemen threecore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lyfias, unto the most excellent governor Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council;

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle;

33 Who, when they came to Cesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment-hall.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Paul is accused before Felix by Tertullus: 10 he answereth in defence of his life and doctrine. 22 The hearing is deferred: 24 Paul preaching freely before the governor and his wife, Felix trembleth. 26 The governor hopeth for a bribe to release Paul, but in vain; and going out of his office, leaveth him bound.

And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator, named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple; whom we took, and would have judged according to our law:

7 But the chief captain Lyfias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee; by examining of whom, thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying, that these things were so.

10 ¶ Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee; that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law, and in the prophets:

15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now, after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18^a Where-upon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult:

19 Who ought to have been here before thee and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil-doing in me while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 ¶ And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 ¶ And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season I will call for thee.

26 ¶ He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

C H A P. XXV.

1 The Jews accuse Paul to Festus, both at Jerusalem and at Cæsarea: 8 he answereth for himself, and appealeth to Cesar. 13 Festus sendeth the matter to king Agrippa.

23 Paul is brought forth; Festus declareth he found nothing in him worthy of death.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæsarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest, and the chief of the Jews, informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them, therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them ^{more} than ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day, sitting on the judgment-seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove;

8 ¶ While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 ¶ And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cæsarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay, on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and I commanded the man to be brought forth;

18 Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 ¶ And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying, that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Paul in Agrippa's presence, declareth his life from his childhood, his wonderful conversion, and call to the apostleship.

24 Festus chargeth Paul with madness; his modest reply, and address to Agrippa; Agrippa's answer. 30 The whole company pronounce him innocent.

Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself.

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee, touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews;

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, (if they would testify,) that, after the most straitest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come: for which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme: and, being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon, as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me, and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having, therefore, obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come;

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cæsar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Paul shipping toward Rome, 9 foretelleth the danger of the voyage, but is not believed. 12 They sitting sail, are tossed with a tempest. 21 Paul comforteth those in the ship with assurance of their lives, but foretelleth the shipwreck.

And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners, unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we failed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had failed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we failed under Crete, over against Salmone;

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called, The Fair Havens, nigh wherunto was the city of Lasea.

9 ¶ Now, when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fait was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 ¶ And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south-west and north-west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they failed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island, which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat;

17 Which, when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quick sands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 ¶ But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 I now beir, we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little farther they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And, while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all; and when he had broken it he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threecore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder-bands, and hoisted up the main-sail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground: and the fore-part stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land.

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship: and so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Paul and his company kindly entertained by the barbarians:

3 a viper from the fire hurteth him not: 7 he healeth many diseases in the island: 11 they depart toward Rome:

17 he declareth the cause of his coming: 23 he preacheth Christ: some believe, and some believe not: 30 he continueth to preach there two years.

And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 ¶ And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 ¶ In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the island came and were healed;

10 Who also honoured us with many honours: and, when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

A. D. 65.

11 ¶ And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli;

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum and The Three Taverns; whom, when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, that, after three days, Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and, when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans;

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you; because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

23 ¶ And when they had appointed him a day there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers, 26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known, therefore, unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 ¶ And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him.

31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh,

4 And ^d declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead;

5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, ^l for obedience to the faith among all nations for his name;

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve || with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers,
10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God, to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together || with you, by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now, I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit || among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians, both to the wife and to the unwife.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ : for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth ; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith : as it is written, ^b The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness :

19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest || in them : for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead ; || so that they are without excuse :

21 Because that when they knew God they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful ; but ^c became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves :

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lye, and worshipped and served the creature || more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections : for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature :

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another ; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like || to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to || a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient :

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness ; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity ; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, || without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful :

32 Who knowing the judgment of God, (that they which commit such things are worthy of death,) not only do the same, but || have pleasure in them that do them.

C H A P. II.

1 They that condemn sin in others, and are guilty of the like themselves, cannot escape God's judgment, 6 which will be according to every man's deserts, whether Jew or Gentile.

14 The Gentiles not left without a rule of conduct : 17 the Jews, who boast of greater light, doubly criminal in sinning against it, 25 Of circumcision without keeping the law.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whoever thou art that judgest : ^a for wherein thou judgest another thou condemnest thyself ; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God ?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering ; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance ?

5 But, after thy hardness and impenitent heart, ^b treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God ;

6 ^c Who will render to every man according to his deeds ;

7 To them who, by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality, eternal life :

8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil ; of the Jew first, and also of the ^d Gentile :

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good ; to the Jew first, and also to the ^e Gentile.

11 For ^f there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law ; and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law,

13 (For ^g not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified :

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves :

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, || their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts || the mean while accusing or else excusing one another,)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and reatest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,

18 And knowest his will, and || approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law ;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hath the form of knowledge, and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou, therefore, which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou also steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery; dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For he is not a Jew which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

C H A P. III.

1 The Jews' prerogative, 3 which is not vacated by the unbelief of some. 9 The law universally convinceth the Jews also of sin; 20 so that no flesh is justified by the deeds of the law, 21 but all indiscriminately by faith in Christ, &c.

WHat advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, ^b That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man.)

6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory, why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before [†] proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;

10 As it is written, ^c There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 ^d Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; ^e the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 ^f Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 ^g Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 ^h There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know, that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become ⁱ guilty before God.

20 Therefore ^j by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God, ^k which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe; for there is no difference:

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath ^l set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26 To declare, ^m I say, at this time his righteousness; that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also;

30 Seeing it is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

C H A P. IV.

1 Abraham himself justified by faith, 9 which was imputed to him for righteousness before circumcision, that he might be the common father of believers, whether circumcised or not. 13 The promise was not given him through the law; but being of faith, by grace is sure to all the seed, &c.

WHat shall we then say that Abraham, our father as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? ⁿ Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, ^o Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Come this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised, that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also;

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the heir of the world was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed: not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, ^c I have made thee a father of many nations,) ^b before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were:

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations; according to that which was spoken, ^d So shall thy seed be.

19 And, being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God:

21 And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now, it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAP. V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God; 2 and glory in our hopes; 3 and in present afflictions; 6 from past experience of God's love, looking with more assurance of complete salvation. 12 As sin and death came by Adam, so righteousness and life were abundantly by Jesus Christ.

Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: ^b knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope;

5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, ^b in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son; much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, ^b for that all have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.)

14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead; much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation; but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if ^b by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ:)

18 Therefore, as ^b by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so ^b by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners; so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover, the law entered that the offence might abound: but where sin abounded, grace did much more abound;

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

1 Though justified by grace, we may not live in sin; for by the very figure of our baptism we are dead unto it. 14 The dispensation of grace frees us from the dominion of sin, but we are still the servants of sin if we obey it, &c.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound?

2 God forbid: how shall we that are dead to sin live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that as many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?
 4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death; that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now, if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once; but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sin, therefore, reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof:

13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked that ye were the servants of sin; but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness, and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin ye were free from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C H A P. VII.

1 No law having power over a person longer than he liveth; we, therefore, being become dead to the law by the body of Christ, are left free to place ourselves under a happier dispensation. 12 The law holy, just, and good, &c.

Now ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For as the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth: but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then, if while her husband liveth she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, so that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once; but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, fold under sin.

15 For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man.

23 But I see another law in my members warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

C H A P. VIII.

1 They who live according to the Spirit are free from condemnation. 5, 13 The evil of being carnally minded, 6, 14 and the good of being spiritually minded. 15 The privilege of the sons of God. 19 The manifestation of the Spirit earnestly looked for by the creature, now travelling in pain. 23 Believers still long for a more full manifestation. 31 The ground of the Christian's hope.

There is, therefore, now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin condemned sin in the flesh;

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then, they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now, if any man have not the Spirit of Christ he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope:

Anno DOMINI

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope. But hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought; but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called; and whom he called, them he also justified; and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth;

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 (As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.)

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

C H A P. IX.

1 Paul's unfeigned sorrow for the Jews: 6 he proveth, that the promise to Abraham did not necessarily include all his descendants. 14 God is not unrighteous in bestowing his unmerited mercy on whom he pleaseth. 25 The calling of the Gentiles and rejection of the Jews foretold, &c.

13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then, it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Hosea, I will call them My people, which were not my people; and her Beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called, The children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness; because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith;

31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law: for they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;

33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone, and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

CHAP. X.

1 The apostle's prayer for Israel, who were misled by blind zeal. 4 The difference between justification by the law and by faith explained from scripture. 11 That all who believe, both Jew and Gentile, shall be saved. 14 The necessity of preaching to the Gentiles inferred. 19 God's acceptance of them known before to the Jews; 21 as also their own refusal of offered mercy.

2 For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh unto this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead:)

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart; that is, the word of faith, which we preach,

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach except they be sent? as it is written, 'How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel: for Elias saith, 'Lord, who hath believed ^{for} our report?

17 So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, but their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses saith, 'I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Elias is very bold, and saith, 'I was round of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, 'All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

C H A P. XI.

1 God hath not so far cast off all Israel, but that a remnant shall be saved by grace. 7 The judicial blindness of the rest prophesied of. 17 The Gentiles cautioned not to insult Jews, but to make a proper use of God's dealings. 23 The Jews in due time shall believe and be saved.

I Say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wherefore what the scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 'Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life?

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? 'b I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even so then, at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for: but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded

8 (According as it is written, 'God hath given them the spirit of ^{of} slumber, 'eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear) unto this day.

9 And David saith, 'Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

10 'Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, I have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office;

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first-fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive-tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive-tree;

18 Boast not against the branches: but if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold, therefore, the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive-tree, which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree; how much more shall these which be the natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, (lest ye should be wise in your own conceits,) that ^{of} blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved; as it is written,

27 There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

28 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

29 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.

30 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

31 For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief;

32 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

33 For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

34 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

35 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

36 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

1 The apostle exhorteth to himself, and to think soberly of gifts. 4 Being members of one body in Christ, 6 our gifts should be for the common benefit. 9 Love, and other practical duties recommended. 19 Revenge is specially forbidden, and good for evil ordained.

I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And be not conformed to this world: but ^a be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may ^a prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think ^a soberly, according as God hath dealt ^a to every man the measure of faith.

4 For ^a as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office;

5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 ^a Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation; he that ^a giveth, let him do it ^a with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 ^a Be kindly affectioned one to another ^a with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another:

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

13 Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

14 ^a Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but ^a condescend to men of low estate.

^a Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 ^a Recompence to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, ^a as much as lieth in you, ^a live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, ^a Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 ^a Therefore, if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Subjection to magistrate, enforced. 8 Love is a debt we must always owe, and virtually containeth the whole law.

11 Rioting, drunkenness, and other works of darkness, must be put away, as much out of justice under the gospel.

For every soul ^a be subject unto the higher powers. For ^a there is no power but of God; the powers that be are ^a ordained of God.

2 Whosoever, therefore, resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God; and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation:

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 ^a Render, therefore, to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, ^a Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet: and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, ^a Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us, therefore, cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk ^a honestly as in the day; ^a not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying:

14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and ^a make no provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Directions how to treat a weak brother, and not to despise one another in matters of indifference. 7 Christ's right to our best services. 10 We are all to stand at his judgment-seat. 13 Christian liberty may not extend tender consciences.

14 That is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 Wilt thou that I judge another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth: yea, he shall be holden up; for God is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another; another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live, therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then, every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not, therefore, judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall, in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us, therefore, follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

C H A P. XV.

1 We ought to commend to the weak, after Christ's example.

4 The intent of the scriptures. 5 Paul prayeth for unanimity in the church. 7 to receive one another. 13 and wisheth them all joy. 14 he glorifieth for his freedom. 22 and presseth them to a sign. 30 he requesteth their prayers.

WE then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we, through patience and comfort of the scriptures, might have hope.

5 Now, the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another, according to Christ Jesus;

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers;

9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again Elias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse; and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have, therefore, whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But, as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now, having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whenever I take my journey into Spain I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul, and I of Apollo, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you but Crispus and Gaius;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas; besides I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom;

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are.

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is the power, and the wisdom, and the sanctification, and the redemption.

31 I pray constantly, as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

1 Paul's preaching not with human eloquence, that their faith being built on the testimony of the Spirit might safely be ascribed to God. 6 The gospel God's wise but secret counsel for bringing men to glory, which no natural abilities could discover; 14 its doctrines and teachers therefore disjunctured.

And I, brethren, when I came to you, I came not with excellency of speech, or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech, and my preaching, was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power;

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect; yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory;

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But, as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so, the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 Paul sheweth their carnality prevented him from teaching them the higher doctrines of Christianity. 5 The most eminent preachers and instruments employed by God in building his church. 10 Having laid the only true foundation, unspurious builders outwitted. 16 Christians God's temple, &c.

And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

For
Joh. 1
1 Cor.
12: 13

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strifes, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk † as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

7 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now, he that planteth and he that watereth are one; † and every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's † husbandry, we are God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wife master-builder I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now, if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it † shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burnt, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 † Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man † defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, † He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, † The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are your's;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; † all are your's;

23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

CHAP. IV.

1 Paul sheweth how ministers ought to be accounted of: 6 he d sheweth them from partiality to ministers; their respective distinction being from God: 8 to their self-sufficient vanity he opposeth his own disposed and adorned state. 14 he warneth them, as their only father in Christ, &c.

L Et a man to account of us as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mystery of God.

2 Moreover, it is required in stewards a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's † judgment; yea, I judge not mine own self:

4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 † Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself, and to Apollos, for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who † maketh thee to differ from another? † And what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now, if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us; and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a † spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place;

12 † And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it;

13 Being defamed, we entreat: † we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but, as my beloved sons, I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore, I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 † But I will come to you shortly, † if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAP. V.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, ^a Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband; and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord; If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; else were your children unclean, but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us [†] to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk: and so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised; is any called in uncircumcision? let him not become circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's [†] free man: likewise also he that is called; being free, is Christ's servant.

23 ^b Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called therein abide with God.

25 Now, concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord; yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose, therefore, that this is good for the present [†] I detest; I say, that it is good for a man to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned: nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh; but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time [†] is short. It remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

Anno DOMINI 59.

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not; let them marry.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So then, he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 ^c The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth: but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The preference of charity to knowledge. 4 An idol is nothing where there are right notions of God; 7 but it is an indifferent use of our knowledge when we cause to offend.

NOW, as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that ^a an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth; (as there be gods many, and lords many):

6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, ^b of whom are all things, and we [†] in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some, with conscience of the idol, unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, [†] are we the better; neither, if we eat not, [†] are we the worse.

9 But take heed, lest by any means this [†] liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hath knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be [†] emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish for whom Christ died?

not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wife men; judge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? the bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we, being many, are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing? or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of devils; ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient; all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles that eat, asking no question for conscience' sake:

26 For ^m the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you eat, asking no question for conscience' sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it; and for conscience' sake: for ⁿ the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by ^{||} grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

31 * Whether, therefore, ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God:

32 ^p Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God.

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

C H A P. XI.

1 Paul exhorteth to follow him as he did Christ, 2 and commendeth their observance of the rules he had given: 3 he forbiddeth men to pray with their heads covered, and women with their heads uncovered: 17 he blameth abuses in their religious assemblies, 20 and profanation of the Lord's supper: 23 he calleth to remembrance the first institution thereof, and the danger of partaking unworthily.

BE ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ^{||} ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that ^a the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is ^{||} the man; and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with ^{||} her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as ^b he is the image and glory of God: ^b but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 ^c Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have ^{||} power on her head because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for ^a ^{||} covering.

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now, in this that I declare unto you, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For, first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be ^{||} divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also ^{||} heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together, therefore, into one place, ^{||} this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before ^{||} his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame ^{||} them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, ^a That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And, when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do ^{||} in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ^{||} ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.
31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.
32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

C H A P. XII.

1 None can own Christ but by the Holy Ghost, 4 whose gifts are diverse, 7 and dealt to different persons to profit withal.
2 As many members make up one natural body, so Christians form one mystical body; 14 and as every member of the natural body hath a necessary function allotted to it, 27 so is it with Christ's body the church, &c.

NOW, concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now, there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another diverse kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee; nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncemely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need; but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

C H A P. XIII.

1 All gifts, how excellent soever, are nothing worth without charity. 4 The praises of charity, 13 the preference thereof to faith and hope.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up.

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly; seeketh not her own; is not easily provoked; thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man † understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the † sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

16 Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen, at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

23 If, therefore, the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

C H A P. XV.

1 From the truth of Christ's resurrection the necessity of our's proved. 20 Christ, the first-fruits, being raised, shall be followed in due order by those who are his. 35 The manner of the resurrection. 51 The change that shall be wrought at the last day both on the dead and living, &c.

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins, according to the scriptures:

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day, according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain unto this present; but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am; and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore, whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now, if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God: because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ; whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised;

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits, afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 I then commend the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by the Lord, I die daily.

32 If I suffer the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage it me if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived; evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead: it is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption;

43 It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;

44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; (for the trumpet shall sound;) and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death! where is thy sting? O grave! where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law:

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Paul directeth how to proceed for the relief of the brethren at Jerusalem: 5 his designed visit: 10 he commendeth Timothy. 13 After some seasonable admonitions, 16 he closeth the epistle with diverse salutations.

Now, concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: (for I do pass through Macedonia:)

6 And it may be that I will abide; yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now, if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man, therefore, despise him; but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and your's: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you. ^a Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema, Maran-atha.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

CHAP. I.

1 The apostle's salutation: 3 he blesteth God for the comforts and deliverances given him in all his afflictions, 8 and particularly of what God had done for him in a late danger in Asia: 12 he calleth both his own conscience and their's to witness his sincerity in preaching the gospel: 15 he excuseth his not coming to them, as not proceeding from lightness, 23 but from lenity toward them.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ^a Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer; or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you than what we read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Sylvanus, and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him amen, un'o the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover, I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

C H A P. II.

1 Paul having shewn the motive of tenderness why he came not to Corinth, 6 declarath himself satisfied with the censures inflicted on the iniquitous person, and desirous them to forgive him, 10 as he himself had forgiven him in Christ's name: 12 his not finding Titus at Troas had caused him to depart forthwith to Macedonia: 14 he blesteth God for the success of his labours in every place, &c.

But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

1 Cor.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.

7 So that contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgive any thing, to whom I forgive it, for your sakes forgive I it in the person of Christ;

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the favour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ in them that are saved, and in them that perish.

16 To the one we are the favour of death unto death; and to the other the favour of life unto life: and who is sufficient for these things?

C H A P. III.

1 To obviate the imputation of vain-glory, Paul sheweth that the gifts and graces of the Corinthians were a sufficient commendation of his ministry: 4 he ascribeth the efficacy entirely to God: 6 he proveth the superior excellency of the gospel ministry to that of the law; 12 and thereupon justifieth his plain speaking, as under a dispensation of greater light and liberty than that of Moses.

Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit || giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away;

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great || plainness of speech;

13 And not as Moses, * which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now, the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all with open face, beholding, as in a glass, the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as || by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IV.

1 Paul declareth his unwearied zeal and integrity in preaching the gospel; 3 so that if any see not the truth of it, it is owing to a corrupt heart, not the want of light. 7 The weakness and sufferings he was exposed to redounded to the praise of God's power. 12 The assurance of an eternal reward animated him so to endure for the church's sake.

Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of † dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but, by manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but || not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then, death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We have the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, * I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak:

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might, through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul declareth, that in assured hope of a blessed immortality he was indifferent to life, and laboured only to approve himself to Christ: 19 that knowing a general judgment would follow, and the terrors of it, he was solicitous to persuade men: 14 that moved by the love of Christ, he was dead to all former regards: 17 that all things being now made new by God in Christ reconciling the world to himself, 20 he, as Christ's ambassador, besought men to embrace the offered reconciliation.

For we know, that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened; not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing, that whilst we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we || labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory † in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God; or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us
the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath † committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

1 Paul treateth the Corinthians not to frustrate God's grace;
3 setting forth his own inoffensive, painful, and patient demeanour in the discharge of his ministry; 11 of which he telleth them he spake more freely for the great love he bore to them: 13 he challengeth the like affliction: 14 he disjuncteth from any intimate connexion with unbelievers, 16 because believers are become the temples of God.

WE then, as workers together with him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 For he saith, ^a I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things † approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, † in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings,

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering,
by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians! our mouth is open unto you,
our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now, for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God:
as God hath said, ^a I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 And will be a father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

1 Paul exhorteth the Corinthians to purity of life: 3 he re-peateth the assurance of his love to them, and declareth what comfort he had in all his troubles by the report which Titus had brought of their good will toward him, 8 and their godly sorrow which his former epistle had produced:
13 he rejoiced to observe that their behaviour toward Titus was so answerable to his former boasting of them.

HAVING, therefore, these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side:
without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless, God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus:

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

¶ Or, according to God.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry || after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold, this self-same thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort; yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed: but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

bravely.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice, therefore, that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Paul extolled the liberal contributions of the Macedonian churches, 6 and recommendeth the like charity to the Corinthians, 9 enforced by the example of Christ, 13 and a precedent which might redound to themselves: 16 he sheweth the willingness of Titus to come and further this good work, and commendeth him to their love, together with the brethren, who were sent with him on the same errand.

Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia:

2 How that, in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy, and their deep poverty, abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, (I bear record,) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped; but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God:

6 Inasmuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us; see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love:

Anno

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do but also to be † forward a year ago.

† Gr.
willing.

11 Now, therefore, perform the doing of it; that, as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For if there be of first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened;

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, † He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

112. 19.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches:

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

† 2 Cor.
8. 23.

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which || I have in you.

he boasts.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAP. IX.

1 Paul sheweth the reason why, though he knew their forwardness, he had sent Titus and the brethren beforehand, to make up their collections against his coming: 6 he stirreth them up to give bountifully and cheerfully, as a likely means of increasing their store, 12 and as productive of many thanksgivings unto God.

For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 I set happily if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we, (that we say not you,) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your [†] bounty, [¶] whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for [•] God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all-sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, [•] He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now, he that [•] ministereth seed to the sower, both ministereth bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness:)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 (While by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men;)

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

CHAP. X.

1 Paul exhorteth the Corinthians not to leave him in cause to exert against them that spiritual power with which he was armed against those who undervalued his person and apostolical character: 12 he pointeth out the difference between those who were arrogant and vain, and taking merit from the labours of others, and himself, who kept strictly within the province allotted him by God, and avoiding self commendation, sought honour from the commendation of Christ.

NOW I Paul myself beseech you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in his presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you.

2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence wherewith I think to be bold against some, which [¶] I think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh;

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty [¶] through God to the pulling down of strong holds:)

5 Casting down [¶] imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed;

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters (say they) are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also indeed when we are present.

12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves; but they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, [¶] are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the [¶] rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you; for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be [¶] enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you; and not to boast in another man's [¶] line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For not he that commended himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAP. XI.

1 Paul unwillingly entereth upon a commendation of himself, lest they should be perverted from the pure doctrine of Christ: 5 he sheweth he was equal to the chiefest apostles; 7 that he declined to be chargeable not for want of love to them, but to cut off all occasion from deceitful workers taking shelter under his example: 16 that he was not inferior to those whom they so patiently submitted to, 23 but as a minister of Christ, in labours and sufferings for the gospel's sake, was abundantly their superior.

WOULDT to God ye would bear with me a little in my folly; and indeed [¶] bear with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit which ye have not received, or another gospel which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with [¶] him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But

Anno

Anno

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abusing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man; for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied; and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool: if otherwise, yet as a fool I receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit, where insoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool,) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches, 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascusenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me;

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

C H A P. XII.

1 Paul sheweth, that though he had been favoured with visions and revelations, yet, for commendation of his apostleship, he rather chose to glory in his infirmities, 11 blaming the Corinthians for forcing him to this vain boasting: 14 he prometh to visit them again with his former fatherly affection: 20 he sheweth left, to his grief, he find many notorious disorders unredressed.

IT is not expedient for me, doubtless, to glory: I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth,) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth.)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you; for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not your's, but you; for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother: did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? waited we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest when I come I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as we would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults;

21 and lest when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleannesses, and fornication, and lasciviousness, which they have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Paul threateneth to revoke his authority by punishing severely unrepentant offenders: 5 he admonisheth the Corinthians to try their faith: 7 he wisheth that they might present him from using sharpness: 11 he concludeth with an exhortation, salutation, and prayer.

THIS is the third time I am coming to you. * In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present the second time, and being absent, now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare;

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine yourselves whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves: know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell: be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 ^b Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 The apostle's salutation: 6 his surprise that they have so soon forsaken the truth of the gospel; 8 and pronounceth those accursed who preach any other gospel: 11 he sheweth that his doctrine came to him by immediate revelation: 13 he relateth his conversation before his calling, &c.

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead,)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be to you, and peace, from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father;

5 To whom is glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel;

7 Which is not another: but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man:

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it;

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterward I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea which were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, that he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul sheweth of his going up to Jerusalem, and for what purpose; 3 and why Titus was not circumcised: 6 that the three chief apostles had added nothing to his knowledge: 11 that he withstood Peter for dissimulation with respect to Gentile communion: 14 that justification came by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law, &c.

¶ D. 52

Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

¶ Or.
Jewell

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage;

5 To whom we gave place by subjection no not for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

¶ Rom.
2. 14

6 But of those who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person;) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles;)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ; even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

¶ Rom.
2. 20

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAP. III.

1 The Galatians reprehended. 6 As Abraham was justified by faith, so all they who are of faith are blessed. 10 The law brought men under a curse, and could not justify.

13 Christ hath delivered from the curse, and laid open the blessing to all who believe.

Foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

1. 20

5 He, therefore, that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

15. 6

7 Know ye, therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

¶ Or.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

¶ Gen.
12. 3

9 So then, they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

¶ Deut.
27. 26

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree;

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man dissannulleth or addeth thereto.

16 Now, to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot dissannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then saith he the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now, a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

CHAP. IV.

1 The Jews were for a while held under the law, as the heir is under his guardian till he be of age; 4 but Christ came to redeem those who were under the law, and to give both Jew and Gentile the adoption of sons. 21 The Jewish and Christian churches allegorically described under the types of Agar and Sana, &c.

Now I say, that the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all,

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And, because ye are sons, God hath sent forth a the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye observe days, and months; and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how, through infirmity of the flesh, I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my temptation, which was in my flesh, ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? For I bear you record, that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I, therefore, become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again, until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons; the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free woman.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman was born after the flesh; but he of the free woman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sina, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sina in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, Rejoice thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then, he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, what faith the scripture? ^d Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul exhorteth the Galatians to maintain their Christian liberty; 2 that by being circumcised they became debtors to the law: 13 he adviseth them not to abuse their liberty, but to serve one another in love. 19 The works of the flesh; 22 the fruits of the Spirit. 25 An exhortation to walk in the Spirit, and not in vain-glorious emulation.

STand fast, therefore, in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye did run well; || who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuation cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.

12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and || ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies;

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh, with the || affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain-glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAP. VI.

1 Paul exhorteth to reform the faulty with gentleness; 2 to bear one another's burden, 6 to be liberal to spiritual teachers; 9 not to be weary of well-doing: 12 the carnal views of those who preach circumcision: 14 his own professed dependence on Christ only: 18 he concludeth with prayer.

Brethren, || if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

3 For if a man think himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have, therefore, opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, || by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After saluting the Ephesians, 3 the apostle blesseth God for his blessings on those chosen in Christ; 7 for redemption by grace; 11 for the inheritance already obtained by those who first trusted in Christ; 13 and for the Spirit given to open believers, as the earnest of their inheritance: 15 he declareth his continual thankfulness to God for their faith.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ;

4 According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before him in love:

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved:

7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That, in the dispensation of the fulness of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth, even in him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will;

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also, after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come;

22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul sheweth the Ephesians their former corrupt heathen state, 4 and God's rich mercy in their deliverance. 4 Though saved by grace, yet created in Christ to good works. 11 They who were once strangers, the ritual law being abolished, are now brought near to be blessed of Christ. 19 The Gentiles equally privileged with the Jews, &c.

AND you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 Wherein, in time past, ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:

3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ; (by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus;

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us, through Christ Jesus:

8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God;

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast:

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

13 But now in Christ Jesus, ye, who sometimes were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, for making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity by thereby;

17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For ^o through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now, therefore, ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone;

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

C H A P. III.

1 Paul in bonds for the Gentiles' sake, sheweth that the hidden mystery, that the Gentiles should be saved, had been revealed to him: 7 that by his ministry God's gracious purpose might be universally known, and they assured of their acceptance by faith: 13 he desireth them not to be discouraged at his sufferings: 14 he prayeth for their increase in faith.

Or this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 (If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to you-ward;

3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery, as I wrote ^{||} afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ,

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel;

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that ^{||} I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might, by his Spirit in the inner man;

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

20 Now, unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

C H A P. IV.

1 Those virtues which become the Christian calling, particularly unity, recommended: 7 that Christ gave his gifts differently, that his body the church might be edified, and perfected in the true faith: 17 all heathen impurity to be renounced, and to put on the new man; 25 to lay aside lying, 29 and all corrupt communication, &c.

I Therefore, the prisoner ^{||} of the Lord, beseech you that ye ^{||} walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 With all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 ^{||} One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, 'When he ascended up on high, he led ^{||} captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.'

9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might ^{||} fill all things.

11 ^{||} And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come ^{||} in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the ^{||} stature of the fulness of Christ;

14 That we henceforth be no more children tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But ^{||} speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ;

16 ^{||} From whom the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind;

18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the ^{||} blindness of their heart;

 22 That ye ²put off, concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;
 23 And ¹be renewed in the spirit of your mind;
 24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and ¹¹true holiness.
 25 Wherefore, putting away lying, ⁸ speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.
 26 ¹ Be ye angry and sin not; let not the sun go down upon your wrath;
 27 ² Neither give place to the devil.
 28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have ¹¹to give to him that needeth.
 29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good ¹¹to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.
 30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.
 31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil-speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:
 32 And ²be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

1 An exhortation to the imitation of God, and love of Christ; 3 to flee fornication, and all uncleanness; 15 to walk with circumspection; 18 not to drink wine to excess, but to be filled with the Spirit. 22 The duty of wives toward their husbands, 25 and of husbands toward their wives, enforced by the example of Christ and his church.

BE ye, therefore, followers of God, as dear children;
 2 And ²walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.

3 But ²fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of ¹¹disobedience.

7 Be ye not, therefore, partakers with them.

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light;

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth:)

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are ¹¹reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, 'Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 ² See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit:

19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 ² Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For ¹ the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church; and he is the Saviour of the body.

24 Therefore, as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives ²be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 ² Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word;

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy, and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth it and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 ¹ For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they ¹two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife ²see that she reverence her husband.

CHAP. VI.

1 The relative duties of children, 4 and parents, 5 of servants, 9 and masters. 10 The brethren exhorted to resist spiritual enemies, by putting on the whole armour of God, 18 and by perseverance in prayer. 21 Tyebicus commended. 23 Paul's apostolic benediction.

CHildren, ² obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 ² Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise,)

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

¶ The Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul's salutation: 3 he testifieth his thankfulness to God for their uninterrupted fellowship in the gospel, 8 his affection for them, 9 and prayers for their spiritual improvement. 12 he sheweth how his bonds at Rome had turned to the advancement of the gospel: 21 his readiness to glorify Christ either by life or death: 27 he exhorteth them to walk worthy of their profession, &c.

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons: 2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, 4 Always, in every prayer of mine for you all, making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel, from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, || will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because || I have you in my heart, in as much as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are || partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all || judgment;

10 That ye may || approve things that || are excellent; that ye may be sincere, and without offence, till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds || in Christ are manifest in all || the palace, and || in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds;

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation, and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also, Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Ne otherleis, to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.

27 Only * let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ; that, whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul earnestly recommendeth mutual love and union, 3 lowliness of mind, 4 and charitable condescension, by the example of Christ: 12 carefulness of their own salvation; 14 trusting the will of God cheerfully and universally, 16 and thus give him joy in the success of his labours: 19 he hopeth to see Timothy shortly, whom he greatly commendeth, &c.

IF there be, therefore, any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife or vain-glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus;

6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God;

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men;

8 And, being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name;

10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Therefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling:

13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings;

15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort when I know your state.

20 For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him, therefore, I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord, that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him, therefore, the more carefully, that when ye see him again ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him, therefore, in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAP. III.

1 Paul exhorteth to rejoice in the Lord, and to beware of false teachers of the circumcision; 4 shewing that as a Jew he had better grounds of confidence than they; 7 but that he disclaimed them all, trusting only to the justification which is of God by faith: 12 he acknowledgeth his present imperfections, but that he was anxiously striving for the prize: 15 he exhorteth them to be like-minded, 17 and to imitate his example, 18 for many were enemies to the gospel, being earthly-minded, &c.

Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the circumcision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh:

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea, doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord : for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith;

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect; but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the mark, for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us, therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded; and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ;

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

C H A P. IV.

1 Paul excludeth to steadfastness in Christ. 2 From particular admonitions, 4 he proceedeth to general exhortations: 10 he testifieth his joy at their care for his supply in prison, though being always content he was above want: 18 he acknowledgeth their late bounty, and that God would reward it: 20 he giveth glory to God, and concludeth with salutations and a blessing.

Therefore, my brethren, dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where, and in all things, I am instructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me, as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 But my God shall supply all your need, according to his riches in glory, by Christ Jesus.

20 Now, unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

CHAP. I.

1 For his sake. 3 Paul thanketh God for their faith and love. 5 He commendeth Epaphras doctrine, 9 praiseth for their further bearing in grace, 15 describeth the exalted and eternal mediatorial office of Christ, 21 by whom they who were once enemies were now reconciled, &c.

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints;

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel:

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras, our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness;

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light;

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son;

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins;

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature;

16 For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by him, and for him;

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist;

18 And he is the head of the body the church; who is the brightness of his glory, and the first-born from the dead; that in all things he might have the pre-eminence;

19 For by him doth the Father that in him should all fulness dwell:

20 And he, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself, by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, that were sometime alienated, and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy, and unblameable, and unreprouched, in his sight;

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven: whereof I Paul am made a minister;

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church;

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God,

26 Even the mystery, which hath been hid from ages, and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints;

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is, Christ in you, the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus;

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul's care for the churches which had not seen him: 9 he comforteth the Colossians that they were complete in Christ, 16 therefore should not submit to legal ordinances, &c.

FOR I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh,

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have, therefore, received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him;

7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ:

9 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power;

11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

1 ^aPaul exhorteth to be heavenly-minded; 5 to put away carnal lusts: 12 he recommendeth brotherly kindness, charity, &c.

2 Set your || affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; *fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry;

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:

7 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lye not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge, after the image of him that created him:

11 Where there is neither ^bGreek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free; but Christ is all, and in all,

12 Put on, therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering;

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a || quarrel against any; even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And, above all these things, put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And ^c whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 ^dWives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 ^eHusbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 ^fChildren, obey your parents in all things: for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord.

21 ^gFathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 ^hServants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAP. IV.

1 ^aThe duty of masters to servants. 2 A general exhortation to perseverance in prayer, 5 discreet conduct, 6 and well-ordered speech. 7 Tychicus and Onesimus commended, &c.

Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 ^bContinue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

3 ^cWithal, praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak;

5 ^dWalk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister, and fellow-servant in the Lord:

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

9 With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you: they shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2^a We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father ;

4 Knowing, brethren || beloved, your election of God.

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were enfamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you founded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God,

10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

C H A P. II.

1 In what manner the apostle had preached the gospel to the Tyrinthians, 13 and how they had received it, and suffered for it: 17 he sheweth his desire of coming to them, and the cause which had hitherto prevented him; 19 testifying his joy and satisfaction in them.

FOr yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi.

we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile;

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is witness.

6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you,
nor yet of others, when we might have || been burdenfome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children :

8 So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: For ^blabouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, and unblameably, we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted, and charged every one of you, (as a father doth his children,)

12^c That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because when ye received the word of God, which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14. For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews;

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have || persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men;

16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of \parallel rejoicing? are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

C H A P. III.

1 The apostle sheweth, that for his great love to the Thessalonians he had sent Timothy to strengthen their faith, and comfort them; 6 whose good report had been to him a great consolation: 9 he testifieth his thankfulness to God; 11 and prayeth God for their increase in love and holiness.

Wherefore, when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone,

2 And sent Timotheus our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith;

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation, even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6 But now, when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you;

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith;

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself, and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, \parallel direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you;

13 To the end he may \parallel stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

C H A P. IV.

1 Paul exhorteth the Thessalonians to proceed in their endeavours to please God by a holy and just conversation:

9 he commendeth their love to one another, entreating them to abound in it; 11 and quietly to follow their respective callings: 13 and that they might not sorrow for the dead as men without hope; he briefly describeth the resurrection of the just, and Christ's second coming.

Furthermore then, we \parallel beseech you, brethren, and \parallel exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk, and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

Or,
rejoicing.
Or,
glorifying.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and \parallel defraud his brother \parallel in any matter; because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 He, therefore, that \parallel despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you; for ye yourselves are \parallel taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you:

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again, even so \parallel them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with \parallel the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

17 Then we, which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore \parallel comfort one another with these words.

C H A P. V.

1 The apostle proceedeth to shew that Christ's coming will be sudden, and exhorteth them to watch and be sober; 12 to respect their spiritual guides, 14 and giveth diverse other precepts: 23 his prayer and salutations.

But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly, that \parallel the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us who are of the day be sober, ^bputting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet the hope of salvation:

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

¶ The Second Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 ^aThe salutation. ^bPaul certifieth the Thessalonians of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience; ^c6 of the righteous judgment of God in punishing their enemies, and recompensing their sufferings; ^d11 and of his prayers that God would fulfil his gracious purpose in them.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ^aWe are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth:

4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure;

5 ^bWhich is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when ^cthe Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with ^dhis mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire, ^etaking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would ^acount you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power;

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

1 ^aPaul sheweth the Thessalonians how groundless the surmise was that the day of Christ was near at hand; ^b3 that it would be preceded by a great apostasy, and that the man of sin would first be revealed: ^c13 he repeateth his good hopes concerning them, ^d15 exhorting them to stand fast in his doctrine, and prayeth God to comfort and establish them in all goodness.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what ^awith-holdeth, that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way;

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power, and signs, and lying wonders, 10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie;

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAP. III.

1 The apostle desireth the Thessalonians' prayers, 3 testifying his confidence in them: 5 he prayeth God to direct them:

6 he censureth the idle and disorderly, and requireth others to abstain from their company: 16 he concludeth with prayer and salutation.

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord [†] may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you;

2 And that we may be delivered from [†] unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into ^{||} the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not all, but are busybodies.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, ^b be not weary in well-doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word ^{||} by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now, the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

¶ The First Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

1 The salutation. 3 Timothy is reminded of the charge before given him by Paul. 5 The end of the commandment is charity. 18 Timothy urged to a due discharge of his trust, and warned of some who had deserted the truth.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope,

2 Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine;

4 Neither give heed to fables, and endless genealogies, which minister questions rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned;

6 From which some ^{||} having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

14: 34

6 Not a novice, lest, being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers; sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

14: 34

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

f 1 Cor.
14: 34

16 And, without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Paul foretelleth and describeth a great apostasy to happen in the latter times: 6 he directeth Timothy what doctrines to teach, 12 and by what rules to regulate his conduct, so as to save both himself and his hearers.

3: 16

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

Or, as believing.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness,

4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doth about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmising,

Or, as a sick.

5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

one of another.

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession,

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ;

15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called 21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

¶ The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacatiana.

¶ The Second Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul affectionately salutesh Timothy: 3 his constant prayers for him, and remembrance of the unfeigned faith which was in him, his mother, and grandmother: 6 he exhorteth him to stir up the gift of God in him; 8 and not to be ashamed of the gospel testimony; 13 to hold fast the form of sound words: 15 he remindeth him of the general defection in Asia. 16 Onesiphorus' kindness highly commended.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou, therefore, ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began;

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But when he was in Rome he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul exhorteth Timothy to constancy and perseverance, as a good soldier of Christ; 15 rightly to divide the word of truth, and to shun profane and vain babblings. 17 The dangerous error of Hymeneus and Philetus. 19 The foundation of God standeth sure. 22 Timothy is taught what to flee, and what to follow, and how the servant of the Lord must behave toward all men.

THOU, therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou,

3 Thou, therefore, endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned except he strive lawfully.

6 ¶ The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, was raised from the dead, according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an evil-doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 ¶ It is a faithful saying, For ^a if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 ^b If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: ^c if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 ^d If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful; he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun profane and vain babblings; for they will increase unto more ungodliness:

17 And their word will eat as doth a ¶ canker; of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying, that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth ¶ sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth, ^e and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man, therefore, purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But ^f foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, ¶ patient:

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may [†] recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are [†] taken captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 The apostle foretelleth the evil characters that should appear in the last days: 6 he describeth the enemies of the truth; 10 propoundeth unto Timothy his own example; 14 and commendeth the manifold use of the holy scriptures.

This know also, that ^a in the last days perilous times shall come:

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, truce-breakers, ¶ false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with diverse lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now, as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth; men of corrupt minds, ¶ reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their also was.

10 But ¶ thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 ^b All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness;

17 That the man of God may be perfect, ¶ thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAP. IV.

1 Paul's solemn charge to Timothy: 6 he certifieth him of his approaching end, and glorious prospect: 9 he desireth him to hasten his coming, and to bring Mark with him, and certain other things: 14 he warneth him to beware of Alexander: 16 he informeth him what had befallen him at his first answer: 19 his salutations and blessing.

I Charge thee, therefore, before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom,

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand :

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith ;

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day : and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me :

10 For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica ; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee : for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me : I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me ; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear : and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom : to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

CHAP. I.

Amos DOMINIC
64

1 The special dignity of Christ, by whom God hath revealed himself in these last days: 4 his pre-eminence above angels. O God, who at sundry times, and in diverse manners, spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,
2 Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;
3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;
4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in the first-born into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom:

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They shall perish, but thou remainest; and they all shall wear out as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAP. II.

1 The gospel doctrine must be attended to. 5 The dominion of the world is come not granted to angels, but to Christ.

Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with diverse miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him:

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren;

12 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren; in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I, and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren; that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ is proved to be far more worthy than Moses: 7 therefore the example of the obstinate and unbelieving Israelites in the wilderness must not be followed.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus:

2 Who was faithful to him that † appointed him, as also ^{anno domini 67} Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that build all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as a Son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoicing of the hope, firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore, (as the Holy Ghost saith, ^{psalm 138} To-day, if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, † They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To-day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? ^{e Numb. 14-20} was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAP. IV.

1 The rest of Christians to be attained by faith. 12 The power of God's word. 14 Having Jesus the Son of God for our high priest, we must hold fast our profession, and may come boldly to the throne of grace.

Let us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached as well as unto them; but † the word preached did not profit them; not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest; as he said, ^{psalm 95-11} As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, ^{b Gen. 2-2} And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest,

6 Seeing, therefore, it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom † it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 (Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time; as it is said, To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if † Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth, therefore, a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.)

11 Let us labour, therefore, to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

16 Let us, therefore, come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

1 Of the high priests taken from among men. 5 Christ's priesthood compared, and its privileges set forth.

For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who † can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself, also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 ^{a 2 Chron. 26-18} And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron:

5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, ^{b Psalm 139-1} Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, ^{c Psalm 110-4} Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec:

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared.

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered:

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest, after the order of Melchisedec:

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered; seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which ^{the} first first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk [†] is unskilful in the word of righteousness; for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are [¶] of full age, [¶] those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

CHAP. VI.

1 The higher spiritual doctrines proposed to be treated of. 4 The guilt and danger of apostasy. 10 God will not forget charitably done. 13 The stability of God's promise to Abraham.

Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For [†] it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them [¶] by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God;

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end;

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, [¶] he swore by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee; and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater; and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, [¶] confirmed it by an oath;

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lye, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil,

20 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, [¶] even Jesus, having made an high priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAP. VII.

Christ's priesthood of a far more excellent order than that of Aaron's, 1 from the character of Melchisedec; 11 from the imperfection of the Levitical priesthood; 20 from its being confirmed by an oath, &c.

For this is Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and after that also, King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, [†] without descent, having neither beginning of days nor end of life; but, made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily [¶] they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he, whose [†] descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And, as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him.

11 If, therefore, perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident; for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, [¶] Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before, for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, [¶] but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And in as much as not without an oath he was made priest:

first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover, he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 (For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world;) but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment;

28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

1 The law-sacrifices being often repeated, could not take away sin.

10 Christ's body once offered hath obtained perfect remission. 19 An exhortation to steadfastness in the faith.

26 The danger of a wishful relapse, &c.

FOR the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices, which they offered year by year continually, make the comers thereunto perfect:

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers, once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure:

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt offerings, and offering for sin, thou wouldst not, neither hadst pleasure therein; (which are offered by the law.)

9 Then saith he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them, After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now, where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having, therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over the house of God,

22 Let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another, to provoke unto love, and to good works:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more as ye see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses;

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

Anno

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock, both by reproches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away, therefore, your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye have need of patience; that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

37 For yet a little while, and ^b he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now, ^a the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAP. XI.

1 The nature of faith, and its acceptableness with God, set forth in the examples of many excellent persons: of old time.

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that ^a the worlds were framed by the word of God; so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith ^a Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and by it he, being dead, ^b yet speaketh.

5 By faith ^a Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith ^a Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, ^b moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith ^a Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also ^a Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age; because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.

13 These all died [†] in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and ^c confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly; wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith ^b Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son.

18 Of whom it was said, ^c That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith ^b Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, ^c blessed both the sons of Joseph; and ^d worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith ^a Joseph, when he died, ^b made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith ^a Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

24 By faith ^a Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach ^b of Christ greater than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith ^a he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.

29 By faith ^a they passed through the Red sea as by dry land; which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith ^a the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith ^a the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not; when ^b she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover, of bonds and imprisonment:

37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins, and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy;) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

C H A P . XII.

1 An exhortation to patience and constancy, enforced by Christ's example. 12 Peace and holiness obtained.

W herefore, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against it

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation, which speaketh unto you as unto children, * My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now, no chastening for the present seemeth to be grievous, but grievous; nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore, lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently, lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled:

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the found of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the first-born, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,

24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven;

26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore, we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear:

29 For our God is a consuming fire.

¶ The general Epistle of JAMES.

CHAP. I.

1 The apostle's address to the dispersed Jews: 2 he recommendeth patience, 5 and prayer with faith. 13 Our own lusts, and not God, tempt us to sin. 17 God is the unchangeable author of all good to his creatures. 19 The word must be received with purity and meekness, &c.

JAMES, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into diverse temptations;

3 ¹Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, ²let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering: for he that waveth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind, and tossed:

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree || rejoice in that he is exalted;

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because ³as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof of falsehood, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 ⁴Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Our glory.

14 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

15 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

16 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

17 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

18 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

19 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

20 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

21 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

22 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

23 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

24 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

25 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

26 If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with || evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then, when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift, and every perfect gift, is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, ⁵slow to speak, slow to wrath:

11 Or.
17. 24.

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls:

22 But ⁶be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

11 Or.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But who so looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his || deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

C H A P. II.

1 Christians are not to regard the rich and despise the poor.

10 The guilt of any one breach of the law. 13 The obligation to mercy. 14 Faith without works is dead. 20 Abraham and Rahab justified by works, and not by faith only.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool;

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture,

9 Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

10 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

11 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

12 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now, if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

13 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

14 For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

15 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

16 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

17 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body, what doth it profit?

18 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

19 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

20 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man! that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 I seeest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled, which faith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called The Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also, was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

C H A P. III.

1 We must not rashly take upon ourselves to reprove others.

2 The great importance, difficulty, and duty, of governing the tongue. 13 True wisdom will shew itself in meekness, peaceableness, and charity, in opposition to strife and envying.

MY brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which, though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man, and endued with knowledge, among you? let him shew, out of a good conversation, his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lye not against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion, and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

C H A P. IV.

1 Our evil lusts and passions tend to breed quarrels among ourselves, and to set us at enmity with God. 7 How we may overcome them, and recover God's favour. 11 Against detraction and censoriousness. 13 If we must not presume on the future, but commit ourselves to God's providence.

FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of you || lusts that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not:

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your || lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? who-soever, therefore, will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth || to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, a God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves, therefore, to God. b Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 c Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: d who art thou that judgest another?

13 e Go to now, ye that say, To-day, or to-morrow, we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain;

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? || It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, f If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

C H A P. V.

1 Wicked rich men are warned of God's impending judgments.

7 Being informed of the wicked's distress, the brethren are exhorted to patience, after the example of the prophets, and of Job: 12 to abstain from swearing: 13 to pray in affliction, and sickness, and sing psalms in prosperity: 16 to acknowledge mutually their faults, and to pray one for another: 19 and to endeavour to reclaim sinners.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire: ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 || Be patient, therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 || Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the Judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, a swear not; neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, b anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and c he prayed earnestly that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

CHAP. I.

1 The apoſtle's addreſs, &c. 3 he bleſſeth God for their hope of a happy immortality: 10 he ſheweth that their ſalvation had been foretold by the prophets of old: 13 he exhorteth them to a holy converſation, 22 and to mutual love.

PETER, an apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt, to the ſtrangers ſcattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Aſia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through ſanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and ſprinkling of the blood of Jeſus Chriſt: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 Bleſſed be the God and Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the reſurrection of Jeſus Chriſt from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeeth not away, reſerved in heaven for you,

5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto ſalvation, ready to be revealed in the laſt time:

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a ſeaſon (if need be) ye are in heavineſs through manifold temptations;

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that periſheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praiſe, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jeſus Chriſt:

8 Whom having not ſeen ye love; in whom, though now ye ſee him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unſpeakable, and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the ſalvation of your ſouls.

10 Of which ſalvation the prophets have enquired, and ſearched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that ſhould come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Chriſt which was in them did ſignify, when it teſtified beforehand the ſufferings of Chriſt, and the glory that ſhould follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themſelves, but unto us, they did miniſter the things which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the goſpel unto you with the Holy Ghoſt ſent down from heaven: which things the angels deſire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be ſober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jeſus Chriſt:

14 As obedient children, not faſhioning yourſelves according to the former luſts in your ignorance;

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, ſo be ye holy in all manner of converſation:

16 Becauſe it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without reſpect of perſons judgeth according to every man's work, paſs the time of your journeying here in 20 Let him know, that he which converteth the ſinner from the error of his way ſhall ſave a ſoul from death, and ſhall hide a multitude of ſins.

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not re-deemed with corruptible things, as ſilver and gold, from your vain converſation received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the precious blood of Chriſt, as of a lamb without blemiſh and without ſpot:

20 Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was maniſteſt in theſe laſt times for you,

21 Who by him do believe in God that raiſed him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your ſouls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, ſee that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 Being born again, not of corruptible ſeed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 For all fleſh is as graſs, and all the glory of man as the flower of graſs. The graſs withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the goſpel is preached unto you.

CHAP. II.

1 Chriſtians exhorted to lay aſide all uncharitable neſs: 4 their privileges through Chriſt: 11 they muſt abſtain from fleſhly luſts. 13 Obedience to magiſtrates enjoined. 18 Servants to obey their maſters, 20 and to ſuffer patiently for well-doing, after Chriſt's example.

WHerefore, laying aſide all malice, and all guile, and hypocriſies, and enyies, and all evil ſpeakings,

2 As new-born babes, deſire the ſincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby;

3 If ſo be ye have taſted that the Lord is gracious:

4 To whom coming, as unto a living ſtone, diſallowed indeed of men, but choſen of God, and precious;

5 Ye alſo, as lively ſtones, are built up a ſpiritual houſe, an holy prieſthood, to offer up ſpiritual ſacrifices, acceptable to God by Jeſus Chriſt.

6 Wherefore alſo it is contained in the ſcripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner ſtone, elect, precious; and he that believeth on him ſhall not be confounded.

7 Unto you, therefore, which believe he is precious: but unto them which be diſobedient, he is the ſtone which the builders diſallowed, the ſame is made the head of the corner,

8 And a ſtone of ſtumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which ſtumble at the word, being diſobedient, whereunto alſo they were appointed.

9 But ye are a choſen generation, a royal prieſthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye ſhould ſhew forth the praiſes of him who hath called you out of darkneſs into his marvellous light:

10 Which

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, [†] abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

12 ⁸ Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles; that, || whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, ^h they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13ⁱ Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14. Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

Likewise, ^aye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

speak evil of you as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing.

18 For Christ also hath ^k once suffered for sins, ^{k Rom. 5: 6,} the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to ^{Heb. 9: 28} God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened
by the Spirit:

20 Which sometime were disobedient, ¹ when once 1 Gen. 6:3 the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noe, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water.

21 The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels, and authorities, and powers, being made subject unto him.

CHAP. IV.

I The apostle exhorteth to cease from sin, in regard of Christ's having suffered for it, and under the view of a future judgment. 7 From the approaching end of all things he urgeth to sobriety, watchfulness, and other Christian duties.

FOrasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you;

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For, for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

10 As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth; that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ: to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But rejoice, in as much as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the finner appear?

19 Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well-doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER V.

1 The elders exhorted to feed the flock of Christ conscientiously, looking to the chief Shepherd for a reward. 5 The younger to submit to the elder; 8 and all to be sober, watchful, and steadfast in the faith, resisting the devil, &c.

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock:

4 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder; yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you:

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, (as I suppose,) I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus my son.

14 Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

¶ The Second Epistle general of PETER.

CHAPTER I.

1 The apostle sheweth the tendency of the gifts and promises of the gospel: 5 he exhorteth them to add to their faith such virtues as would make it fruitful, 10 and thereby to make sure their calling and election: 12 he is careful to remind them hereof, knowing his dissolution to be near; 16 and ureth the evidence of what he had seen and heard in the last moments in confirmation of Christ's second coming, &c.

SIMON PETER, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us, through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us unto glory and virtue:

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises; that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith, virtue; and to virtue, knowledge;

6 And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness;

7 And to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure; for if ye do these things ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up, by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover, I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly-devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

1 The apostle foretelleth the appearance of false teachers, the impurity of them and their followers, and the judgments that would overtake them. 7 The gospel shall be delivered, as Luc was out of Sodom. 10 The wicked principles and manners of these seducers described. 20 The great danger of relapsing into sin.

BUt there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation flureth not.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved ^b Noe the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds:)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished;

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. ^d Pre- sumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities:

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day-time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of ^e Balaam the son of Bofor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass, speaking with man's voice, forbade the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

1 The apostle declareth it to be the design of both his epistles to remove the blindness of Christ's coming to judgment, in relation to his people. 8 No argument can be drawn from the long patience of God, which is designed to move men to repentance. 10 He denounceth the day of the Lord, and exhorteth to holiness of life in expectation of it. 15 He sheweth that Paul had taught the same in his epistles; 17 and comforteth with advice to those of fluctuation, and to grow in Christian grace.

1 His second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you: in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance;

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein, shall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,

12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens, and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless:

15 And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness:

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory, both now and for ever. Amen.

¶ The First Epistle general of JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 The apostle declareth what he had formerly seen and known of the Word of life, to the end that others might have fellowship with him. 5 The substance of his doctrine is, That to have fellowship with God we must be holy; and if we confess our sins, we shall be forgiven through the blood of Christ.

1 HAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the Word of life;

2 (For the Life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal Life which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us.)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another; and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanse us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ our advocate with the Father, and a propitiation for the sins of the whole world. 3 Rightly to know God is to keep his commandments; and especially to love one another: 15 he warneth against the love of this world, 18 and against the multiplicity of seducers: 20 he sheweth the means of knowing the truth, and of distinguishing false teachers.

1 MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

b2] John 5.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him, and in you; becauſe the darkneſs is paſt, and the true light now ſhineth.

9 He that faith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkneſs even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none ſcſcation of ſlumbering in him:

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkneſs, and walketh in darkneſs, and knoweth not whether he goeth, becauſe that darkneſs hath blind'd his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, becauſe your ſins are forgiven you for his name's ſake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, becauſe ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, becauſe ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, becauſe ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, becauſe ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, becauſe ye are ſtrong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the luſt of the fleſh, and the luſt of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world paſſeth away, and the luſt thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the laſt time: and as ye have heard that antichriſt ſhall come, even now are there many antichriſts; whereby we know that it is the laſt time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifeſt that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction from the holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you becauſe ye know not the truth, but becauſe ye know it, and that no lyer is of the truth.

22 Who is a lyar but he that denieth that Jeſus is the Chriſt? He is antichriſt that denieth the Father, and the Son.

23 Whoſeever denieth the Son, the ſame hath not the Father: [but he that acknowledgeth the Son, hath the Father alſo.]

24 Let that therefore abide in you which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning ſhall remain in you, ye alſo ſhall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promiſe that he hath promiſed us, even eternal life.

26 Theſe things have I written unto you concerning them that ſeducer you.

27 But the anointing, which ye have received of him, abideth in you; and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the ſame appointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lyer, and even as it hath taught you, ye ſhall abide in him.

10 Cr. 16.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he ſhall appear, we may have confidence, and not be aſhamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, I ye know that every one that doeth rightcouſneſs is born of him.

10 Cr. 16.

C H A P. III.

1 He ſheweth God's ſingular love toward us, in calling us now his ſons, and deſign'd for farther happineſs hereafter, 3 and therefore we are to obediently keep his commandments; 11 and love one another with true brotherly kindneſs, &c.

Behold what manner of love the Father hath beſtowed upon us, that we ſhould be called the ſons of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, becauſe it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the ſons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we ſhall be: but we know that, when he ſhall appear, we ſhall be like him; for we ſhall ſee him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himſelf, even as he is pure.

4 Whoſeever committeſh ſin tranſgreſſeth alſo the law: for ſin is the tranſgreſſion of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifeſt^a to take away our ſins; and in him is no ſin.

a 1 John 3: 16, 17.

6 Whoſeever abideth in him ſinneth not: whoſeever ſinneth hath not ſeen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth rightcouſneſs is righteous, even as he is righteous:

8 He that committeſh ſin is of the devil: for the devil ſinneth from the beginning. For this purpoſe the Son of God was manifeſt, that he might deſtroy the works of the devil.

b 1 John 8: 12.

9 Whoſeever is born of God doth not commit ſin; for his ſeed remaineth in him: and he cannot ſin, becauſe he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifeſt, and the children of the devil: whoſeever doeth not rightcouſneſs is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the love that ye heard from the beginning, that we ſhould love one another:

c Or. 1 John 4: 19.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and ſlew his brother. And wherefore ſlew he him? Becauſe his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

c 1 John 4: 19.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

d 1 John 4: 19.

14 We know that we have paſſed from death unto life, becauſe we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 Whoſeever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

e 1 John 4: 19.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But ^{who} whole hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed, and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.

22 And ^{whatsoever} we ask we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And ^{this} is his commandment, that we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And ^{he} that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him; and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. IV.

1 The apostle warneth to try by certain rules the spirits that pretend to come from God: 7 he presseth the obligation of mutual love upon Christians from the example and commandment of God.

Beloved, I believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God; Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is the spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come, and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world; therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: ^{he} that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not knoweth not God: for God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And we have seen, and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And ^{this} commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1 He that loveth God loveth God's children, and keepeth his commandments. 4 A true faith will enable us to overcome the world. 6 The witnesses of our faith. 18 God's children distinguished from the world by abstaining from sin. 21 A caution against idolatry.

Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and ^{his} commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life; and this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son hath life, and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

3. 29.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true; and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

¶ The Second Epistle of JOHN.

1 The apostle testifieth his regard for a certain pious matron and her children: 5 he exhorteth them to persevere in Christian love and belief; that they lose not their full reward; 10 and to have nothing to do with seducers, &c.

HE elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not only, but also all they that have known the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever:

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

1 The apostle's salutation to Gaius: 5 he commendeth his hospitality to true preachers: 9 he censureth Diotrephes, 11 whose example is not to be followed: 12 he heareth testimony to the good character of Demetrius. 14 Salutations.

HE elder unto the well-beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church; whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We, therefore, ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words; and not content therewith; neither doeth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God; but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write to thee, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

¶ The general Epistle of JUDE.

7 After a general addreſs, Jude exhorteſt Chriſtians to conſtancy in the received faith: 4 he foretelleth the puniſhment of certain falſe teachers crept into the church, and diſturb their true doctrine and manners: 20 he exhorteſt true Chriſtians to perſevere in the right faith, and in the love of God: 22 and to ſeek the reformation of others: 24 he concluſeth with glorifying glory to God.

JUDE, the ſervant of Jeſus Chriſt, and brother of James, to them that are ſanctified by God the Father, and preſerved in Jeſus Chriſt, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common ſalvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you, that ye ſhould earneſtly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the ſaints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into laſciviouſneſs, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having ſaved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward deſtroyed them that believed not.

6 And the angels which kept not their firſt eſtate, but left their own habitation, he hath reſerved in everlaſting chains under darkneſs, unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themſelves over to fornication, and going after ſtrange fleſh, are ſet forth for an example, ſuffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise alſo theſe filthy dreamers deſile the fleſh, deſpiſe dominion, and ſpeak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, (he diſputed about the body of Moſes,) durſt not bring againſt him a railing accusation, but ſaid, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But theſe ſpeak evil of thoſe things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beaſts, in thoſe things they corrupt themſelves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainſaying of Core.

12 Theſe are ſpots in your feaſts of charity, when they feaſt with you, feeding themſelves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whoſe fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the ſea, foaming out their own ſhame; wandering ſtars, to whom is reſerved the blackneſs of darkneſs for ever.

14 And Enoch alſo, the ſeventh from Adam, prophesied of theſe, ſaying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thouſand of his ſaints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard ſpeeches which ungodly ſinners have ſpoken againſt him.

16 Theſe are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own luſts; and their mouth ſpeaketh great ſwelling words, having men's perſons in admiration becauſe of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were ſpoken before of the apoſtles of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt;

18 How that they told you there ſhould be mockers in the laſt time, who ſhould walk after their own ungodly luſts.

19 Theſe be they who ſeparate themſelves, ſenſual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, building up yourſelves on your moſt holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghoſt, 21 Keep yourſelves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt unto eternal life.

22 And of ſome have compaſſion, making a difference:

23 And others ſave with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment ſpotted by the fleſh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to preſent you faultleſs before the preſence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 To the only wiſe God our Saviour, be glory and majeſty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

prince of the kings of the earth: Unto him that loved us, 'and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

7 'Behold he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and 'they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 'I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And, being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, 'clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars; and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword; and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him I fell at his feet as dead: and he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; 'I am the first and the last:

18 I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars, which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches; and the seven candlesticks, which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

CHAP. II.

What John was commanded to write in commendation or reproof to the angels of the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira.

UNTo the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember, therefore, from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich,) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of 'Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou suffertest that woman 'Jezebel, which

What John was commanded to write in commendation or reproof to the angels of the churches of 1 Sardis, 7 Philadelphia, 14 and Laodicea.

And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

John seeth the throne of God in heaven, 4 compassed with four and twenty elders, 6 and four beasts full of eyes before and behind. 8 The continual adoration and worship offered before him that sat on the throne.

After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up-hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAP. VI.

The opening of the seals, and what followed thereupon.

And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals; and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red; and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, * A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse; and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him: and power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld, when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely figs, when the is shaken of a mighty wind:

14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places:

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond-man, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER VII.

1 John seeth four angels holding the four winds; 2 and another angel coming to seal the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed out of each of the tribes of Israel. 9 An innumerable multitude out of all nations stand before the throne in white robes, with palms in their hands. 13 Who they are who are clothed in white robes, and what is their blessedness for ever.

And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthaliim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God; and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The seventh seal opened. 2 Seven angels receive seven trumpets. 3 An angel presenteth the prayers of the saints with incense on the golden altar before the throne. 6 Four of the angels sound their trumpets, and great plagues severally follow.

And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels, which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea; and the third part of the sea became blood:

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and

And many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to sound!

CHAP. IX.

1 At the sounding of the fifth angel a star falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomless pit: 2 he openeth the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions. 12 The first woe past. 13 The sixth trumpet sounded, and four angels are let loose which were bound.

And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth; and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth; and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions; and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

12 One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood; which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their forceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAP. X.

1 A mighty angel appeareth with a book open in his hand, 5 and sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that there shall be no more time. 8 John is commanded to take and eat the book, and to prophesy.

And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel, which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And swore by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea, and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

CHAP. XI.

3 The two witnesses shall prophesy : 5 their power : 7 the beast shall fight against them, and kill them : 8 they lie unburied, 11 and after three days and an half rise again. 13 A great earthquake. 14 The second woe past. 15 The seventh trumpet sounded, &c.

And there was given me a reed like unto a rod : and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the temple † leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles : and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the two olive-trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies : and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have power to shut heaven that it rain not in the days of their prophecy ; and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people, and kindreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another ; because these two prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood up on their feet ; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven, saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud ; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain † of men seven thousand : and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past ; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded ; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come ; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great ; and shouldest destroy them which † destroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament : and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAP. XII.

1 A woman clothed with the sun travaileth. 3 A great red dragon standeth ready to devour her child : 5 she is delivered, and fleeth into the wilderness. 7 Michael and his angels fight with the dragon, and overcome him. 10 The victory proclaimed in heaven. 13 The dragon, being cast down to the earth, persecuteth the woman.

And there appeared a great wonder in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars :

2 And she, being with child, cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven, and, behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth : and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man-child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron : and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven ; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon ; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not ; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world : he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ ; for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony ; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, even unto the horse's bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

1 The seven angels with the seven last plagues. 3 The song of them which overcome the beast. 5 The seven angels receive the seven golden vials full of the wrath of God.

And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire; and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The seven angels commanded to pour out their vials on the earth: 2 great plagues follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh suddenly as a thief; blessed are they that watch.

And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying unto the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living foul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:

6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth, and

15 ^a Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place, called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

1 ^x John's vision of the great whore sitting upon the scarlet-coloured beast arrayed in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand: 5 her name: 6 she is drunken with the blood of saints. 7 The interpretation of the mystery of the beast, and of his seven heads and ten horns. 14 The victory of the Lamb. 16 The punishment of the whore.

And there came one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and, when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world,) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

Jerem. 25. 19.

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 A mighty angel declareth the fall of Babylon. 4 God's people commanded to depart out of her: 8 her judgment.

9 The kings of the earth, 11 and the merchants and mariners, lament over her. 20 The saints excited to rejoice over her: 21 the representation of her irrecoverable fall.

And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues:

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly, utterly burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived delicately with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas! that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more.

The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

And saying, Alas, alas! that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmafter, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

And cried, when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas! that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy forceries were all nations deceived.

And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

God is praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blood of his saints. 6 The triumph because of the marriage of the Lamb. 10 The angel will not be worshipped. 11 The vision of the Word of God, &c.

And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

For true and righteous are his judgments; for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia.

And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth.

Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him; for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

And he saith unto me, Write, ^{a Matthi 22, 2.} Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage-supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, ^{b Chaps 22, 39.} See thou do it not; I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse: and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True; and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew but he himself:

And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood; and his name is called, The Word of God. ^{c Thiat 63, 2.}

And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations; and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

And he hath on his vesture, and on his thigh, a name written, ^{d Chapt 17, 14.} KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

And I saw an angel standing in the sun: and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 4 The first resurrection, and their blessedness. 7 Satan let loose again, gathereth Gog and Magog to battle, who are devoured with fire.

10 The devil cast into the lake of fire and brimstone. 11 The general resurrection, and last judgment.

And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power; but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, ^aGog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it; from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: ^band the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 2 The new Jerusalem.

3 The blessedness of God's people. 8 The judgment of the wicked. 9 A description of the heavenly Jerusalem.

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said, ^cBehold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. ^dI am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end: ^eI will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and forcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal.

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the east, three gates; on the north, three gates; on the south, three gates; and on the west, three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysolarius; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it; and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day; for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

C H A P. XXII.

1 The river and tree of life. 3 The glorious state of the servants of God. 8 John is forbidden by the angel to worship him; 10 and commanded not to seal up the prophecy.

12 Christ's coming and eternity. 14 The blessedness of them who do God's commandments. 18 Nothing must be added to or taken from this prophecy. 21 The conclusion.

And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no night there: and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still; and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still; and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For without are dogs, and fornicers, and whore-mongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly; Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

At length he cometh to his uncle Laban's house, and covenanteth to serve him seven years for his daughter Rachel, but Laban deceiveth him with Leah; the mar- riage week being completed, Rachel also is given him to wife, upon condition of serving seven years more.		1704. XLVIII. 1703. XLIX. 1689.	Joseph getteth all the money, lands, and cat- tle, of the Egyptians for bread; only the lands belonging to the priests he buyeth not. Numb. XI. 31.	The people lusted for flesh: God gives them quails in wrath; and sends withal a most grievous plague among them.	Numb. XXI.	About the latter end of this year, all those who at Kadesh-barnea mutinied against God being wholly extinct and dead, the Israelites pass over Zared, and come to the borders of Moab at Ar, and at length they arrive at Bamoth, a valley in the country of the Moabites, and pitch at mount Pisgah.
XII.	God rebukes the sedition of Miriam and Aaron, and maintaineth Moses' right.	21.	Sihon king of the Amorites, refusing them passage through his country, is slain, and the Israelites possess his land.
XIII.	From the wilderness of Paran, near Kadesh-barnea, twelve men are sent (among whom are Caleb and Joshua) to discover the land of Canaan. Returning, they bring with them a branch of a vine, with a cluster of grapes upon it: ten of the twelve so sent speak ill of the country, declare it barren, and magnify the cities for their strength, and the giant stature of the inhabitants.	33.	Og the king of Bashan, coming out against Israel, is destroyed with all his people, not one left alive, and his country possessed by the Israelites.
XIV.	The people, terrified with this relation, are about to return into Egypt, from which Caleb and Joshua endeavouring to dissuade them are like to be stoned. At this God is so provoked, that he threatneth to destroy them; but is prevailed upon by Moses' prayers to spare them. Nevertheless he denounceth that all who are now twenty years old and upward (except Caleb and Joshua) shall die in the wilderness. The men who raised the evil report are all destroyed by sudden death. Some endeavouring to enter upon the promised land contrary to the command of God, are smitten by the Amalekites and Canaanites.	XXII. 1, 2.	After these victories the Israelites set forward, and encamp in the plains of Moab.
1489. Deut. I. 46.	In this place, viz. Kadesh-barnea, the Israelites continue many days; but that in some places they continued many years appeareth, for that in the space of thirty-seven years there are but seventeen encampings mentioned.	3.	Balak king of Moab, considering what the Israelites had done to the Amorites, fears, lest, under pretence of passing through his country, they should possess themselves of his whole kingdom, takes counsel with the princes of the Midianites his neighbours, and sends for Balaam a soothsayer out of Mesopotamia, to come and curse the Israelites, promising him great rewards for his labour; purposing afterwards to make war upon them.
Numbers XXXIII.	To their long continuance in Kadesh, and the encampings from thence, all that we find delivered in the xvth and four next ensuing chapters of Numbers seems to refer: as how Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, for raising a mutiny against Moses and Aaron, were swallowed alive into the earth, and 250 of their associates; and how the people, murmuring against Moses and Aaron for the calamity which had befallen their brethren, were destroyed by God, to the number of 14,700 men; and how twelve rods being brought by twelve princes, and laid in the sanctuary, Aaron's rod only budded, and brought forth almonds, and was laid up before the ark, for a memorial to those who should afterwards be given to rebellion.	Numb. XXII. 7, 35.	Balaam, forewarned of God, refuseth at first to come; but being fear for a second time, he importuneth God to let him go, and goes with a purpose indeed to curse Israel; but God, offended thereat, makes the dumb ass of this wizard, on which he rode, speaking in a man's voice, to reprove his folly.

Balaam twice offers sacrifice, and would fain have cursed Israel to gratify Balak therein; but instead of cursing, being forced thereto by the Spirit of God, he blesseth them altogether; foretelling what felicity attended them, and what calamities should befall their enemies.
XVII.	The people again, for want of water, murmur against Moses and Aaron, whom when God had commanded to call water out of the rock only by speaking to it, Moses, being moved in his mind through impatience and diffidence of the thing, speaks something, whatever it was, unadvisedly with his lips, and strikes the rock twice with Aaron's rod, and thereby draws water from it; but for transgressing God's command, they are both debarred from entering into the land of Canaan.	Num. XXIII.	Balaam twice offers sacrifice, and would fain have cursed Israel to gratify Balak therein; but instead of cursing, being forced thereto by the Spirit of God, he blesseth them altogether; foretelling what felicity attended them, and what calamities should befall their enemies.
1452. XX.	In the fifth month of this year Aaron dieth at Mosera, on the top of mount Hor, at the age of 123 years, leaving his son Eleazar his successor in the high priesthood.	Deut. XXIII. 5.	By his advice the women of Moab and Midian are set on work to turn the Israelites away to idolatry. Wherefore God commands Moses first to take all the ring-leaders of this disorder, and to hang them up before the sun, and then gives orders to the judges to put to death all such as had joined themselves to Baal-peor. Last of all God sends a plague upon the people, whereof died 23,000 men in one day; which added to them which were hanged and killed with the sword, amount in all to 24,000.

John III. 14.		Deut. IV. 3.	God therefore setteth the high priesthood for ever upon the house of Phinehas, and commands that war be made upon the Midianites.
		Psalm. CVI. 28.	Moses and Eleazar, by God's command, in the plains of Moab, near unto Jordan, over against Jericho, number the people from twenty years old and upward, and find them to be 601,730 men, besides the Levites, whose number, reckoning them from one month old and upward, come to 23,000, and then Moses receives command for the parting of the land of promise among the Israelites.
		Rev. II. 14.	The daughters of Zelophehad have their father's land parted among them for want of issue-male; this occasions the law for succession in heritages to be made.
		1 Cor. X. 8.	God signifies to Moses that he shall die; and Joshua thereupon is declared to be his successor, upon whom Moses lays his hands, and gives him instructions. Several laws are made.

The Year before CHRIST 1451.	Numb. XXXI.	The Fourth Age of the World. Twelve thousand of the Israelites, under the command of Phinehas, vanquish the Midianites, and put to the sword all the males among them, with their five princes, and among them Zur, the father of Cozai, and Palsam the wizard; but they save the women alive, at which Moses is wroth, and commands that every male child, and all the women, except such as were virgins, be killed. The day following Joshua renews the use of circumcision, which had been omitted 20 years. Upon the fourteenth day of the first month, in the evening, the Israelites celebrate their first passover in the land of Canaan. Next day after the passover manna ceaseth. Our Lord Jesus, Captain of his Father's host, appears to Joshua, the typical Jesus, before Jericho, with a drawn sword in his hand, and promises there to defend his people. Joshua, the ark of the Lord having been carried round about it, is taken the seventh day, the wall's thereof falling down at the sound of the priests' trumpets; all the inhabitants are put to the sword except Rahab and her family. The Israelites believe Aï, and are smitten by their enemies, God having abandoned them for sacrilege committed by Achish. Achish's sin being discovered by the casting of lots, and himself found guilty, he is stoned to death, and, together with his children and cattle, burnt with fire. God being pacified hereby, Aï is taken by ambushment, and utterly destroyed. On mount Ebal, according to the law made, is an altar erected, and the Ten Commandments engraven on it; the blessings and curses are repeated on mount Ebal and mount Gerizim, and the book of the law read in the ears of the people. The kings of Canaan combine against Israel; only the Gibeonites craftily find a way to save their own lives, by making a league with them; but are afterwards deputed to the servile offices of the house of God. Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem, with the kings of Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Ekron, hearing that Gibeon is fallen off from them, join their forces together, and besiege it; but Joshua smaleth the siege, pursueth those five kings, and smiteth them as far as Azekah. The Lord in the mean while killing many of the nations from heaven upon the Israelites with his sword, Joshua commands the sun to stand still over Gibeon, and the moon over the valley of Ajalon, by the space almost of one whole day, until the Israelites are fully avenged of their enemies. The five kings hide themselves in a cave at Makkedah, from whence they are brought forth, scornfully used, and hanged. From the autumn of this year, wherein, after the falling of manna, they began to till the ground, the rise of the Sabbath-year is to be taken. Joshua, now grown old, is commanded by God to divide all the land on the west of Jordan among the nine tribes remanant, and the other half-tribe of Manasseh. The Lord and his facilities are the inheritance of Levi. The rest of the kings, with whom Joshua had waged war for six years, resolve to set upon him with united forces; but Joshua comes upon them unawares, slays them, and possesseth their countries. Joshua now routs out those giants the Anakims, with their cities, out of the hill-country, out of Hebron, Debir, and Anab, and, generally, out of all the mountains of Judah, and all Israel. And, having gotten the whole land into his hand, he divideth it among the children of Israel according to their tribes, and the land resteth from war. The first Sabbath-year, or year of rest, from hence the year of jubilee, or every 50 years' space, is to be reckoned.
	Joh. XIII. 21, 22.
	Num. XXXII.	The lands which belonged to Sihon and Og, namely, all from the river Arnon to mount Hermon, Moses divides, and gives to the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh; so that their possessions lay on this side Jordan; nevertheless they assist the rest of the tribes in all their wars, till they have subdued the Canaanites, and possessed the promised land. 	Deut. XXVII.	Moses commands the people, that, in their passage over Jordan, they shall set up great stones, and engrave the Ten Commandments on them, with the form of blessing upon mount Gerizim, and of cursing on mount Ebal. 	XXIX.	He also renews the covenant made by God with them and their children on mount Horeb, and again persuades them to keep that covenant, by all the blessings and curses which would undoubtedly follow the keepers or breakers of it: yet with a promise of pardon and deliverance, if at any time, having broken it, they shall repent them of their sin; and tells them further, that God had therefore thus declared his will unto them, to the end that none hereafter offending shall pretend ignorance. 	XXXI.	Moses having written this law, delivers it to the priests, the sons of Levi, and the elders of the people, to be kept; the same day also he writes his most excellent song, and teaches the same to the children of Israel to be sung; and, having finished the book of the Law, he takes order to have it laid up in the side of the ark.
	XXXII.	Moses, now drawing near to his end, blesteth every tribe in particular, by way of prophecy, save only the tribe of Simeon.
	Deut. XXXIII.	In the twelfth month of this year he goes up to mount Nebo, and from thence beholds the land of promise, and there dieth, aged 120 years; the body of Moses God translates out of the place where he died into a valley of the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor, and there burieth it; nor doth any man know the place where he laid it unto this day. The Israelites mourn for him thirty days.
	XXXIV.	Here ends the Pentateuch, or five books of Moses, containing the history of 2552 years, and an half from the beginning of the world; and the book of Joshua begins with the forty-first year after the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.	1450.	Ex. XXIII. 10, 11.

1243.	Judges II.	After the death of Joshua, and the death of the old men, and who remembered the wonders which God had wrought for Israel, there falls a degenerate generation upon the land, and misleads themselves with the Canaanites in marriage, and worship their idols. In this time of anarchy and confusion, when every man did that which seemed right in his own eyes, all the disorders were committed which are reported in the five last chapters of the Book of Judges: to wit, the idolatry of Micah, and the children of Dan; the war of the benjamites, and the caste thereof. God being highly provoked, gives them up into the hands of Cushan king of Mesopotamia, which still calamity of their idols them but eight years.
1245.	9.	Othniel the son of Kenaz, and son-in-law to Caleb, stirred up by God as a judge and avenger of his people, defeats Cushan, and delivers the Israelites out of bondage, and the land resteth 40 years, after the first rest which Joshua procured for them.
1246.	12.	Othniel dying, the Israelites fall again to sin against God, and are given over into the hands of Eglon king of Moab, who joining with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, overthrow the Israelites, and takes Jericho; and this second oppression continueth 18 years.
1247.	15. 3.	Ehud, the son of Gera, is raised up by God to be an avenger of his people; for feigning a palsy to Eglon he runs him into the belly with his dagger; then, getting away, he gathers all Israel into a body on mount Ephraim, and slays 10,000 of the most valiant men of Moab; and the land resteth forty years, after the former rest obtained by Othniel.
1248.	31.	After him Shamgar the son of Anath slays 600 Philistines with an ox-goad, and he also avenges Israel.
1249.	IV. 1, 2, 3.	The Israelites, after the death of Ehud, returning to their old sin, are given up by God into the hands of Jabin king of Canaan; and this third oppression continueth 20 years.
1250.	4.	Deborah, the wife of Lapidoth, a prophetess, who at this time judgeth Israel in mount Ephraim, and Barak of the tribe of Naphtali being made captain of the host of Israel, in fight of Megiddo, overcome Sisera captain of Jabin's army, whom Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite afterwards kills in her own tent. For a memorial of which victory Deborah composeth a song; and the land resteth 40 years, after the former rest obtained by Ehud.
1251.	V. 1.	The Israelites falling again are delivered into the hands of the Midianites; which fourth oppression lasteth seven years. Hereupon they cry unto God for help, and are reproved by a prophet. Then Gideon the son of Joash, of Manasse, is chosen by God to deliver them. He slays overcometh the altar of Baal, and burns his grove, and is called Jerubbaal. He, out of 30,000 men which came unto him, chooseth only 300 for commanding men; but with them he puts to flight all the host of the Midianites, whom the Ephraimites afterwards pursue,

Gideon, having pacified the Ephraimites, who complain that they were not called to the battle, a first defeat the over Jordan, and defeat the remainder of the Midianites; he chastiseth also the men of Succoth and Penuel, who had refused him victuals in his journey; and slays the two kings of the Midianites, Zebah and Zalmunna. After which great victories the Israelites enquiring to settle the kingdom upon him and his posterity, he refuseth it; but receiving their gold earrings, he makes thereof an ephod, which afterwards proves the occasion of idolatry. The Midianites being thus vanquished, the land enjoyed 40 years after the former rest restored to them by Deborah and Barak.
1253.	33.	Gideon dieth, and the Israelites fall again to idolatry, worship Baal-berith for their god.
1254.	IX. 1, 2, &c.	Abimelech the son of Gideon (begotten upon his concubine) purposing to get to himself the kingdom which his father had refused, slays seventy of his brethren all upon one stone; and having, by the help of the Shechemites, got to be made king, Jotham the youngest son of Gideon, who only escaped Abimelech's fury, from the top of mount Gerizim expostulates with them the wrong they had done to his father's house; and by way of a parable, foretells their ruin: which done, he flees, and dwells quietly in Beer.
1255.	22.	Abimelech having reigned three years over Israel, Gaal a Shechemite conspires against him, which being discovered to him by Zebul, he utterly destroyeth the city of Shechem, and puts all the inhabitants to the sword, and burneth the temple of their god Berith with fire: from thence he goes and layeth siege to Thebez, where he is knocked on the head with a piece of a millstone, cast upon him by a woman from the walls, and then killed outright by his armour-bearer.

The Fourth Age of the World.
After twenty years the Israelites, by Samuel's persuasion, solemnly repent at Mizpeh, and, upon their conversion, God, by thunder from Heaven, delivers them from the invasion of the Philistines, who are subdued, the hand of the Lord being against them all the days of Samuel.

Samuel, being grown old, takes for his assistants in the government his sons; by which all in government of affairs the Israelites require a king to be given them; whereupon God gives them a king in his wrath, to wit, Saul the son of Kish, after Samuel had judged Israel twenty-one years. Saul is private y^enorozed by Samuel.

Afterward, probably proclaim David king at Mizpeh. About a month after Jebel-gilead is believed by N. H. Winckler king of the Ammonites, and the people raised by Saul, whereupon the whole congregation of Israel, coming together at Gilgal, again proclaim Saul king.

David the son of Jesse the Ipsi cathide, born at Beth-lehem-judah 30 years before he became David the king in the kingdom. He was his father's youngest son.

God rejects Saul, and sends Samuel to Beth-lehem, there to anoint David king, whom Saul ever after extremely persecuteth.

Yet Jonathan, Saul's son, loveth him, and oftentimes rescueth him from Saul's cruelty.

David having Saul twice in his power, forbears to hurt him.

D. David, having he may come time or other fall into the hands of Saul, flees to Gath unto king Achish, carrying with him 600 men; and I having obtained of him the town of Ziklag to dwell in, he continueth one year and four months in the land of the Philistines, in which time he hath sought the countries of the Geshurites, Gergizites, and Amalekites, and puts to the sword all the men and women, not leaving one alive to report the news thereof to king Achish.

Achish, purposing to make war upon the Israelites, takes D. David along with him to the camp of Idub, to whom, whilst he is upon his march, he with his 600 men, repair a great many others of the tribe of Manasseh, and join with him.

The prince of the Philistines, who was going to fight with David, and (Samuel being now dead) goes to Endor, to consult with a witch there: the woman saith, an apparition of Samuel, and Saul receives from it that dreadful doom. The Lord will deliver Israel, together with thyself, into the hands of the Philistines.

The prince of the Philistines, who was going to fight with David, and his company, early the next morning, leave the army, and return to Ziklag.

The armies join battle, and the Israelites are defeated: the three sons of Saul are slain, and he himself falls on his own sword.

Three day after an Amalekite brings Saul's crown and the bracelet that was upon his arm, and presents them to David, pretending that, finding him fallen upon his sword, he had killed him outright, and taken the crown from off his head; whereupon David cautions him to be ated with a thickening of his hand to the Lord's anointed, and with the death of him and Jonathan his son in a fatal battle. A living alked counsel of God, goes up to a throne with faith that he abides in him, where he is anointed king by the men of justice, and he is the one who is the great one of the world, and he is the one who is the great one of the world, and he is the one who is the great one of the world.

1032. 2 Sam. II. 12. After two years there arise frequent and mortal skirmishes between a party of men on David's side, headed by Joab, David's nephew, and another party on Ishbosheth's side, whereof Abner is chief; but the former still grows stronger and braver.
1048. III. 6. Abner, assisted by Ishbosheth, revolteth to David, and deals with the chief men of Israel to transfer the whole kingdom unto him, and this in the hearing of the Benjamites.
23. He comes to David, and is kindly received; returning, he is treacherously murdered by Joab. David much laments his untimely death, and buries him at Hebron.
- IV. 2. Baishah and Rechab murder their lord and master Ishbosheth, as he doth rest in himself, in his bed. They bring his head to David, upon the detection of their treason, causing them immediately to be put to death.
1047. V. The captains and elders of all the tribes coming to Hebron, anoint David a third time, and make him king over all Israel.
- Chron. XI. David with all Israel marcheth to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, and taketh the fort of Zion, and calls it The city of David; and, making Jerusalem the seat of his kingdom, reigneth there over all Israel thirty-three years.
1045. VI. The ark of the covenant, which in the first Saccade of this year was brought from Gibeon to Shiloh, in this year, being also a Sabbath year, brought from Kirjath-earim, out of the house of Aminadab, and placed at Zion: 30,000 choice men of Israel attending it, and singing the 68th psalm.
1044. 2 Sam. VII. David now dwelling in his house of cedar which he had built, and living in a full and perfect peace, imparteth to Nathan the prophet his purpose of building an house for God; but is answered from God, that this was a work which should be done, not by him, because he was a man of blood, and trained up in war, but by his son Solomon, a man of peace, which should be born unto him. The time which passeth from hence till the birth of Solomon is spent in wars; wherein David subdues the Philistines, Edomites, Amalekites, Moabites, Ammonites, and Syrians, and extends his kingdom to the utmost bound of that Land which had been promised to the seed of Abraham, and never possessed by any of them, save only by David, and his son Solomon.
1035. 2 Sam. XI. At the end of this year Joab, going with the army against the Ammonites, besiegeth Rabbah, the metropolis of Ammon, whilst David takes his ease at Jerusalem, and there commits adultery with Bathsheba the wife of Uriah the Hittite, who was then in the army, whom he also procures to be slain.
1044. 2 Sam. XII. The child gotten in adultery is born. David is convicted by Nathan the prophet of his sin, and he repents, in testimony whereof he composeth the 51st psalm. The child dieth.
1030. 23. Bathsheba becomes now David's wife, and begets him a son, unto whom, as unto one who should prove a man of peace, God gives the name of Solomon; and as to one beloved of the Lord, the name of Jedidiah.
1032. 2 Sam. XIII. Amnon, David's eldest son, deflourth his sister Tamar.
1031. 23. Absalom avengeth his sister Tamar, and killth his brother Amnon, for which thing he fleeth to Geshur in Syria, where he continues three years with king Talmai, his grandfather by the mother's side.
27. XIV. After three years' exile he returns to Jerusalem, where he continues two years before the king 1024. 2 Sam. XV. This rebel Ion, having got chariots and horses, is a guard to attend him, and is a guard to attend him, in the favour of the people, an Ithai away their hearts from his father David.

1023. 7. The next year following, under pretence of a vow, he obtaineth leave, to go to Hebron, where, by Ahithophel's counsel, he breaks out into open rebellion, and forceth his father to flee from Jerusalem.
- XVII. Ahithophel, because his counsel in all matters is not followed by David, hangs himself.
- XVIII. Absalom, having lost 20,000 men, flesh, and a bough of an oak catching hold of him, he there hangs, and is run through by Joab.
1017. XXIX. David, tempted by Satan, commandeth Joab to number the people; God, offended thereat, sends a prophet to put three plagues to his choice, viz. the famine, sword, or pestilence. David chooseth to fall into the hands of a merciful God rather than into the hands of men. So God sends a pestilence; whereof 70,000 men die in one day. The angel being about to destroy Jerusalem, God bids him hold his hand; for he beholds David repenting in sackcloth, and entreating him to spare the innocent people, and to turn his hand upon himself, and upon his father's house.
1016. 1 Kings XIV. Rehoboam is born unto Solomon by Naamah an Ammonitish woman.
1015. 21. David being now 70 years of age, and broken with continual cares and wars, grows to weak and feeble that clothes can no longer preserve heat in him. Therefore Abishag, a young virgin, is appointed to keep him warm. Abishag, seeing his father thus declining, by the assistance of Joab and Abiathar, makes himself king; which David understanding, he presently commands Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, with other great men, to anoint Solomon king. Abishag hearing this, betakes himself to the sanctuary, and is pardoned.
- II. David, having given instructions to his son Solomon, dieth, after he had reigned in Hebron seven years and six months, and thirty-two years in Jerusalem over all Israel.
1014. III. 1, 2. Pharaoh king of Egypt gives his daughter in marriage to Solomon.
5. The Lord appears to Solomon in a dream, and bids him ask what he will, and it shall be given him. Solomon asketh wisdom; God gives him wisdom from above, and adds thereto riches and honour. Of this divine wisdom Solomon makes an eminent manifestation in judging between two harlots.
- The Fifth Age of the World.
12. VI. 1. Solomon layeth the foundation of the temple in the 480th year after the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.
1005. 1 Kings VI. 38. Solomon's temple finished in the 11th year of his reign, having been seven years and an half in building.
1004. VIII. Solomon this year (being the ninth jubilee, and opening the fourth millenary of the world) with great magnificence celebrates the dedication of the temple; at which time God gives a visible sign of his favour.
975. 1 Kings XI. Solomon having, as it is with reason believed, forsaken his loves and vanities, to which he had been too intemperately addicted, and written, as a testimony of his repentance, his book called The Preacher, dieth. He reigned 40 years.
- 1 Kings XI. The Israelites assemble at Shechem to crown Rehoboam.

The Year before CHRIST	The Fifth Age of the World.	The Year of the Jews	The Fifth Age of the World.
784.	After his death all things fall into confusion, and he is re-acted to a plain anarchy, which lasts eleven years and an half, for from an interregnum or vacancy the synchroon of kings requires, that the six months of Zachariah the son of Jeroboam may answer the thirty-eight years and one month of Shallum, who murdered him in the thirty-ninth year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah.	2 Kings XVII. 3	Shalmaneser king of Assyria comes up against Hohen, and makes him to leave him, and pay him tribute. Hezekiah succeedeth his father Ahaz in the kingdom of Judah, he destroyeth idolatry, and reforms: he also celebrates a solemn passover, and reigneth twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; his father had m. 2. years in the last year of his reign, he still lived in the seventh year.
773.	Zachariah, the son of Jeroboam, the fourth, and last of the race of Jehu, (as was foretold,) begins his reign over Israel in the 38th year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah, and reigneth six months.	2 Kings XVII. 4	Hoshea king of Israel, having consulted with So king of Egypt, a treaty to pay tribute to Shalmaneser, persuaded Sennacherib, and others of some further design in that conference of Hoshea with the king of Egypt, Shalmaneser layeth siege to Samaria, and toward the latter end of the third year taketh it, and carrieth away the Israelites captive into his own country. This was the end of the kingdom of Israel, when it had stood divided from the kingdom of Judah, 254 years.
772.	Shallum the son of Jabeel, at the end of six months, murders him in the sight of the people, and reigns one month in the 39th year of Uzziah king of Judah. After Zachariah's death follow those direful calamities foretold by Amos the prophet.	2 Kings XVII. 5	Sennacherib king of Assyria, coming up against Judah, besiegeth their fenced cities, and takes many of them, but is satisfied by a tribute.
771.	Menahem the son of Gadi, going from Tirzah to Samaria, killeth Shallum, witheth Tirzah and the borders thereof, and because the town would not open to him he takes it, and rips up all the women with child.	XVIII. XX.	About this time Hezekiah falls sick, and is told by Isaiah that he shall die; and upon hearing his death, and payeth unto God, he recovereth his health, and doth much a prolongation of his life and kingdom for six years. For a sign whereof the sun goes ten degrees backward.
761.	While Menahem, in these broils, labours to get the possession of the kingdom, Pul king of Assyria invadeth his country, to whom Menahem giveth 1000 talents of silver, and afterwards reigneth quietly ten years.	2 Kings XIX. 1	Sennacherib, not observing the articles of peace, layeth siege to Jerusalem, and sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah; which he upbraideth and speaking before the Lord in the temple, with many tears craves assistance from God against the Assyrians. Whereupon the prophet Isaiah assures him that God will deliver him, and defend that city. The self-same night an angel of the Lord slays 185000 men in the Assyrian army, and the next morning Sennacherib departeth, and returns to Nineveh; where not long after, whilst he is worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, he is slain by his own sons.
759.	Pekah, one of his captains, kills him in his own palace at Samaria, and reigneth 20 years.	2 Kings XIX. 2	Manasseh at twelve years of age succeedeth his father Hezekiah, and reigneth 55 years. He falls up idolatry, and the people much innocent blood. Wherefore God delivereth him up into the hands of the Assyrians, who in the 22d year of his reign, carry him away captive to Babylon; but, upon his repentance, God restores him to his liberty and kingdom.
758.	Jotham succeedeth his father Uzziah in the kingdom of Judah at the age of 25 years, and reigneth 16 years in Jerusalem.	2 Kings XIX. 3	This year Naebodon for king of Assyria, proposing to make himself universal monarch, sends Holofernes his general against Judah, who layeth siege to Bethsai, and there hath his head taken off by Judith, a woman of the tribe of Simeon.
742.	Jotham furnishes the Ammonites, and makes them tributary for three years. Under him and his two successors the prophets Micah and Hosea execute their prophetic office. About this time lived the prophet Nahum, and prophesied the destruction of Nineveh.	2 Kings XIX. 4	Amor, aged 32 years, succeedeth his father Manasseh, and reigneth 22 years; he is a debaucher, and is his father, but not pious; he is murdered by his own servants.
741.	Ahaz succeedeth his father Jotham in the 17th year of Pekah king of Israel, and reigneth 16 years.	2 Kings XIX. 5	Judah, a child of eight years old succeedeth his father Amor, and reigneth 13 years. In his time lived Jeremiah and Zephaniah the prophets, and Habakkuk the prophet.
739.	This year Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah king of Israel, are confederate against Judah, which strikes a great terror into that nation; but unto Ahaz God, by the prophet Hahan, sends a precious message, with a promise of deliverance; for a sign whereof (when the incredulous king, being bid to ask a sign, refused to do so,) God gives him the promise of Immanuel to be born of a virgin. Rezin and Pekah now lay siege to Jerusalem, and there unto Ahaz, but are beaten off. Ahaz is no longer delivered from his enemies but he forsakes God his deliverer, and falls to idolatry. Wherefore God gives him over into the hands of the king of Israel, who days of the men of Judah 120000 in one day, with a great many of the nobility, and carrieth away 200000 captives; but these by the advice of the propheet Obed, are released and sent home.	2 Kings XIX. 6	In the twelfth year of his reign he begins a reformation in Judah and Jerusalem, and carries it on unto his death.
730.	Hoshea the son of Elah murders Pekah king of Israel, and gets the kingdom into his own hands: it is said in the 20th year of Jotham, that is, from the time Jotham first began to reign, which is the same with the 4th of Ahaz his son. Hoshea, by reason of the tumults and disorders which ensued, cannot be said to have reigned till nine years after, the first continuing all that time in great confusion, without any form of government.	2 Kings XIX. 7	This year a fresh order for the repair of the temple. Hilkiah the high priest having found a book of the law, sends it to the king, who hears it read all over to him, and thereupon asketh counsel of Hilkiah the prophets, who prophesied the destruction of Jerusalem, but not in his days. The number of dead men's bones upon the altar of Beth-el, was foretold; and keepeth a most solemn memorial.	623.	Daniel II.	This year (being the second of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, taking it as it begun at his father's death) Daniel hath Nebuchadnezzar's dream revealed to him, and interprets it to be broken the four chief monarchies: whereupon he and his companions are highly advanced.
624.	2 Kings XXIII.	At this time a war breaks out between the king of Egypt and the king of Assyria. Josiah unadvisedly engageth in this war, and Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and the king of Egypt, are slain in the valley of Megiddo. The great king being thus taken out of the world, while the only kept of the Babylonish captivity from that nation, not only the people then living bewail his death, but ever after time a justick mourning for him was kept. The prophet Jeremiah also, in remembrance thereof, composeth his Lamentation, wherein bewailing the calamities which were shortly to befall that people, as present before his eyes, in a most compassionate manner he points it out to be with his finger, the death of Josiah, as the source and original of all those ensuing miseries.	624.	2 Kings XXIV.	Nebuchadnezzar sends an army, consisting of Chaldeans, Syrians, Moabites, and Ammonites, against Jehoiachim: these waste the whole country of Judah, and carry away from thence 3023 captives, Jehoiachim also is taken prisoner; whom they put to death, cast his carcase to be drawn out at the gate of Jerusalem, (as was foretold by the prophet Jeremiah,) and leave it without the walls unbefiled.
	Lam. IV. 20.	After the death of Josiah the people, anoint Shallum, one of his younger sons, to be their king. After three months' reign he is deposed by Pharaoh-necho, who makes Eliakim, his elder brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changes his name into Jehoiachim. But Jehoiachaz he carries along with him captive into Egypt, where he ends his days.	625.	Jer. XXII. 18	Jehoiachim (called also Coniah and Jeconias) at a sixteen years of age, succeeds his father Jehoiachim, and reigns three months in Jerusalem. Against him Nebuchadnezzar sends an army, and besiegeth Jerusalem: Jehoiachim with all his kindred and courtiers come out to meet him. Nebuchadnezzar makes them all prisoners, enters Jerusalem, and takes all the treasure he can find in the temple, and the king's palace, breaking in pieces all the vessels of gold and furniture which Solomon had made for the temple; he carrieth away captive to Babylon the king, his mother, wives, courtiers, magistrates, and ten thousand able men out of Jerusalem, leaving none behind but the poorer sort of people; and out of the country round about he carries also away eight thousand artificers; among the captives are Mordecai, and Ezekiel the priest; Ezekiel therefore in his prophecy reckons the time all along from the beginning of this captivity. An epitile, said to be Jeremiah's, is now sent to the captives, admonishing them to beware of the idolatry which they shall see in Babylon.
625.	Jerem. XXVI	Urijah and Jeremiah prophesy against Jerusalem: the former is put to death, the latter is acquitted and set at liberty. About this time Habakkuk also prophesieth.	626.	2 Kings XXV. 17.	Nebuchadnezzar, before his departure from Jerusalem, mak's Mattaniah, Jehoiachim's father's brother, king, changing his name into Zedekiah.
626.	2 Chron. XXXVI. 6.	This year is Nebuchadnezzar the Great made by his father Neopolazzar his associate in the kingdom of Assyria and Babylon, into whose hands God delivers up Jehoiachim, who is put in chains to be carried to Babylon. But, upon his submission, and promises of obedience, is left in his own house, where he lives a servant to Nebuchadnezzar three years. From which entering of the king and people of the Jews into the subjection and service of Nebuchadnezzar are the 70 years of the captivity of Babylon to be reckoned, which were foretold by the prophet Jeremiah.	627.	2 Chron. XXXVI.	Zedekiah, beginning his reign at 21 years of age, reigneth eleven years; he, by rebelling against Nebuchadnezzar, or rather, by continuing in an open rebellion (as his fathers had done) against God, brought upon Jerusalem, and the whole nation of the Jews, those long-deserved calamities which God had so often forewarned them of by his prophets; for in the latter end of the 11th year of Zedekiah, Jerusalem, after a long siege, is taken by Nebuchadnezzar, and his Chaldeans enter it. Zedekiah flees away by night, but being pursued is taken, and brought prisoner to Riblah, Nebuchadnezzar's headquarters; there, having first seen his children slaughtered before his eyes, he has afterwards those eyes put out; and, being laden with chains, is carried away captive to Babylon. About a month after the taking of the city, Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard, sent by Nebuchadnezzar, makes his entry into it, sets fire to the temple, the king's palace, and some noblemen's houses, and so layeth the whole city in ashes; the walls of Jerusalem being razed to the ground, all that were left in the city, and those that a little before had fallen to the Chaldeans, with what treasure he can find, doth Nebuzar-adan carry with him into Babylon.
627.	Jer. XXV. 11.	Nebuchadnezzar gives order to Ashpenaz master of the eunuchs, that he shall carry from thence of the children of Israel, both of the blood-royal, (as was foretold by the prophet Isaiah to Hezekiah,) and also of the nobility, the choicest youths, both for beauty and wit that he can find; who, being educated three years in the language and sciences of the Chaldeans, may afterwards be fit to serve the king in his palace, among whom, of the tribe of Judah, are Daniel, called Belshazzar; Hananiah, called Shadrach; Michael, called Melchaz; and Azariah, called Adonigo. Their names being thus changed by the master of the eunuchs.	628.	2 Kings XXV. 21.	And thus was Judah carried out of her own land, 468 years after David began to reign over it, 388 years after the falling off of the ten tribes, and 134 years after the destruction of the kingdom of Israel.
628.	Daniel I. 3.	When Nebuchadnezzar pursues his victories over the king of Egypt, his father dies, which coming to his knowledge, he gives order for the bringing away the captives, and puts with a small company the nearest way to Babylon; where he is received as the lawful successor to his father's dominions. Jerusalem is now brought to Babylon, and the vessels of the temple, and the elders of the temple, are placeth them in the midst of his palace, and there they remain three years; in subjection to the king of Babylon, fall off, and rebellious against him.	629. The king, greatly terrified hereat, sends for his Chaldean astrologers and wizards, and commands them to read the writing, and give him the interpretation of it: but they not being able to do either, Daniel is sent for, who reads the writing, and gives the king the interpretation of it: whereupon Daniel is publicly proclaimed the third man in the kingdom. In the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, Nehemiah a Jew, one of his cupbearers, being made governor of Judea, obtains leave to build the walls of Jerusalem, and finish that great work. Here begins Daniel's seventy weeks, to be fulfilled before the passion of our Saviour.
529.	6	In the beginning of the reign of Artaxerxes, called in profane story Cambyses) the Samaritans, who whilst Cyrus lived had secretly undermined the Jews, now openly frame a direct accusation in writing against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem, and present it to the king, who presently forbids the Jews to proceed in the building. XIII. 6.	This year is the twenty-first jubilee, the last that ever the prophets of the Old Testament saw for that place in Nehemiah, chap. XII. 22. is not to be understood of the last Darius, but of Darius Nothus, who now reigns in Persia; the full history of Nehemiah ending with the time of Artaxerxes Longimanus, father of this Darius Nothus.
Hag. II. 1, 9.		Haggaï prophesieth, that the glory of this second temple shall be greater than that of the former, not as being a more magnificent structure, but in regard the blessed Messiah shall one day honour it with his presence, and from thence propagate peace to all nations.			Hitherto (says Eusebius in his Chronicle to the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes) the Divine Scriptures of the Hebrews contain the annals of the times: but those things which were done among them afterward we must deliver out of the books of the Maccabees, and out of the writings of Josephus, who have delivered a general history of the Jewish affairs from thence down to the times of the Romans.
Zech. I. 1, 6		About this time Zechariah the prophet exhorteth the Jews to repentance.			That Malachi, the last of the prophets, was contemporary with Nehemiah, appears from hence, that he no where exhorts the people to the building of the temple, as Haggaï and Zechariah did; but the temple being now built, he reproves those disorders which Nehemiah, at his second return with a new commission from Babylon, faith he found in his absence to have crept in among the Jews; as marriage with strange women, with holding of tithes, and abuses in the worship of God.
519. 518.	Eſther I. II.	Achaemenus puts away queen Vashti his wife, and not long after espouseth Esther, the niece of Mordecai the Jew.	XIII.		And because a succession of prophets was not to be expected as before, he exhortheth the people constantly to adhere to the law of Moses, till Christ the chief Prophet should appear; whose forerunner John the Baptist should come in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers unto their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. See 1 Mac. iv. 46. and ix. 17.
515.	Ezra VI.	In the sixth year of Darius, or Achaemenus, the temple is finished, the dedication whereof is celebrated with great joy and abundance of sacrifices, the priests and Levites, every one in his place, attending on the ministry of the temple. JoC. Ant. I. 11. c. 8.		Manasse, brother to Jaddus the high priest, refusing to put away his strange wife, is driven from the sacrifice. Sanballat his father-in-law, governor of Samaria, revolteth from Darius, obtains leave of Alexander to build a temple on mount Gerizim, and makes Manasse's high priest thereof, to which resort all such as are intangled in unlawful marriage, with all such offenders as think themselves at ease at Jerusalem. This was the rise of that schismatical conventicle of the Samaritans. See John iv. 20.
Deut. XXV. 19.		Haman obtains an edict from the king, that all Jews, without respect to sex or age, upon the 13th day of the month Adar, be put to death in all the provinces of the king's dominions. Hereupon Mordecai, Esther, and all the Jews, humble themselves before the Lord by fasting and prayer.	332. Id. Ibid.		Alexander marcheth toward Jerusalem, intending to besiege it. Jaddus the high priest hearing of it, putteth on his priety ornaments, and accompanied with the people all in white, goeth out to meet him. Alexander seeing his habit, falls prostrate before him, saying, That whilst he was in Macedonia a man appeared unto him in the very same habit, who invited him to come into Asia, and promised to deliver the Persian empire into his hands. After this he goes to the temple, and offers sacrifice according to the high priest's direction. They shew him the prophecy of Daniel, That a Grecian should

38.	A ^{cts} IX. 23. 2 Cor. XI. 32. Galat. I. 18.	Saul having preached the gospel at Damascus a long time, the Jews lay wait to kill him, but he escapes from thence, and comes to Jerusalem; there he sees Peter, and James the brother of our Lord, and abides with them fifteen days. Here he speaks boldly in the name of Jesus, and disputes with the Grecians, or rather Jews that used the Greek tongue. These also consult how they may kill him.		A ^{cts} XIV.	At Iconium they are persecuted, and ready to be stoned. From hence they flee to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia. At Lystra Paul healing a cripple, the multitude cry out that the gods are come down, and call Barnabas Jupiter, and Paul Mercury, and would have sacrificed to them, had not the apostles, with others sent, run in among them, and assured them that they were men like themselves. Soon after there come Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who excite the people against them. Paul is by the furious multitude stoned, and drawn out of the city as dead; but while the disciples stand about him he riseth up, and the next day departs with Barnabas to Derbe.
	A ^{cts} XXII. 17	While Saul prays in the temple he is in a trance, and the Lord appears unto him, and bids him to depart from Jerusalem, because they will not receive his testimony; adding, that he will send him to the Gentiles.		1 Cor. XII. 2.	In this year, perhaps at this very time, Paul was caught up into the third heaven, and heard unspokeable words, 14 years before he wrote his second epistle to the Corinthians.
	IX. 30. Galat. I. 21.	Saul, leaving Jerusalem, goes to his own country Tarsus, and from thence travels into Syria and Cilicia.		2 Tim. I. 2, 5.	About this time Timothy, though a child, with his mother Eunice, and grandmother Lois, embrace the Christian faith preached by Paul.
	A ^{cts} IX. 32. 36.	Peter visits the churches of Judea, Galilee, Samaria, &c. At Lydda he cureth Aeneas of the palsy; and at Joppa restoreth Tabitha to life.	52.	A ^{cts} XV.	Certain judaizing Christians come from Judea to Antioch, and teach that the Gentiles ought to be circumcised, and observe the law of Moses: that Paul and Barnabas oppose, and a council is held by the apostles and others at Jerusalem to determine this controversy. The deacons of the synod are sent to the churches.
41.	X.	At Cesarea, Cornelius a centurion, by prayers and alms, finds favour in the sight of God, and is commanded by an angel to send for Peter, now at Joppa. God by a vision teacheth Peter not to despise the Gentiles. Peter being sent for by Cornelius, goes and preacheth Christ to him, and a great company that were met at his house. While Peter preacheth, the Holy Ghost falls upon them all; and immediately the apostle baptizeth them.	53.	36.	Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the churches together, fall at strife, and part asunder; Barnabas and Mark go into Cyprus, Paul and Silas into Syria and Cilicia.
	XI.	Peter at his return to Jerusalem is accused by those of the circumcision for conversing with the Gentiles; but he declares to them his vision, and the whole matter concerning Cornelius, and they glorify God for granting to the Gentiles also repentance unto life.		XVI.	Paul coming to Derbe, finds Timothy where whom (because his mother was a believing Jew, though his father a Gentile) he causeth to be circumcised, and takes him along with him. He is by a vision admonished to go into Macedonia: coming to Philippi, the chief city of that part of Macedonia, he converts Lydia; castrich out of a certain maid-servant a spirit of divination, whose masters, losing a considerable gain thereby, bring Paul and Silas before the magistrates; there cause them to be whipped and imprisoned; but at midnight, Paul and Silas praying and singing psalms, the doors of the prison fly open, and their bonds are loosed: the jailor, ready to kill himself, is converted to the faith, and baptized the same night, with his whole family. Next day the magistrates come themselves and pray them to depart the city.
44.	XII.	The believers, who ever since the martyrdom of Stephen, and the persecution thereupon ensuing, had been dispersed throughout all Phenice and Cyprus, come now to Antioch, and preach the gospel to the Greeks there, having before preached to none but the Jews. The church at Jerusalem understanding this, and that the number of believers increased exceedingly, sends Barnabas thither to confirm them; he goes to Tarsus, and takes Saul along with him to Antioch, where they continue a whole year, converting multitudes to the faith. Here the disciples were first called Christians.	54.	XVII.	From Philippi Paul takes his journey through Amphipolis and Apollonia, and comes to Thessalonica, where he finds a synagogue of the Jews: there he preacheth three sabbath-days, some believe, others persecute him. Leaving Thessalonica, he comes to Berea, and soon after arrives at Athens, disputes with the philosophers, and declares unto them that UNKNOWN GOD whom they had ignorantly worshipped. He converts Dionysius the Areopagite and others, and thence passeth to Corinth.
45.	XIII.	Barnabas and Paul set forward in their preaching of the gospel. They plant the Christian faith in Seleucia, Cyprus, and other places. At Paphos they preach the gospel to Sergius Paulus, governor of that country. Elymas a sorcerer withstanding them, and endeavouring to turn away Sergius from the faith, is at Saul's rebuke struck blind. From this time Saul is always called by his new name Paul; he preacheth at		XVIII.	Paul at Corinth meets with Aquila, and Priscilla, not long before banished Rome by the decree of Claudius. Here he continues a year and six months, and thence writes to the Thessalonians.
			55.		Paul is accused by the Jews, and brought before Gallio proconsul of Achaia, who is to be judge in a controversy about religion, and is drives them away from the judgment-seat.

The PSALMS of DAVID in METRE.

PSALM I.

- THAT man hath perfect blessedness who walketh not astray
In counsel of ungodly men,
nor stands in sinners' way,
Nor sitteth in the corner's chair:
But placeth his delight
Upon God's law, and meditates on his law day and night.
He shall be like a tree that grows near planted by a river,
Which in his season yields his fruit,
and his leaf fadeth never:
And all he doth shall prosper well.
The wicked are not so;
But like they are unto the chaff,
which wind drives to and fro.
In judgment therefore shall not stand such as ungodly are;
Nor in th' assembly of the just shall wicked men appear.
For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

PSALM -II.

- Why rage the Heathen? and vain things
why do the people mind?
Kings of the earth do set themselves,
and princes are combin'd,
To plot against the Lord, and his Anointed, saying thus,
Let us afunder break their bands,
and cast their cords from us.
He that in heaven sits shall laugh;
the Lord shall scorn them all:
Then shall he speak to them in wrath,
in rage he vex them shall.
Yet, notwithstanding, I have him to be my King appointed;
And over Sion, my holy hill,
I have him King anointed.
The sure decree I will declare;
The Lord hath said to me,
Thou art mine only Son; this day
I have begotten thee.
Ask of me, and for heritage
the Heathen I'll make thine;
And, for possession, I to thee will give earth's utmost line.
Thou shalt, as with a weighty rod of iron, break them all;
And, as a potter's sherd, thou shalt them dash in pieces small.
Now, therefore, kings, be wise; be taught,
ye judges of the earth:
Serve God in fear, and see that ye join trembling with your mirth.
Kiss ye the Son, lest in his ire
ye perish from the way,
If once his wrath begin to burn:
blest'd all that on him stay.

PSALM III.

- O Lord, how are my foes increas'd? against me many rise.
Many say of my soul, For him
in God no succour lies.
Yet thou my shield and glory art,
th' uplifter of mine head.
I cry'd, and, from his holy hill,
the Lord me answer made.
I laid me down and slept, I wak'd;
for God sustained me.
I will not fear though thousands ten set round against me be.

- 7 Arise, O Lord; save me, my God;
for thou my foes hast stroke
All on the cheekbone, and the teeth of wicked men hast broke.
8 Salvation doth appertain unto the Lord alone:
Thy blessing, Lord, for evermore thy people is upon.

PSALM IV.

- I Give ear unto me when I call,
God of my righteousness:
Have mercy, hear my pray'r; thou hast
enlarg'd me in distress.
2 O ye the sons of men! how long will ye love vanities?
How long my glory turn to shame,
and will ye follow lyes?
3 But know, that for himself the Lord
the godly man doth choose:
The Lord, when I on him do call,
to hear will not refuse.
4 Fear, and sin not; talk with your heart on bed, and silent be.
5 Off'rings present of righteousness,
and in the Lord trust ye.
6 O who will shew us any good?
is that which many say:
But of thy countenance the light,
Lord, lift on us away.
7 Upon my heart bellow'd by thee,
more gladness I have found,
Than they, ev'n then, when corn and wine
did most with them abound.
8 I will both lay me down in peace,
and quiet sleep will take;
Because thou only me to dwell in safety, Lord, dost make.

PSALM V.

- I Give ear unto my words, O Lord, my meditation weigh.
2 Hear my loud cry, my King, my God,
for I to thee will pray.
3 Lord, thou shalt early hear my voice;
I early will direct
My pray'r to thee; and, looking up, an answer will expect.
4 For thou art not a God that doth in wickedness delight;
Neither shall evil dwell with thee;
5 Nor fools stand in thy sight:
All that ill-doers are thou hat'st;
6 Cutt' off that lyars be:
The bloody and deceitful man abhorred is by thee.
7 But I into thy house will come in thine abundant grace;
And I will worship in thy fear toward thy holy place.
8 Because of those mine enemies,
Lord, in thy righteousness
Do thou me lead: do thou thy way make straight before my face.
9 For in their mouth there is no truth,
their inward part is ill;
Their throat's an open sepulchre, their tongue doth flatter still.
10 O God, destroy them; let them be by their own counsel quell'd:
Them, for their many sins, cast out,
for they 'gainst thee rebell'd.
11 But let all joy that trust in thee,
and still make shouting noise;
For them thou sav'st: let all that love thy name in thee rejoice.

- 12 For, Lord, unto the righteous man
thou wilt thy blessing yield:
With favour thou wilt compass him about, as with a shield.

PSALM VI.

- Lord, in thy wrath rebuke me not,
nor in thy hot rage chasten me.
2 Lord, pity me, for I am weak:
heal me, for my bones vexed be.
3 My soul is also vexed sore;
but, Lord, how long stay wilt thou make?
4 Return, O Lord, my soul set free:
O save me for thy mercy's sake.
5 Because those that deceas'd are of thee shall no remembrance have;
And who is he that will to thee give praises lying in the grave?
6 I with my groaning weary am,
I also all the night my bed
Have caus'd for to swim; and I with tears my couch have watered.
7 Mine eye, consum'd with grief, grows old,
because of all mine enemies.
8 Hence from me, wicked workers all;
for God hath heard my weeping cry.
9 God hath my supplication heard,
my pray'r received graciously.
10 Sham'd and sore vex'd be all my foes, sham'd and back turned suddenly.

Another of the same.

- In thy great indignation,
O Lord, rebuke me not;
Nor on me lay thy chast'ning hand
in thy displeasure hot.
2 Lord, I am weak, therefore on me have mercy, and me spare:
Heal me, O Lord, because thou know'st my bones much vexed are.
3 My soul is vexed sore: but, Lord, how long stay wilt thou make?
4 Return, Lord, free my soul, and save me for thy mercy's sake.
5 Because of thee in death there shall no more remembrance be:
Of those that in the grave do lie who shall give thanks to thee?
6 I with my groaning weary am,
and all the night my bed
I caus'd for to swim; with tears
my couch I watered.
7 By reason of my vexing grief mine eye consum'd is;
It waxeth old, because of all that be mine enemies.
8 But now, depart from me all ye
that work iniquity:
For why? the Lord hath heard my voice,
when I did mourn and cry.
9 Unto my supplication
the Lord did hearing give:
When I to him my prayer make,
the Lord will it receive.
10 Let all be sham'd and troubled sore
that enemies are to me;
Let them turn back, and suddenly ashamed let them be.

PSALM VII.

- O Lord my God, in thee do I
my confidence repose:
Save and deliver me from all my persecuting foes.
2 Lest that the enemy my soul should, like a lion, tear,
In pieces rendering it, while there is no deliverer.

- 3 O Lord my God, if it be so that I committed this;
If it be so that in my hands iniquity there is:
- 4 If I rewarded ill to him that was at peace with me:
(Yea, ev'n the man that without cause my foe was I did free;)
- 5 Then let the foe pursue and take my soul, and my life thrust down to the earth, and let him lay mine honour in the dust.
- 6 Rise in thy wrath, Lord, raise thyself, for my foes raging be;
And, to the judgment which thou hast commanded, wake for me.
- 7 So shall th' assembly of thy folk about encompass thee:
Thou, therefore, for their sakes, return unto thy place on high.
- 8 The Lord he shall the people judge: my judge, Jehovah, be,
After my righteous acts, and mine integrity in me.
- 9 O let the wicked's malice end;
but shall his fledfastly
The righteous: for the righteous God the hearts and reins doth try.
- 10 In God, who saves th' upright in heart, is my defence and stay.
- 11 God just men judgeth, God is wroth with ill men ev'ry day.
- 12 If he do not return again, then he his sword will whet;
His bow he hath already bent,
and hath it ready set:
- 13 He also hath for him prepar'd the instruments of death;
Against the persecutors he his shafts ordained hath.
- 14 Behold, he with iniquity doth travail, as in birth;
A mischief he conceived hath,
and falsehood shall bring forth.
- 15 He made a pit, and digg'd it deep,
another there to take;
But he is fall'n into the ditch which he himself did make.
- 16 Upon his own head his mischief shall be returned home;
His violent dealing also down on his own pate shall come.
- 17 According to his righteousness the Lord I'll magnify;
And will sing praise unto the name of God, that is most high.

P S A L M VIII.

- 1 How excellent in all the earth, Lord, our Lord, is thy name!
Who hast thy glory far advanc'd above the starry frame.
- 2 From infants and from sucklings' mouth Thou didst strength ordain,
For thy foes' cause, that fo thou might'st th' avenging foe restrain.
- 3 When I look up unto the heav'ns, which thine own fingers fram'd, Unto the moon, and to the stars, which were by thee ordain'd:
- 4 Then say I, What is man, that he remember'd is by thee?
Or what the son of man, that thou so kind to him should'st be?
- 5 For thou a little lower hast him than the angels made;
With glory and with dignity thou crown'd hast his head.

- 6 Of thy hands' works thou mad'st him lord, all under's feet didst lay;
- 7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and beasts that in the field do stray;
- 8 Fowls of the air, fish of the sea, all that pass through the same.
- 9 How excellent in all the earth, Lord, our Lord, is thy name!

P S A L M IX.

- 1 Lord, thee I'll praise with all my heart, thy wonders all proclaim.
- 2 In thee, most High, I'll greatly joy, and sing unto thy name.
- 3 When back my foes were turn'd they fell, and perish'd at thy sight.
- 4 For thou maintain'dst my right and cause; on throne shalt thou judging right.
- 5 The Heathen thou rebuked hast, the wicked overthrow'n;
Thou hast put out their names, that they may never more be known.
- 6 O en'my! now destructions have an end perpetual:
Thou dost raz'd, perish'd with them is their memorial.
- 7 God shall endure for ay; he doth for judgment set his throne;
- 8 In righteousness to judge the world, justice to give each one.
- 9 God also will a refuge be for those that are oppress'd;
A refuge will he be in times of trouble to distress'd.
- 10 And they that know thy name, in thee their confidence will place:
For thou hast not forsaken them that truly seek thy face.
- 11 O sing ye praises to the Lord, that dwells in Zion hill,
And all the nations among his deeds record ye still.
- 12 When he enquireth after blood, he then remembereth them:
The humble folk he not forgets that call upon his name.
- 13 Lord, pity me; behold the grief which I from foes sustain;
Ev'n thou, who from the gates of death dost raise me up again;
- 14 That I, in Zion's daughter's gates, may all thy praise advance:
And that I may rejoice always in thy deliverance.
- 15 The Heathen are sunk in the pit which they themselves prepar'd;
And in the net which they have hid their own feet fast are shar'd.
- 16 The Lord is by the judgment known which he himself hath wrought:
The sinners' hands do make the snares wherewith themselves are caught.
- 17 They who are walk'd into hell each one shall turn'd be;
And all the nations that forget to seek the Lord most high.
- 18 For they that needy are shall not forgotten be alway:
The expectation of the poor shall not be lost for ay.
- 19 Arise, Lord, let not man prevail; judge Heathen in thy sight.
- 20 That they may know themselves but men, the nations, Lord, almight.

P S A L M X.

- 1 Wherefore is it that thou, O Lord, dost stand from us afar?
And wherefore hidest thou thyself when times so troublous are?

- 2 The wicked in his sorrows doth persecute the poor:
In these devices they have fram'd let them be taken sure.
- 3 The wicked of his heart's desire doth talk with boasting great;
He blesteth him that's covetous, whom yet the Lord doth hate.
- 4 The wicked, through his pride of face, on God he doth not call;
And in the counsels of his heart the Lord is not at all.
- 5 His ways they always grievous are; thy judgments from his sight Removed are: at all his foes he puffeth with despite.
- 6 Within his heart he thus hath said, I shall not moved be;
And no adversity at all shall ever come to me.
- 7 His mouth with cursing, fraud, deceit, is fill'd abundantly;
And underneath his tongue there is mischief and vanity.
- 8 He closely sits in villages; he slays the innocent:
Against the poor that pass him by his cruel eyes are bent.
- 9 He, lion-like, lurks in his den; he waits the poor to take:
And, when he draws him in his net, his prey he hath very make.
- 10 Himself he humbly very low, he croucheth down withal,
That so a multitude of poor may by his strong ones fall.
- 11 He thus hath said within his heart, The Lord hath quite forgot;
He hides his countenance, and he for ever sees it not.
- 12 O Lord, do thou arise; O God, lift up thine hand on high;
Put not the meek afflict'd ones out of thy memory.
- 13 Why is it that the wicked man thus doth the Lord despise?
Because that God will it require he in his heart denies.
- 14 Thou hast it seen; for their mischief and spite thou wilt repay:
The poor commits himself to thee; thou art the orphans' stay.
- 15 The arm break of the wicked man, and of the evil one;
Do thou seek out his wickedness, until thou findest none.
- 16 The Lord is king through ages all, ev'n to eternity;
The Heathen people from his land are perish'd utterly.
- 17 O Lord, of those that humble are thou the desire didst hear;
Thou wilt prepare their heart, and thou to hear wilt bend thine ear;
- 18 To judge the fatherless, and those that are oppress'd fore;
That man, that is but sprung of earth, may them oppress no more.

P S A L M XI.

- 1 In the Lord do put my trust;
How is it then that ye say to my soul, Flee, as a bird, unto your mountain high?
- 2 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, their shafts on firing they fit,
That those who upright are in heart they privily may hit.

- 3 If the foundations be destroy'd what hath the righteous done ?
4 God in his holy temple is,
in heaven is his throne :
His eyes do see, his eyelids try 5 men's sons. The just he proves :
But his soul hates the wicked man,
and him that violence loves.
6 Snakes, fire and brimstone, furious storms,
on sinners he shall rain :
This, as the portion of their cup,
doth unto them pertain.
7 Because the Lord most righteous doth in righteousness delight ;
And with a pleasant countenance beholdeth the upright.

P S A L M XII.

- 1 Help, Lord, because the godly man
doth daily fade away,
And from among the sons of men
the faithful do decay.
2 Unto his neighbour ev'ry one doth utter vanity :
They with a double heart do speak,
and lips of slattery.
3 God shall cut off all flatt'ring lips, tongues that speak proudly thus,
4 We'll with our tongue prevail, our lips are ours : who's lord o'er us ?
5 For poor oppress'd, and for the sighs of needy, rise will I, 6 Saith God, and him in safety set from such as him defy.
7 The words of God are words most pure ;
they be like silver try'd
In earthen furnace, seven times that hath been purify'd.
8 Lord, thou shalt them preserve and keep for ever from this race.
9 On each side walk the wicked, when vile men are high in place.

P S A L M XIII.

- 1 How long wilt thou forget me, Lord ?
shall it for ever be ?
O how long shall it be that thou wilt hide thy face from me ?
2 How long take counsel in my soul,
still sad in heart, shall I ?
How long exalted over me
shall be mine enemy ?
3 O Lord my God, consider well,
and answer to me make :
Mine eyes enlighten, lest the sleep of death me overtake :
4 Lest that mine enemy should say,
Against him I prevail'd ;
And those that trouble me rejoice
when I am mov'd and fail'd.
5 But I have all my confidence thy mercy set upon ;
My heart within me shall rejoice in thy salvation.
6 I will unto the Lord my God
sing praises cheerfully, Because he hath his bounty shown to me abundantly.

P S A L M XIV.

- 1 That there is not a God, the fool
doth in his heart conclude :
They are corrupt, their works are vile ;
not one of them doth good.
2 Upon men's sons the Lord from heav'n did cast his eyes abroad,
To see if any understood,
and did seek after God.
3 They altogether filthy are,
they all aside are gone ;
And there is none that doeth good,
yea, sure there is not one.

- 4 These workers of iniquity,
do they not know at all,
That they my people eat as bread,
and on God do not call ?
5 There fear'd they much ; for God is with the whole race of the just.
6 You shame the counsel of the poor,
because God is his trust.
7 Let Israel's help from Sion come ;
when back the Lord shall bring His captives, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall sing.

P S A L M XV.

- 1 Within thy tabernacle, Lord, who shall abide with thee ?
And in thy high and holy hill who shall a dweller be ?
2 The man that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness,
And as he thinketh in his heart,
so doth he truth express.
3 Who doth not slander with his tongue,
nor to his friend doth hurt ;
Nor yet against his neighbour doth take up an ill report.
4 In whose eyes vile men are despis'd ;
but those that God do fear
He honoureth ; and changeth not, though to his hurt he swear.
5 His coin puts not to usury, nor take reward will he Against the guiltless. Who doth thus shall never moved be.

P S A L M XVI.

- 1 Lord, keep me ; for I trust in thee.
2 To God thus was my speech,
Thou art my Lord, and unto thee
my goodness doth not reach :
3 To saints on earth, to th' excellent,
where my delight's all plac'd ;
4 Their sorrows shall be multiply'd to other gods that haste :
Of their drink-offerings of blood
I will no offering make ;
Yea, neither I their very names up in my lips will take.
5 God is of mine inheritance and cup the portion :
The lot that fall'n is to me
thou dost maintain alone.
6 Unto me happily the lines
in pleasant places fell ;
Yea, the inheritance I got in beauty doth excel.
7 I bless the Lord, because he doth by counsel me conduct ;
And in the seasons of the night
my reins do me instruct.
8 Before me still the Lord I set :
sith it is so that he Doth ever stand at my right hand,
I shall not moved be.
9 Because of this my heart is glad,
and joy shall be express Ev'n by my glory ; and my flesh in confidence shall rest.
10 Because my soul in grave to dwell shall not be left by thee ;
Nor wilt thou give thine holy One corruption to see.
11 Thou wilt me shew the path of life :
of joys there is full store
Before thy face ; at thy right hand are pleasures evermore.

P S A L M XVII.

- 1 Lord hear the right, attend my cry,
unto my pray'r give heed,
That oth not in hypocrisy from feigned lips proceed.

- 2 And from before thy presence forth my sentence do thou send :
Toward these things that equal are do thou thine eyes intend.
3 Thou prov'dst mine heart, thou visit'st me by night, thou didst me try,
Yet nothing found'st ; for that my mouth shall not sin, purpos'd I.
4 As for men's works, I, by the word that from thy lips doth flow, Did me preserve out of the paths wherein diltroyers go.
5 Hold up my goings, Lord, me guide
in those thy paths divine,
So that my footsteps may not slide out of those ways of thine.
6 I called have on thee, O God, because thou wilt me hear :
That thou wilt hearken to my speech,
to me incline thine ear.
7 Thy wondrous loving-kindness show,
thou that, by thy right hand, Sav'st them that trust in thee from those that up against them stand.
8 As th' apple of the eye me keep ;
in thy wings shade me close 9 From lewd oppressors, compassing me round, as deadly foes.
10 In their own fat they are inclos'd ;
their mouth speaks lechery.
11 Our steps they compass'd ; and to ground down bowing fet their eye.
12 He like unto a lion is that's greedy of his prey,
Or lion young, which, lurking, doth in secret places stay.

- 13 Arise, and disappoint my foe,
and cast him down, O Lord :
My soul save from the wicked man,
the man which is thy sword.
14 From men, which are thy hand, O Lord,
from worldly men me save,
Which only in this present life their part and portion have :
Whose belly with thy treasure hid thou fill'st : they children have In plenty ; of their goods the rest they to their children leave.
15 But as for me, I thine own face in righteousness will see ;
And with thy likeness, when I wake,
I satisfy'd shall be.

P S A L M XVIII.

- 1 Thee will I love, O Lord, my strength.
2 My fortress is the Lord,
My rock, and he that doth to me deliverance afford :
My God, my strength, whom I will trust,
a buckler unto me,
The horn of my salvation,
and my high tow'r, is he.
3 Upon the Lord, who worthy is of praises, will I cry ;
And then shall I preserved be safe from mine enemy.
4 Floods of ill men affrighted me, death's pangs about me went ;
5 Hell's sorrows me environed ;
death's snares did me prevent.
6 In my distress I call'd on God, cry to thy God did I :
He from his temple heard my voice,
to his ears came my cry.
7 Th' earth as affrighted, then did shake, trembling up and down seiz'd :
The hills' foundations moved were,
because he was displeas'd.

8 Up from his nostrils came a smoke, and from his mouth there came Devouring fire, and coals by it were turned into flame.

9 He also bowed down the heav'ns, and thence he did defend:
And thickest clouds of darkness did under his feet attend.

10 And he upon a cherub rode,
and the cherub did fly:
Yea, on the swift wings of the wind his flight was from on high.

11 He darkness made his secret place:
about him, for his tent,
Dark waters were, and thickest clouds of th' airy firmament.

12 And at the brightness of that light,
which was before his eye,
His thick clouds pass'd away, hailstones and coals of fire did fly.

13 The Lord God also in the heav'ns did thunder in his ire;
And there the Highest gave his voice, hailstones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he his arrows sent abroad,
and them he scattered;
His lightnings also he shot out,
and them he discomfited.

15 The waters' channels then were seen,
the world's foundations wast
At thy rebuke discover'd were,
and at thy nostril's blast.

16 And from above the Lord sent down,
and took me from below;
From many waters he me drew,
which would me overflow.

17 He me reliev'd from my strong foes,
and such as did me hate;
Because he saw that they for me too strong were, and too great.

18 They me prevented in the day of my calamity;
But even then the Lord himself
a way was unto me.

19 He to a place where liberty and room was hath me brought:
Because he took delight in me,
he my deliverance wrought.

20 According to my righteousness
he did me recompense,
He me repaid according to my hands' pure innocence.

21 For I God's ways kept, from my God did not turn wickedly.

22 His judgments were before me, I his laws put not from me.

23 Sincere before him was my heart,
with him upright was I:
And watchfully I kept myself
from mine iniquity.

24 After my righteousness the Lord hath recompensed me,
After the cleanness of my hands appearing in his eye.

25 Thou gracious to the gracious art,
to upright men upright.

26 Pure to the pure, forward-thou kyth'st unto the forward wight.

27 For thou wilt the afflicted save in grief that low do lie:
But wilt bring down the countenance of them whose looks are high.

28 The Lord will light my candle so,
that it shall shine full bright:
The Lord my God will also make my darkness to be light.

29 By thee through troops of men I break, and them discomfit all:
And, by my God assisting me,
I over-leap a wall.

30 As for God, perfect is his way:
for the Lord his word is try'd;
He is a buckler to all those who do in him confide.

31 Who but the Lord is God? but he who is a rock and stay?

32 'Tis God that girdeth me with strength, and perfect makes my way.

33 He made my feet swift as the hind's, set me on my high places.

34 Mine hands to war he taught, mine arms brake bows of steel in pieces.

35 The shield of thy salvation
thou didst on me bestow:
Thy right hand held me up, and great thy kindness made me grow.

36 And in my way my steps thou hast enlarged under me,
That I go safely, and my feet are kept from sliding free.

37 Mine enemies I pursued have,
and did them overtake;
Nor did I turn again till I an end of them did make.

38 I wounded them, they could not rise;
they at my feet did fall.

39 Thou girdedst me with strength for war;
my foes thou brought'st down all.

40 And thou hast giv'n to me the necks of all mine enemies;
That I might them destroy and slay,
who did against me rise.

41 They cried out, but there was none that would or could them save;
Yea, they did cry unto the Lord,
but he no answer gave.

42 Then did I beat them small as dust before the wind that flies;
And I did cast them out like dirt upon the street that lies.

43 Thou mad'st me free from people's strife,
and Heathen's head to be:
A people whom I have not known shall service do to me.

44 At hearing they shall me obey, to me they shall submit.

45 Strangers for fear shall fade away, who in close places sit.

46 God lives, blest'd be my Rock; the God of my health praised be.

47 God doth avenge me, and subdues
the people under me.

48 He slaves me from mine enemies;
yea, thou hast lifted me Above my foes; and from the man of violence set me free.

49 Therefore to thee will I give thanks
the Heathen folk among:
And to thy name, O Lord, I will sing praises in a song.

50 He great deliverance gives his king:
his mercy doth extend To David, his anointed one,
and his seed without end.

P S A L M XIX.

1 The heav'n's God's glory do declare,
the skies his hand-works preach:
2 Day utters speech to day, and night to night doth knowledge teach.
3 There is no speech nor tongue to which their voice doth not extend:
4 Their line is gone through all the earth,
their words to the world's end.

In them he set the sun a tent:
5 Who, bridegroom-like, forth goes From his chamber, as a strong man doth to run his race rejoice.

6 From heav'n's end is his going forth, circling to th' end again;
And there is nothing from his heat that hidden doth remain.

7 God's law is perfect, and converts
the soul in sin that lies:
God's testimony is most sure,
and makes the simple wise.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right,
and do rejoice the heart:
The Lord's command is pure, and doth light to the eyes impart.

9 Unspotted is the fear of God,
and doth endure for ever:
The judgments of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.

10 They more than gold, yea, much fine gold,
to be desired are:
Than honey, honey from the comb,
that droppeth, sweeter far.

11 Moreover, they thy servant warn how he his life should frame;
A great reward provided is for them that keep the same.

12 Who can his errors understand?
O cleanse thou me within 13 From secret faults. Thy servant keep from all presumptuous sin:

And do not suffer them to have dominion over me:
Then, righteous and innocent,
I from much sin shall be.

14 The words which from my mouth proceed,
the thoughts sent from my heart, Accept, O Lord, for thou my strength and my Redeemer art.

P S A L M XX.

1 Jehovah hear thee in the day when trouble he doth fend:
And let the name of Jacob's God thee from all ill defend.

2 O let him help send from above,
out of his sanctuary:
From Zion, his own holy hill,
let him give strength to thee.

3 Let him remember all thy gifts, accept thy sacrifice:

4 Grant thee thine heart's wish, and fulfil thy thoughts and counsel wise.

5 In thy salvation we will joy;
in our God's name we will Display our banners: and the Lord thy prayers all fulfil.

6 Now know I God his king doth save:
he from his holy heav'n
Will hear him, with the saving strength by his own right hand giv'n.

7 In chariots some put confidence, some horses trust upon:
But we remember will the name of our Lord God alone.

8 We rise, and upright stand, when they are bowed down, and fall.

9 Deliver, Lord; and let the King us hear when we do call.

P S A L M XXI.

1 The king in thy great strength, O Lord, thou shalt very joyful be:
In thy salvation rejoice
how vehemently hath he!

2 Thou hast bestowed upon him all that his heart would have,
And thou from him didst not withhold what'er his lips did crave.

- 3 For thou with blessings him prevent'st of goodness manifold;
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of purest gold.
- 4 When he desired life of thee, thou life to him didst give;
Ev'n such a length of days, that he for evermore should live.
- 5 In that salvation, wrought by thee,
his glory is made great;
Honour and comely majesty
thou hast upon him set.
- 6 Because that thou for evermore
most blessed hast him made;
And thou hast with thy countenance made him exceeding glad.
- 7 Because the king upon the Lord
his confidence doth lay;
And through the grace of the most High shall not be mov'd away.
- 8 Thine hand shall all those men find out that en'mies are to thee; Ev'n thy right hand shall find out those of thee that haters be.
- 9 Like fiery ov'n thou shalt them make,
when kindled is thine ire;
God shall them swallow in his wrath,
devour them shall the fire.
- 10 Their fruit from earth thou shalt destroy,
their feed men from among;
- 11 For they beyond their might gainst thee
did plot mischief and wrong.
- 12 Thou therefore shalt make them turn back, when thou thy shafts shalt place Upon thy strings, made ready all to fly against their face.
- 13 In thy great pow'r and strength, O Lord,
be thou exalted high;
So shall we sing with joyful hearts,
thy power praise shall we.

P S A L M XXII.

- 1 MY God, my God, why hast thou me forsaken? why so far Art thou from helping me, and from my words that roaring are;
- 2 All day, my God, to thee I cry,
yet am not heard by thee;
And in the season of the night
I cannot silent be.
- 3 But thou art holy, thou that dost inhabit Isr'el's praise.
- 4 Our fathers hop'd in thee, they hop'd,
and thou didst them release.
- 5 When unto thee they sent their cry,
to them deliverance came:
Because they put their trust in thee
they were not put to shame.
- 6 But as for me, a worm I am,
and as no man am priz'd:
Reproach of men I am, and by the people am despis'd.
- 7 All that me see laugh me to scorn;
shoot out the lip do they;
They nod and shake their heads at me,
and, mocking, thus do say,
- 8 This man did trust in God, that he would free him by his might:
Let him deliver him, sith he had in him such delights.
- 9 But thou art he out of the womb that didst me safely take;
When I was on my mother's breasts thou me to hope didst make.

- 10 And I was cast upon thy care
ev'n from the womb till now;
And from my mother's belly, Lord,
my God and guide art thou.

- 11 Be not far off, for grief is near,
and none to help is found.
- 12 Bulls many compass me, strong bulls of Bashan me surround.

- 13 Their mouths they open'd wide on me,
upon me gape did they,
Like to a lion raving
and roaring for his prey.
- 14 Like water I'm pour'd out, my bones
all out of joint do part:
Amidst my bowels, as the wax,
so melted is my heart.
- 15 My strength is like a potsherd dry'd;
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws; and to the dust of death thou brought me hast.
- 16 For dogs have compass'd me about:
the wicked, that did meet
In their assembly, me inclos'd;
they pierc'd my hands and feet.
- 17 I all my bones may tell; they do upon me look and stare.
- 18 Upon my vesture lots they cast,
and clothes among them share.
- 19 But be not far, O Lord, my strength;
haste to give help to me.
- 20 From sword my soul, from pow'r of dogs,
my darling set thou free.
- 21 Out of the roaring lion's mouth
do thou me shield and save:
For from the horns of unicorns an ear to me thou gave.
- 22 I will shew forth thy name unto those that my brethren are;
Amidst the congregation
thy praise I will declare.
- 23 Praise ye the Lord, who do him fear;
him glorify, all ye
The seed of Jacob; fear him all that Isr'el's children be.
- 24 For he despis'd not, nor abhorr'd
th' afflicted's misery;
Nor from him hid his face, but heard when he to him did cry.
- 25 Within the congregation great
my praise shall be of thee;
My vows before them that him fear shall be perform'd by me.
- 26 The meek shall eat, and shall be fill'd;
they also praise shall give Unto the Lord that do him seek:
your heart shall ever live.
- 27 All ends of th' earth remember shall,
and turn the Lord unto;
All kindreds of the nations
to him shall homage do:
- 28 Because the kingdom to the Lord
doth appertain as his;
Likewise among the nations
the governor he is.
- 29 Earth's fat ones eat, and worship shall:
all who to dust descend Shall bow to him; none of them can his soul from death defend.
- 30 A seed shall service do to him;
unto the Lord it shall Be for a generation
reckon'd in ages all.
- 31 They shall come, and they shall declare his truth and righteousness Unto a people yet unborn, and that he hath done this.

P S A L M XXIII.

- 1 THE Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want.
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me
the quiet waters by.

- 3 My soul he doth restore again;
and me to walk doth make Within the paths of righteousness,
ev'n for his own name's sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
yet will I fear none ill:
For thou art with me; and thy rod and staff me comfort still.
- 5 My table thou hast furnished
in presence of my foes:
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
and my cup overflows.
- 6 Goodness and mercy all my life
shall surely follow me:
And in God's house for evermore my dwelling place shall be.

P S A L M XXIV.

- 1 THE earth belongs unto the Lord,
and all that it contains;
The world that is inhabited,
and all that therein remains.
- 2 For the foundations thereof
he on the seas did lay,
And he hath it established upon the floods to stay.
- 3 Who is the man that shall ascend into the hill of God?
Or, who within his holy place shall have a firm abode?
- 4 Whose hands are clean, whose heart is pure,
and unto vanity
Who hath not lifted up his soul,
nor sworn deceitfully.
- 5 He from th' Eternal shall receive the blessing him upon,
And righteousness, ev'n from the God of his salvation.
- 6 This is the generation that after him enquire,
O Jacob, who do seek thy face with their whole heart's desire.
- 7 Ye gates, lift up your heads on high,
ye doors that last for aye,
Be lifted up, that to the King
of glory enter may.
- 8 But who of glory is the King?
The mighty Lord is this;
Ev'n that same Lord, that great in might and strong in battle is.
- 9 Ye gates, lift up your heads; ye doors,
doors that do last for aye,
Be lifted up, that to the King
of glory enter may.
- 10 But who is he that is the King of glory? who is this?
The Lord of hosts, and none but he,
the King of glory is.

P S A L M XXV.

- 1 TO thee I lift my soul:
O Lord, I trust in thee:
My God, let me not be sham'd,
nor foes triumph o'er me.
- 3 Let none that wait on thee be put to shame at all;
But those that without cause transgress,
let shame upon them fall.
- 4 Shew me thy ways, O Lord;
thy paths, O teach thou me:
And do thou lead me in thy truth, therein my teacher be:
- 5 For thou art God that dost to me salvation send,
And I upon thee all the day expecting do attend.
- 6 Thy tender mercies, Lord,
I pray thee to remember,
And loving-kindnesses; for they have been of old for ever.

7 My sins and faults of youth
do thou, O Lord, forget ;
After thy mercy think on me,
and for thy goodness great.

8 God good and upright is :
the way he'll sinners show.

9 The meek in judgment he will guide, and make his path to know.

10 The whole paths of the Lord
are truth and mercy sure,
To those that do his cov'nant keep,
and testimonies pure.

11 Now, for thine own name's sake,
O Lord, I thee entreat
To pardon mine iniquity ;
for it is very great.

12 What man is he that fears the Lord, and doth him serve ?
Him shall he teach the way that he shall choose, and still observe.

13 His soul shall dwell at ease ;
and his posterity Shall flourish still, and of the earth inheritors shall be.

14 With those that fear him is the secret of the Lord ;
The knowledge of his covenant
he will to them afford.

15 Mine eyes upon the Lord continually are set :
For he it is that shall bring forth
my foot out of the net.

16 Turn unto me thy face,
and to me mercy show :
Because that I am desolate,
and am brought very low.

17 My heart's griefs are increas'd :
me from distress relieve.

18 See mine affliction and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.

19 Consider thou my foes,
because they many are,
And it a cruel hatred is
which they against me bear.

20 O do thou keep my soul,
do thou deliver me :
And let me never be ashamed,
because I trust in thee.

21 Let uprightness and truth
keep me, who thee attend.

22 Redemption, Lord, to Israel
from all his troubles send.

Another of the same.

1 TO thee I lift my soul, O Lord :

2 My God, I trust in thee :
Let me not be ashamed ; let not my foes triumph o'er me.

3 Yea, let thou none ashamed be that do on thee attend :
Admired let them be, O Lord,
who without cause offend.

4 Thy ways, Lord, shew ; teach me thy paths :

5 Lead me in truth, teach me :
For of my safety thou art God ;
all day I wait on thee.

6 Thy mercies, that most tender are,
do thou, O Lord, remember,
And loving-kindness ; for they
have been of old for ever.

7 Let not the errors of my youth nor sin remember'd be :
In mercy, for thy goodness' sake,
O Lord, remember me.

8 The Lord is good and gracious, he upright is also :

9 He therefore sinners will instruct ways that they should go.

9 The meek and lowly he will guide
in judgment just alway :
To meek and poor afflicted ones
he'll clearly teach his way.

10 The whole paths of the Lord our God
are truth and mercy sure,
To such as keep his covenant,
and testimonies pure.

11 Now, for thine own name's sake, O Lord,
I humbly thee entreat
To pardon mine iniquity ;
for it is very great.

12 What man fears God ? him shall he teach the way that he shall choose.

13 His soul shall dwell at ease : his feed the earth, as heirs, shall use.

14 The secret of the Lord is with such as do fear his name ;
And he his holy covenant will manifest to them.

15 Toward the Lord my waiting eyes
continually are set ;
For he it is that shall bring forth
my feet out of the net.

16 O turn thee unto me, O God, have mercy me upon ;
Because I solitary am,
and in affliction.

17 Enlarg'd the griefs are of mine heart :
me from distress relieve.

18 See mine affliction and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.

19 Consider thou mine enemies,
because they many are ;
And it a cruel hatred is
which they against me bear.

20 O do thou keep my soul ; O God,
do thou deliver me :
Let me not be ashamed ; for I do put my trust in thee.

21 O let integrity and truth
keep me, who thee attend.

22 Redemption, Lord, to Israel
from all his troubles send.

P S A L M XXVI.

1 Judge me, O Lord, for I have walk'd
in mine integrity :

2 I trusted also in the Lord ;
slide therefore shall not I.

3 Examine me, and do me prove ;
try heart and reins, O God :

4 For thy love is before mine eyes,
thy truth's paths I have trod.

5 With persons vain I have not sat, nor with dissemblers gone.

6 Thy assembly of ill men I hate ;
to sit with such I shun.

7 Mine hands in innocence, O Lord, I'll wash and purify :
So to thine holy altar go,
and compass it will I :

8 That I with voice of thanksgiving,
may publish and declare,
And tell of all thy mighty works that great and wondrous are.

9 The habitation of thy house,
Lord, I have loved well ;
Yea, in that place I do delight where doth thine honour dwell.

10 With sinners gather not my soul,
and such as blood would spill :

11 Whose hands mischievous plots, right hand corrupting bribes do fill.

12 But as for me, I will walk on
in mine integrity.

13 Do thou redeem me, and, O Lord,
be merciful to me.

12 My foot upon an even place doth stand with steadfastness ;
Within the congregations
th' Eternal I will bless.

P S A L M XXVII.

1 The Lord's my light and saving health, who shall make me dismay'd ?
My life's strength is the Lord, of whom then shall I be afraid ?

2 When as mine enemies and foes,
most wicked persons all,
To eat my flesh against me rose,
they stumbled and did fall.

3 Against me though an host encamp, my heart yet fearless is :
Though war against me rise, I will be confident in this.

4 One thing I of the Lord desir'd, and will seek to obtain,

That all days of my life I may within God's house remain ;

That I the beauty of the Lord behold may and admire,

And that I in his holy place
may rev'rently enquire.

5 For be in his pavilion shall me hide in evil days ;
In secret of his tent me hide,
and on a rock me raise.

6 And now, ev'n at this present time, mine head shall lifted be

Above all those that are my foes,
and round encompass me :

Therefore unto his tabernacle
I'll sacrifices bring

Of joyfulness ; I'll sing, yea, I to God will praises sing.

7 O Lord, give ear unto my voice,
when I do cry to thee :

Upon me also mercy have,
and do thou answer me.

8 When thou didst say, Seek ye my face, then unto thee reply

Thus did my heart, Above all things thy face, Lord, seek will I.

9 Far from me hide not thou thy face ;
put not away from thee

Thy servant in thy wrath : thou hast an helper been to me :

O God of my salvation,
leave me not, nor forsake.

10 Though me my parents both should leave,
the Lord will me up take.

11 O Lord, instruct me in thy way, to a plain path, because of those that hatred bear to me.

12 Give me not to mine enemies will ;
for witnesses that lie

Against me risen are, and such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I fainted had, unless that I believed had to see

The Lord's own goodness in the land of them that living be.

14 Wait on the Lord, and be thou strong, and he shall strength afford

Unto thine heart : yea, do thou wait,
I say, upon the Lord.

P S A L M XXVIII.

1 TO thee I'll cry, O Lord, my rock ;
hold not thy peace to me ;

Left I by those that to pit defend
I by thy silence be

2 The voice hear of my humble pray'rs, when unto thee I cry ;

When to thine holy oracle
I lift mine hands on high.

- 3 With ill men draw me not away,
that work iniquity;
That speak peace to their friends, while in their hearts doth mischief lie.
- 4 Give them according to their deeds
andills endeavoured:
And as their handy-works deserve,
to them be rendered.
- 5 God shall not build, but them destroy,
who would not understand The Lord's own works, nor did regard the doing of his hand.
- 6 For ever blessed be the Lord,
for graciously he heard
The voice of my petitions, and prayers did regard.
- 7 The Lord's my strength and shield; my heart upon him did rely;
And I am helped: hence my heart
doth joy exceedingly,
An I with my song I will him praise.
- 8 Their strength is God alone:
He also is the saving strength of his anointed one.
- 9 O thine own people do thou save,
bless thine inheritance;
Them also do thou feed, and them for evermore advance.

P S A L M XXIX.

- 1 Give ye unto the Lord, ye sons that of the mighty be,
All strength and glory to the Lord with cheerfulness give ye.
- 2 Unto the Lord the glory give
that to his name is due;
And in the beauty of holiness unto Jehovah bow.
- 3 The Lord's voice on the waters is;
the God of majesty
Doth thunder, and on multitudes of waters sitteth he.
- 4 A powerful voice it is that comes out from the Lord most high;
The voice of that great Lord is full of glorious majesty.
- 5 The voice of the Eternal doth asunder cedars tear;
Yea, God the Lord doth cedars break that Lebanon doth bear.
- 6 He makes them, like a calf, to skip,
ev'n that great Lebanon,
And, like to a young unicorn,
the mountain Sirion.
- 7 God's voice divides the flames of fire:
The desert it doth shake:
The Lord doth make the wilderness of Kadesh all to quake.
- 9 God's voice doth make the hinds to calve,
it makes the forest bare:
And in his temple ev'ry one his glory doth declare.
- 10 The Lord sits on the floods; the Lord sits King, and ever shall.
- 11 The Lord will give his people strength, and with peace bless them all.

P S A L M XXX.

- 1 Lord, I will thee extol, for thou hast lifted me on high,
And over me thou to rejoice
mus'dst not mine enemy.
- 2 O thou who art the Lord my God,
I in distress to thee
With loud voice lifted up my voice, and thou hast heeded me.
- 3 O Lord, my soul thou hast brought up,
and rescued from the grave;
That I might not go down,
as they that with me have.

- 4 O ye that are his holy ones,
sing praise unto the Lord;
And give unto him thanks, when ye his holiness record.

- 5 For but a moment lasts his wrath;
life in his favour lies:
Weeping may for a night endure,
at morn doth joy arise.
- 6 In my prosperity I said that nothing shall me move.
- 7 O Lord, thou hast my mountain made to stand strong by thy love:
But when that thou, O gracious God,
didst hide thy face from me,
Then quickly was my prosperous state turn'd into misery.
- 8 Wherefore unto the Lord my cry
I caused to ascend:
My humble supplication
I to the Lord did send.
- 9 What profit is there in my blood,
when I go down to pit?
Shall unto thee the dust give praise?
thy truth declare shall it?
- 10 Hear, Lord, have mercy; help me, Lord:
Thou turned hast my sadness
To dancing; yea, my sackcloth loos'd, and girded me with gladness.
- 12 That sing thy praise my glory may,
and never silent be.
O Lord my God, for evermore
I will give thanks to thee.

P S A L M XXXI.

- 1 In thee, O Lord, I put my trust;
I shan'd let me never be;
According to thy righteousness
do thou deliver me.
- 2 Bow down thine ear to me, with speed and me deliverance:
To save me, my strong rock be thou,
and my house of defence.
- 3 Because thou art my rock, and thee
I for my fortress take;
Therefore do thou me lead and guide,
ev'n for thine own name's sake.
- 4 And sith thou art my strength, therefore pull me out of the net,
Which they in subtilty for me
so privily have set.
- 5 Into thine hands I do commit my spirit; for thou art he,
O thou, JEHOVAH, God of truth, that hast redeemed me.
- 6 Those that do lying vanities regard, I have abhorr'd:
But as for me, my confidence is fixed on the Lord.
- 7 I'll in thy mercy gladly joy;
for thou my miseries Consider'st; hast; thou hast my soul known in adversities:
- 8 And thou hast not inclosed me
within the en'my's hand;
And by thee have my feet been made in a large room to stand.
- 9 O Lord, upon me mercy have,
for trouble is on me:
Mine eye, my belly, and my soul,
with grief consumed be.
- 10 Because my life with grief is spent,
my years with sighs and groans:
My strength doth fail; and for my sin consumed are my bones.
- 11 I was a scorn to all my foes,
and to my friend a fear:
And specially reproach'd of those that were my neighbours near:

- When they me saw, they from me fled Ev'n so I am forgot,
As men are out of mind when dead:
I'm like a broken pot.

- 13 For flanders I of many heard;
fear compass'd me, while they Against me did consult, and plot to take my life away.
- 14 But as for me, O Lord, my trust upon thee I did lay:
And I thee, Thou art my God,
did confidently say:
- 15 My times are wholly in thine hand:
do thou deliver me
From their hands that mine enemies and persecutors be.
- 16 Thy countenance to shine do thou upon thy servant make:
Unto me give salvation,
for thy great mercy's sake.
- 17 Let me not be ashamed, O Lord,
for on thee call'd I have:
Let wicked men be sham'd, let them be silent in the grave.
- 18 To silence put the lying lips,
that grievous things do say,
And hard reports, in pride and scorn,
on righteous men do lay.
- 19 How great's the goodness thou for them that fear thee keep'st in store:
And wrough'st for them that trust in thee
the sons of men before!
- 20 In secret of thy presence thou shalt hide them from man's pride:
From strife of tongues thou closely shalt,
as in a tent, them hide.
- 21 All praise and thanks be to the Lord, for he hath magnify'd
His wondrous love to me within a city fortify'd.
- 22 For from thine eyes cut off I am,
I in my haste had hid:
My voice yet heard'st thou, when to thee with cries my moan I made.
- 23 O love the Lord, all ye his saints;
because the Lord doth guard
The faithful, and he plentifully proud doers doth reward.
- 24 Be of good courage, and he strength unto your heart shall send,
All ye whose hope and confidence
doth on the Lord depend.

P S A L M XXXII.

- 1 O Blessed is the man to whom is freely pardoned
All the transgression he hath done, whose sin is covered.
- 2 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin,
And in whose spirit there is no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.
- 3 When as I did refrain my speech,
and silent was my tongue,
My bones then waxed old; because I roared all day long.
- 4 (For upon me both day and night thine hand did heavy lie,)
So that my moisture turned as in summer's drought thereby.
- 5 I thereupon have unto thee
my sin acknowledged,
And like wife mine iniquity
I have not covered:
I will confess unto the Lord
my transgressions, said I;
And of my sin thou freely dost forgive the iniquity.

6 For this shall ev'ry gossie one his prayer make thee :
In such a time he shall thee seek,
as found thou mayest be.
Surely when floods of waters great
do swell up to the i rim,
They shall not overwhelm his soul,
nor come near to him.

7 Thou art my hiding-place, thou shalt from trouble keep me free :
Thou with songs of deliverance
at out shalt compass me.

8 I will instruct thee, and thee teach the way that thou shalt go ;
And, with mine eye upon thee set,
I will direction show.

9 Then be not like the horse or mule,
which do not understand ;
Whose mouth, lest they come near to thee,
a bridle must command.

10 Unto the man that wicked is his sorrows shall abound ;
But him that trusteth in the Lord mercy shall compass round.

11 Ye righteous, in the Lord be glad,
in him do ye rejoice :
All ye that upright are in heart,
for joy lift up your voice.

P S A L M XXXIII.

1 YE righteous, in the Lord rejoice :
it comely is and right,
That upright men, with thankful voice, should praise the Lord of might.

2 Praise God with harp, and unto him
sing with the psaltery ;
Upon a ten-string'd instrument make ye sweet melody.

3 A new song to him sing, and play with loud noise full of joy ;
For right is God's word, all his works are done in verity.

4 To judgment and to righteousness a love he beareth still ;
The loving kindness of the Lord
the earth throughout doth fill.

5 The heavens by the word of God did their beginning take ;
And by the breathing of his mouth
he all their hoils did make.

6 The waters of the seas he brings together as an heap ;
And, in storehouses as it were,
he layeth up the deep.

7 Let earth, and all that live therein, with reverence fear the Lord ;
Let all the world's inhabitants dread him with one accord.

8 For he did speak the word, and done
it was without delay ;
Established, it firmly stood whenever he did say.

9 God doth the counsel bring to nought which Heathen folk do take ;
And what the people do devise of none effect doth make.

10 O that the counsel of the Lord
doth stand for ever sure ;
And of his heart the purposes from age to age endure.

11 That nation blessed is, whose God
J E H O V A H is, and those
A blessing people are, whom for his heritage he chose.

12 The Lord from heav'n's sees and beholds
all sons of men full well ;
He views all from his dwelling place that in the earth do dwell.

13 He forms their hearts alike, and all their doings he observes.
14 Great hoils save not a king, much strength
no mighty man prevails.
15 An horse for preservation is a deceitful thing ;
And, by the greatness of his strength,
can no deliverance bring.
16 Behold, on those that do him fear
the Lord doth set his eye ; Ev'n those who on his mercy do with confidence rely.
17 From death to free their soul, in death life unto them to yield.
18 Our soul doth wait upon the Lord ;
he is our help and shield.
19 Sith in his holy name we trust,
our heart shall joyful be.
20 Lord, let thy mercy be on us,
as we do hope in thee.

P S A L M XXXIV.

1 G O d will I bless all times ; his praise my mouth shall fill express.
2 My soul shall boast in God : the meek shall hear with joyfulness.
3 Extol the Lord with me, let us exalt his name together.
4 I sought the Lord, he heard, and did me from all fears deliver.

5 They look'd to him, and light'ned were :
not flamed were their faces.
6 This poor man cry'd, God heard, and sav'd him from all his distresses.

7 The angel of the Lord encamps, and round encompasseth
All those about that do him fear, and them delivereth.

8 O taste and see that God is good ;
who trusts in him is blest.
9 Fear God, his saints : none that him fear shall be with want oppress.

10 The lions young may hungry be,
and they may lack their food :
But they that truly seek the Lord shall not lack any good.

11 O children ! hither do ye come,
and unto me give ear ;
I shall you teach to understand how ye the Lord should fear.

12 What man is he that life desires, to see good would live long ?
13 Thy lips refrain from speaking guile, and from ill words thy tongue.

14 Depart from ill, do good, seek peace, pursue it earnestly.
15 God's eyes are on the just ; his ears are open to their cry.

16 The face of God is set against those that do wickedly,
That he may quite out of the earth
cut off their memory.

17 The righteous cry unto the Lord,
he unto them gives ear ;
And they out of their troubles all by him deliver'd are.

18 The Lord is ever nigh to them that be of broken spirit ;
To them he safety doth afford that are in heart contrite.

19 The troubles that afflict the just in number many be ;
But yet at length out of them all the Lord doth set him free.

20 He carefully his bones doth keep,
whatever can befall ;
That not so much as one of them can broken be at all.

21 Ill shall the wicked say : laid waste shall be who hate the just.
22 The Lord redeems his servants' souls ;
none perish that him trust.

P S A L M XXXV.

1 P LEAD, Lord, with those that plead, and with those that fight with me. (fight) 2 Of shield and buckler take thou hold, stand up mine help to be :
3 Draw also out the spear, and do against them stop the way
That me pursue : unto my soul,
I'm thy salvation, say.

4 Let them confounded be and sham'd that for my soul have fought :
Who plot my hurt turn'd back be they,
and to confusion brought.

5 Let them be like unto the chaff that flies before the wind ;
And let the angel of the Lord
pursue them hard behind.

6 With darkness cover thou their way, and let it slippery prove ;
And let the angel of the Lord
pursue them from above.

7 For without cause have they for me their net hid in a pit ;
They also have without a cause for my soul digged it.

8 Let ruin seize him unawares ;
his net he hid withal Himself let catch ; and in the same destruction let him fall.

9 My soul in God shall joy ; and glad in his salvation be :
10 And all my bones shall say, O Lord,
who is like unto thee,

Which dost the poor set free from him that is for him too strong ;
The poor and needy from the man that spoils and does him wrong ?

11 False witnesses rose ; to my charge things I not knew they laid.
12 They, to the spoiling of my soul,
me ill for good repaid.

13 But as for me, when they were sick,
in sackcloth sad I mourn'd :
My humble soul did fall, my pray'r into my bosom turn'd.

14 Myself I did behave as he had been my friend or brother ;
I heavily bow'd down, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in my trouble they rejoic'd, gathering themselves together ;
Yea, objects vile together did themselves against me gather :

I knew it not ; they did me tear,
and quiet would not be.
16 With mocking hypocrites, at feasts
they gnash'd their teeth at me.

17 How long, Lord, look'st thou on ? from destructions they intend (those) Rescue my soul, from lions young my darling do defend.

18 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, within th' assembly great ;
And where much people gather'd are,
thy praises forth will set.

19 Let not my wrongful enemies
proudly rejoice o'er me ;
Nor who me hate without a cause,
let them wink with the eye.

20 For peace they do not speak at all ;
but crafty plots prepare Against all those within the land that meek and quiet are.

- 21 With months set wide, thy 'gainst me said,
Ha, ha! our eye doth see;
22 Lord, thou hast seen, hold not thy peace;
Lord, be not far from me.
23 Stir up thyself; wake, that thou may'st judgment to me afford,
Even to my cause, O thou that art
my only God and Lord.
24 O Lord my God, do thou me judge
after thy righteousness;
And let them not their joy 'gainst me triumphantly express:
25 Nor let them say within their hearts,
Ah, we would have it thus;
Nor suffer them to say, that he is swallow'd up by us.
26 Sham'd and confounded be they all that at my hurt are glad:
Let those against me that do boast,
with shame and scorn be clad.
27 Let them that love my righteous cause be glad, shout, and not cease
To say, The Lord be magnify'd, who loves his servant's peace.
28 Thy righteousness shall also be declared by my tongue;
The praises that belong to thee shall speak it all day long.

P S A L M XXXVII.

- 1 The wicked man's transgression within my heart thus says, Undoubtedly the fear of God is not before his eyes.
2 Because himself he flattereth
in his own blinded eye,
Until the hatefulnes be found
of his iniquity.
3 Words from his mouth proceeding are fraud and iniquity:
He to be wife, and to do good,
hath left off utterly.
4 He mischief, lying on his bed,
most cunningly doth plot;
He sets himself in ways not good,
ill he abhorreth not.
5 Thy mercy, Lord, is in the heav'ns;
thy truth doth reach the clouds:
6 Thy justice is like mountains great;
thy judgments deep as floods:
Lord, thou preservest man and beast.
7 How precious is thy grace!
Therefore in shadow of thy wings
men's sons their trust shall place.
8 They with the fatness of thy house shall be well satisfy'd;
From rivers of thy pleasures thou wilt drink to them provide.
9 Because of life the fountain pure remains alone with thee;
And in that purest light of thine
we clearly light shall see.
10 Thy loving-kindness unto them continue that thee know;
And still on men upright in heart
thy righteousness be flow.
11 Let not the foot of cruel pride come, and against me stand;
And let me not removed be.
Lord, by the wicked's hand.
12 There fall'n are they, and ruin'd, that work iniquities:
Cast down they are, and never shall be able to arise.

P S A L M XXXVII.

- 1 For evil-doers fret thou not thyself unequally;
Nor do thou envy bear to those
that work iniquity.

- 2 For, even like unto the grass,
soon be cut down shall they;
And, like the green and tender herb,
they wither shall away.
3 Set thou thy trust upon the Lord,
and be thou doing good;
And so thou in the land shalt dwell,
and verily have food.
4 Delight thyself in God, he'll give thine heart's desire to thee.
5 Thy way to God commit, him trust, it bring to pass shall he.
6 And, like unto the light, he shall thy righteousness display;
And he thy judgment shall bring forth like noon-tide of the day.
7 Rest in the Lord, and patiently wait for him: do not fret
For him, who prospering in his way, success in sin doth get.
8 Do thou from anger cease, and wrath see thou forsake also:
Fret not thyself in any wife,
that evil thou should'st do.
9 For those that evil-doers are shall be cut off and fall:
But those that wait upon the Lord
the earth inherit shall.
10 For yet a little while, and then the wicked shall not be;
His place thou shalt consider well,
but it thou shalt not see.
11 But by inheritance of the earth
the meek ones shall possess:
They also shall delight themselves in an abundant peace.
12 The wicked plots against the just,
and at him whets his teeth.
13 The Lord shall laugh at him, because his day he coming seeth.
14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and bent their bow, to slay
The poor and needy, and to kill men of an upright way.
15 But their own sword, which they have shall enter their own heart: (drawn, Their bows which they have bent shall and into pieces part. (break, 16 A little that a just man hath is more and better far Than is the wealth of many such as lewd and wicked are.
17 For sinners' arms shall broken be;
but God the just sustains.
18 God knows the just man's days, and still their heritage remains.
19 They shall not be sham'd when they
the evil time do see;
And when the days of famine are they satisfy'd shall be.
20 But wicked men, and foes of God,
as fat of lambs, decay;
They shall consume, yea, into smoke
they shall consume away.
21 The wicked borrows, but the same again he doth not pay;
Whereas the righteous mercy shows,
and gives his own away.
22 For such as blessed be of him
the earth inherit shall;
And they that cursed are of him shall be destroyed all.
23 A good man's footsteps by the Lord
are ordered aright;
And in the way wherein he walks
he greatly doth delight.

- 24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be cast down utterly;
Because the Lord with his own hand upholds him mightily.
25 I have been young, and now am old,
yet have I never seen
The just man left, nor that his seed for bread have beggars seen.
26 He's ever merciful, and lends:
his seed is blest'd therefore.
27 Depart from evil, and do good,
and dwell for evermore.
28 For God loves judgment, and his saints leave not in any case;
They are kept ever: but cut off
shall be the sinner's race.
29 The just inherit shall the land,
and ever in it dwell:
30 The just man's mouth doth wisdom speak;
his tongue doth judgment tell.
31 In's heart the law is of his God,
his steps slide not away.
32 The wicked man doth watch the just,
and seeketh him to slay.
33 Yet him the Lord will not forsake, nor leave him in his hands:
The righteous will he not condemn,
when he in judgment stands.
34 Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and thee exalt shall he Th' earth to inherit; when cut off
the wicked thou shalt see.
35 I saw the wicked great in pow'r, spread like a green bay-tree:
36 He pass'd, yea, was not; him I sought,
but found he could not be.
37 Mark thou the perfect, and behold
the man of uprightness;
Because that surely of this man
the latter end is peace.
38 But those men that transgressors are shall be destroy'd together;
The latter end of wicked men shall be cut off for ever.
39 But the salvation of the just is from the Lord above:
He, in the time of their distress,
their stay and strength doth prove.
40 The Lord shall help, and them deliver:
he shall them free and save
From wicked men; because in him their confidence they have.

P S A L M XXXVIII.

- 1 In thy great indignation,
O Lord, rebuke me not;
Nor on me lay thy chastening hand
in thy displeasure hot.
2 For in me fast thine arrows stick, thine hand doth press me sore;
3 And in my flesh there is no health,
nor soundness any more.
This grief I have, because thy wrath is forth against me gone;
And in my bones there is no rest,
for sin that I have done.
4 Because gone up above mine head my great transgressions be;
And, as a weighty burden, they too heavy are for me.
5 My wounds do stink, and are corrupt;
my folly makes a fo.
6 I troubled am, and much bow'd down,
all day I'm weeping go.
7 For a cistern that leastwise is so fills my loins with pain,
That in my weak and weary flesh
no soundness doth remain.

9 So feeble and infirm am I,
and broken am I,
That, through disquiet of my heart,
I have been made to roar.
10 O Lord, all that I do desire is still before thine eye;
And of my heart the secret groans not hidden are from thee.
11 My heart doth pant incessantly,
my strength doth quite decay;
As for mine eyes, their wonted light is from me gone away.
12 My lovers and my friends do stand at distance from my face;
And those do stand aloof that were kindred and kind before.

13 Yea, they that seek my life lay snares:
who seek to do me wrong Speak things mischievous, and deceits imagine all day long.
14 But, as one deaf, that heareth not,
I suffer'd all to pass;
I as a dumb man did become,
whose mouth not open'd was:
15 As one that hears not, in whose mouth are no reproofs at all.
16 For, Lord, I hope in thee; my God, thou'lt hear me when I call.
17 For I said, Hear me, lest they should rejoice o'er me with pride;
And o'er me magnify themselves,
when as my foot doth slide.
18 For I am near to halt, my grief is still before mine eye:
19 For I'll declare my sin, and grieve for mine iniquity.
20 But yet mine enemies lively are,
and strong are they beside;
And they that hate me wrongfully are greatly multiply'd.
21 And for thy good that render ill,
as enemies me withstood;
Yea, ev'n for this, because that I do follow what is good.
22 For sake me not, O Lord; my God, far from me never be.
23 O Lord, thou my salvation art,
haste to give help to me.

P S A L M XXXIX.

1 I said, I will look to my ways,
lest with my tongue I sin:
2 I fight of wicked men my mouth with bridle I'll keep in.
3 With silence I as dumb became,
I did myself restrain
From boasting good; but then the more increas'd was my pain.
4 My heart within me waxed hot;
and while I musing was,
The fire did burn; and from my tongue
these words I did let pass:
5 Mine end, and measure of my days,
O Lord, unto me show,
What is the sum; that I thereby my frailty well may know.
6 Lo, thou my eyes an handbreadth mad'st;
mine eyes in thine eye
As nothing: since each man at best is wholly vanity.
7 Sure each man walks in a vain show,
they vex themselves in vain;
He bows up wealth, and doth not know to whom it shall pertain.
8 And now, O Lord, what wait I for?
my hope is fix'd on thee.
9 Free me from all my trespasses,
the fools' scorn make not me,

9 Dumb was I, op'ning not my mouth, because this work was thine.
10 Thy stroke take from me; by the blow of thine hand I do pine.
11 When with rebukes thou dost correct man for iniquity,
Thou waitest his beauty like a moth:
fear each man's vanity.
12 Attend my cry, Lord, at my tears and pray'r's not silent be:
I sojourn as my fathers al:
and stranger am with thee.
13 O spare thou me, that I my strength recover may again,
Before from hence I do depart, and here no more remain.

P S A L M XL.

1 I waited for the Lord my God,
and patiently did bear;
At length to me he did incline
my voice and cry to hear.
2 He took me from a fearful pit,
and from the miry clay,
And on a rock he set my feet,
establishing my way.
3 He put a new song in my mouth,
our God to magnify:
Many shall see it, and shall fear,
and on the Lord rely.
4 O blessed is the man whose trust
upon the Lord relies; Respecting not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lyes.
5 O Lord my God, full many are the wonders thou hast done;
Thy gracious thoughts to us ward far above all thoughts are gone:
In order none can reckon them
to thee: if them declare,
And speak of them I would, they more than can be number'd are.
6 No sacrifice nor offering didst thou at all desire;
Mine ears thou bor'd: sin-off'ring thou and burnt didst not require:
7 Then to the Lord these were my words,
I come, behold and see:
Within the volume of the book
it written is of me:
8 To do thy will I take delight,
O thou my God that art:
Yea, that most holy law of thine
I have within my heart.
9 Within the congregation great
I righteousness did preach:
Lo, thou dost know, O Lord, that I restrained not my speech.
10 I never did within my heart conceal thy righteousness:
I thy salvation have declar'd,
and shown thy faithfulness:
Thy kindness, which most loving is,
concealed have not I,
Nor from the congregation great have hid thy verity.
11 Thy tender mercies, Lord, from me,
O do thou not restrain:
Thy loving-kindness, and thy truth,
let them me still maintain.
12 For the past reckning compass me,
and mine iniquities
Such hold upon me taken have,
I cannot lift mine eyes:
They more than hairs are on mine head, thence is my heart dismay'd.
13 Be pleas'd, Lord, to refuse me
Lord, hasten to mine aid,

14 Shall end confounded be they, all that seek my soul to kill:
Yea, let them backward driven be,
and sham'd, that with me ill 15 For a reward of this their shame confounded let them be,
That in this manner scoffing say,
Alas, aha! to me.
16 In thee let all be glad, and joy,
who seeking thee abide;
Who thy salvation love, say still,
The Lord be magnify'd.
17 I'm poor and needy, yet the Lord of me a care doth take:
Thou art my help and favour,
my God, no tarrying make.

P S A L M XLI.

1 Blessed is he that wisely doth the poor man's case consider;
For when the time of trouble is,
the Lord will him deliver.
2 God will him keep, yea, save alive;
on earth he bless'd shall live;
And to his enemies' desire thou wilt him not up give.
3 God will give strength when he on bed of languishing doth mourn;
And in his sickness fore, O Lord,
thou all his bed wilt turn.
4 I said, O Lord, do thou extend thy mercy unto me;
O do thou heal my soul; for why?
I have offended thee.
5 Those that to me are enemies of me do evil say;
When shall he die, that to his name
may perish quite away?
6 To see me if he comes, he speaks vain words: but then his heart Heaps mischief to it, which he tells, when forth he doth depart.
7 My haters jointly whispering, 'gainst me my hurt devise.
8 Mischief, say they, cleaves fast to him;
he lieth, and shall not rise.
9 Yea, ev'n mine own familiar friend,
on whom I did rely,
Who ate my bread, ev'n he his heel against me lifted high.
10 But, Lord, be merciful to me,
and up again me raise,
That I may justly then requite
according to their ways.
11 By this I know that certainly
I favour'd am by thee;
Because my hateful enemy
triumphs not over me.
12 But as for me, thou me uphold'st
in mine integrity;
And me before thy countenance
thou sett'st continually.
13 The Lord, the God of Israel, be bless'd for ever then,
From age to age eternally.
Amen, yea, and amen.

P S A L M XLII.

1 Like as the hart for water-brooks in thirst doth pant and bray;
So pants my longing soul, O God,
that come to thee I may.
2 My soul for God, the living God, doth thirst: when shall I near Unto thy countenance approach, and in God's sight appear?
3 My tears have unto me been meat,
both in the night and day,
While mine eyes continually
Wait for thy God? they say.

- 4 My soul is poured out in me,
when this I think upon.
Because that with the multitude
I heretofore had gone:
With them into God's house I went with voice of joy and praise;
Yea, with the multitude that kept the solemn holy days.
- 5 O why art thou cast down, my soul?
why in me so dismay'd?
Trust God, for I shall praise him yet,
his countenance is mine aid.
- 6 My God, my soul's cast down in me;
thence therefore mind I will
From Jordan's land, the Hermonities, and ev'n from Mizar hill.
- 7 At the noise of thy waterpouts deep unto deep doth call;
Thy breaking waves pass over me,
yea, and thy billows all.
- 8 His loving-kindness yet the Lord command will in the day,
His song's with me by night; to God,
by whom I live, I'll pray:
- 9 And I will say to God my rock,
Why me forgett'st thou so?
Why, for my foes' oppression,
thus mourning do I go?
- 10 'Tis as a sword within my bones,
when my foes me upbraid;
Ev'n when by them, Where is thy God?
'Tis said to me said.
- 11 O why art thou cast down, my soul?
why, thus with grief oppress'd,
Art thou disquieted in me?
in God still hope and rest:
- For yet I know I shall him praise, who graciously to me
The health is of my countenance, yea, mine own God is he.

P S A L M XLIII.

- 1 Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against th' ungodly nation;
From the unjust and crafty man,
O be thou my salvation.
- 2 For thou the God art of my strength,
why thrusts thou me thee fro?
For th' enemy's oppression
why do I mourning go?
- 3 O send thy light forth and thy truth;
let them be guides to me,
And bring me to thine holy hill,
ev'n where thy dwellings be.
- 4 Then will I to God's altar go,
to God my chiefest joy;
Yea, God, my God, thy name to praise
my harp I will employ.
- 5 Why art thou then cast down, my soul?
what should discourage thee?
And why with vexing thoughts art thou disquieted in me?
- Still trust in God; for him to praise good cause I yet shall have:
He of my countenance is the health,
my God that doth me save.

P S A L M XLIV.

- 1 O God, we with our ears have heard,
our fathers have us told,
What works thou in their days hadst done,
ev'n in the days of old.
- 2 Thy hand did drive the Heathen out,
and plant them in their place;
Thou didst ass't the nations,
but them thou didst increase.
- 3 For neither got their sword the land,
nor did their arm them save:
But thy right hand, arm, countenance;
for thou them favour gave.

- 4 Thou art my King: for Jacob, Lord, deliver us command.
- 5 Through thee we shall push down our foes,
that do against us stand:
- We, through thy name, shall tread down that ris'n against us have.

- 6 For in my bow I shall not trust, nor shall my sword me save.
- 7 But from our foes thou hast us sav'd,
our haters put to shame.
- 8 In God we all the day do boast,
and ever praise thy name.

- 9 But now we are cast off by thee,
and us thou putt'st to shame;
And when our armies do go forth,
thou go'st not with the same.
- 10 Thou mak'st us from the enemy,
faint-hearted, to turn back;
And they who hate us for themselves
our spoils away do take.

- 11 Like sheep for meat thou gavest us;
among Heathen cast we be.
- 12 Thou didst for nought thy people sell;
their price enrich'd not thee.
- 13 Thou mak'st us a reproach to be unto our neighbours near;
Derision and a scorn to them that round about us are.

- 14 A by-word also thou dost us
among the Heathen make:
The people, in contempt and spite,
at us their heads do shake.

- 15 Before me my confusion continually abides;
And of my bawful countenance
the shame me ever hides:

- 16 For voice of him that doth reproach,
and speaketh blasphemy;
By reason of th' avenging foe,
and cruel enemy.

- 17 All this is come on us, yet we have not forgotten thee;
Nor falsely in thy covenant behav'd ourselves have we.

- 18 Back from thy way our heart not turn'd;
our steps no straying made;
- 19 Though us thou oak'st in dragons' place,
and cover'd'st with death's shade.

- 20 If we God's name forgot, or stretch'd to a strange god our hands, 21 Shall not God search this out? for he hearts' secrets underlands.

- 22 Yea, for thy sake we're kill'd all day, counted as slaughter-sheep.

- 23 Rise, Lord, cast us not ever off;
awake, why dost thou sleep?

- 24 O wherefore hidest thou thy face?
forgett'st our case distress'd,

- 25 And our oppression? For our soul is to the dust down press'd:

- Our belly also on the earth fast cleaving, hold doth take.

- 26 Rise for our help, and us redeem,
ev'n for thy mercy's sake.

P S A L M XLV.

- 1 MY heart brings forth a goodly thing;
my words that I indite Concern the King: my tongue's a pen of one that swift doth write.

- 2 Thou fairer art than sons of men:
into thy lips is store
Of grace infus'd; God therefore thee hath bless'd for evermore.

- 3 O thou that art the mighty One,
thy sword gird on thy thigh:
Ev'n with thy glory excellent,
and with thy majesty.

- 4 For meekness, truth, and righteousness,
in state ride prosperously;
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in things that fearful be.

- 5 Thine arrows sharply pierce the heart of th' enemies of the King;
And under thy subjection
the people down do bring.

- 6 For ever and for ever is,
O God, thy throne of might:
The sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre that is right.

- 7 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill;
for God, thy God, most high,
Above thy fellows hath with th' oil
of joy anointed thee.

- 8 Of aloes, myrrh, and cassia,
a smell thy garments had,
Out of the ivory palaces,
whereby they made thee glad.

- 9 Among thy women honourable kings' daughters were at hand:
Upon thy right hand did the queen in gold of Ophir stand.

- 10 O daughter! hearken and regard,
and do thine ear incline;
Likewise forget thy father's house,
and people that are thine.

- 11 Then of the King desir'd shall be thy beauty vehemently:
Because he is thy Lord, do thou him worship reverently.

- 12 The daughter there of Tyre shall be,
with gifts and off rings great:
Those of the people that are rich thy favour shall entreat.

- 13 Behold, the daughter of the King
all glorious is within;
And with embroideries of gold
her garments wrought have been.

- 14 She shall be brought unto the King
in robes with needle wrought;
Her fellow-virgins following,
shall unto thee be brought.

- 15 They shall be brought with gladness great,
and mirth on every side,
Into the palace of the King,
and there they shall abide.

- 16 Instead of those thy fathers dear,
thy children thou may'st take,
And in all places of the earth
them noble princes make.

- 17 Thy name remember'd I will make through ages all to be:
The people, therefore, evermore shall praises give to thee.

Another of the same.

- 1 MY heart inditing is a good matter in a song:
I speak the things that I have made which to the King belong:

- My tongue shall be as quick,
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe that useth fast to write.

- 2 Thou'rt fairest of all men
grace in thy lips doth flow:
And therefore blessings evermore
on thee doth God bestow.

- 3 Thy sword gird on thy thigh,
thou that art most of might:
Appear in dreadful majesty,
and in thy glory bright.

- 4 For meekness, truth, and right, ride prosperously in state
And thy right hand shall thee in things terrible and great.

5 Thy shafts shall pierce their hearts that foes are to the King; Whereby unto subjection
the people thou shalt bring.

6 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
The sceptre of thy kingdom doth all righteousness maintain.

7 Thou shalt be right, and shalt be ill;
for God, thy God, most high,
Above thy fellows hath with thine oil
of joy anointed thee.

8 Of myrrh and spices sweet
a smell thy garments had,
Out of the ivory palaces,
whereby they made thee glad.

9 And in thy glorious train kings' daughters waiting stand:
And thy fair queen in Ophir gold doth stand at thy right hand.

10 O daughter! take good heed, incline, and give good ear;
Thou shalt forget thy kindred all,
and father's house most dear.

11 Thy beauty to the King shall then delightful be:
And do thou humbly worship him,
because thy Lord is he.

12 The daughter then of Tyre
there with a gift shall be,
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.

13 The daughter of the King
all glorious is within;
And with embroideries of gold
her garments wrought have been.

14 She cometh to the King
in robes with needle wrought;
The virgins that do follow her shall unto thee be brought.

15 They shall be brought with joy,
and mirth on ev'ry side,
Into the palace of the King,
and there they shall abide.

16 And in thy fathers' stead,
thy children thou may'st take,
And in all places of the earth
them noble princes make.

17 I will shew forth thy name
to generations all:
Therefore the people evermore to thee give praises fall.

P S A L M XLVI.

1 God is our refuge and our strength,
in straits a present aid:
2 Therefore, although the earth remove,
we will not be afraid:
Though hills amidst the seas be cast:
3 Though waters roaring make,
And troubled be; yea, though the hills
by swelling seas do shake.

4 A river is, whose streams do glad the city of our God;
The holy place, wherein the Lord
most high hath his abode.

5 God in the midst of her doth dwell;
nothing shall her remove:
The Lord to her an helper will,
and that right early, prove.

6 The Heathen rag'd tumultuously, the kingdoms moved were:
The Lord God uttered his voice,
the earth did melt for fear.

7 The Lord of hosts upon our side
doth constantly remain:
The God of Jacob's our refuge, us safely to maintain.

8 Come, and behold what wondrous works have by the Lord been wrought; Come, see what desolations
he on the earth hath brought.

9 Unto the ends of all the earth
war to peace he turns:
The bow he breaks, the spear he cuts,
in fire the chariot burns.

10 Be still, and know that I am God:
among the Heathen I Will be exalted, I on earth will be exalted high.

11 Our God, who is the Lord of hosts, is still upon our side;
The God of Jacob, our refuge,
for ever will abide.

P S A L M XLVII.

1 All people, clap your hands; to God,
with voice of triumph shout:
2 For dreadful is the Lord most high, great King the earth throughout.

3 The heathen people under us
he surely shall subdue;
And he shall make the nations
under our feet to bow.

4 The lot of our inheritance choose out for us shall he,
Of Jacob, whom he loved well,
ev'n the excellency.

5 God is with shouts gone up, the Lord with trumpets sounding high.

6 Sing praise to God, sing praise, sing praise, praise to our King sing ye.

7 For God is king of all the earth;
with knowledge praise express.

8 God rules the nations, God sits on his throne of holiness.

9 The princes of the people are assembled willingly; Ev'n of the God of Abraham
they who the people be.

For why? the shields that do defend the earth are only his:
They to the Lord belong; yea, he exalted greatly is.

P S A L M XLVIII.

1 Great is the Lord, and greatly he is to be praised still,
Within the city of our God,
upon his holy hill.

2 Mount Sion stands most beautiful,
the joy of all the land;
The city of the mighty King on her north side doth stand.

3 The Lord within her palaces is for a refuge known.

4 For, lo, the kings that gather'd were together, by have gone.

5 But when they did behold the same,
they, wond'ring, would not stay;
But, being troubled at the sight,
they thence did haste away.

6 Great terror there took hold on them,
they were possess'd with fear;
Their grief came like a woman's pain,
when she a child doth bear.

7 Thou T'arlish shipswich east wind break'st:
8 As we have heard it told,
So, in the city of the Lord,
our eyes did it behold;

In our God's city, which his hand for ever stablish will.

9 We of thy loving-kindness thought,
Lord, in thy temple still.

10 O Lord, according to thy name, through all the earth's thy praise;
And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness always.

11 Because thy judgments are made known;
let Sion mount rejoice;
Of Judah let the daughters all fend forth a cheerful voice.

12 Walk about Sion, and go round:
the high tow'rs thereof tell:
13 Consider ye her palaces,
and mark her bulwarks well;
That ye may tell posterity.

14 For this God doth abide Our God for evermore: he will ev'n unto death us guide.

P S A L M XLIX.

1 Hear this, all people, and give ear,
all in the world that dwell;
2 Both low and high, both rich and poor:
3 My mouth shall wisdom tell:
4 I will incline mine ear
To parables, and on the harp my sayings dark declare.

5 Amidst those days that evil be,
why should I, fearing, doubt?
When of my heels th' iniquity shall compass me about.

6 Who'er they be that in their wealth their confidence do pitch,
And boast themselves, because they are become exceeding rich:

7 Yet none of these his brother can redeem by any way;
Nor can he unto God for him sufficient ransom pay.

8 (Their soul's redemption precious is,
and it can never be.)

9 That still he should for ever live, and not corruption see.

10 For why? he seeth that wife men die, and brutish fools also Do perish; and their wealth, when dead, to others they let go.

11 Their inward thought is, that their house and dwelling-places shall Stand through all ages; they their lands by their own names do call.

12 But yet in honour shall not man abide continually;
But passing hence, may be compar'd unto the beasts that die.

13 Thus brutish folly plainly is their wisdom and their way;
Yet their posterity approve what they do fondly say.

14 Like sheep they in the grave are laid,
and death shall them devour;
And in the morning upriseth men shall over them have pow'r:
Their beauty from their dwelling shall consume within the grave.

15 But from hell's hand God will me free, for he shall me receive.

16 Be thou not then afraid when one enriched thou dost see,
Nor when the glory of his house advanced is on high:

17 For he shall carry nothing hence when death his days doth end;
Nor shall his glory after him into the grave descend.

18 Although he his own soul did bless whilst he on earth did live;
(And when thou to thyself do'st well, men will thee praises give;)

19 He to his fathers' race shall go, they never shall see light.

20 Man should not wanting knowledge be like beasts that perish quite.

P S A L M L.

1 THe mighty God, the Lord, hath spoken and did call
The earth, from rising of the sun, to where he hath his fall.
2 From out of Sion hill, which of excellency
And beauty the perfection is,
God shined gloriously.
3 Our God shall surely come,
keep silence shall not he:
Before him fire shall waste, great storms shall round about him be.
4 Unto the heavens clear
he from above shall call,
And to the earth likewise, (that he may judge his people all,) 5 Together let my faints unto me gather'd be,
Those that by sacrifice have made a covenant with me.
6 And then the heavens shall his righteousness declare;
Because the Lord himself is he by whom men judged are.
7 My people Iſr'el hear,
I speak will I from on high,
Against thee I will testify;
God, ev'n thy God, am I.
8 I for thy sacrifice
no blame will on thee lay,
Nor for burnt-off'rings, which to me
thou offer'dst ev'ry day.
9 I'll take no calf nor goats from house or fold of thine:
10 For beasts of forests, cattle all
on thousand hills, are mine.
11 The fowls on mountains high are all to me well known;
Wild beasts which in the fields do lie,
ev'n they are all mine own.
12 Then, if I hungry were,
I would not tell it thee;
Because the world, and fulness all thereof, belongs to me.
13 Will I eat flesh of bulls?
or goats' blood drink will I?
14 Thanks offer thou to God, and pay thy vows to the most High.
15 And call upon me when in trouble thou shalt be;
I will deliver thee, and thou
my name shalt glorify.
16 But to the wicked man
God faith, My laws and truth Shouldst'th thou declare? how dar'st thou my cov'nant in thy mouth? (take 17 Sith thou instruction hast, which should thy ways direct;
And sith my words behind thy back thou cast'st, and dost reject.
18 When thou a thief didst see,
with him thou didst consent;
And with the vile adulterers partaker on thou went.
19 Thou giv'st thy mouth to ill,
thy tongue deceit doth frame:
20 Thou sit'st and g'aينت thy brother speak'st,
thy mother's son dost shame.
21 Because I silence kept,
while thou these things hast wrought;
That I was altogether like thyself, hath been thy thought:
Yet I will thee reprove,
and set before thine eyes,
In order ranked, thy misdeeds, and thine iniquities.

22 Now, ye that God forget,
this carefully consider;
Left I in pieces tear you all,
and none can you deliver.
23 Whofo doth offer praise me glorifies, and I Will shew him God's salvation, that orders right his way.

Another of the same.

1 THe mighty God the Lord hath spoke,
and call'd the earth upon,
Ev'n from the rising of the sun unto his going down.
2 From out of Sion, his own hill, where the perfection high Of beauty is, from thence the Lord hath shined gloriously.
3 Our God shall come, and shall no more be silent, but speak out:
Before him fire shall waste, great storms
shall compass him about.
4 He to the heavens from above,
and to the earth below, Shall call, (that he his judgments may before his people show,) 5 Let all my faints together be unto me gathered;
Those that by sacrifice with me
a covenant have made.
6 And then the heavens shall declare his righteousness abroad:
Because the Lord himself doth come;
none else is judge but God.
7 Hear, O my people, and I'll speak;
O Israel by name,
Against thee I will testify:
God, ev'n thy God, I am.
8 I for thy sacrifices few reprove thee never will,
Nor for burnt-off'rings to have been before me offer'd still.
9 I'll take no bullock nor he-goats from house nor folds of thine:
10 For beasts of forests, cattle all
on thousand hills, are mine.
11 The fowls are all to me well known that mountains high do yield;
And I do challenge as mine own
the wild beasts of the field.
12 If I were hungry, I would not to thee for need complain;
For earth, and all its fulness, doth to me of right pertain.
13 That I to eat the flesh of bulls take pleasure dost thou think?
Or that I need, to quench my thirst,
the blood of goats do drink?
14 Nay, rather unto me, thy God,
thanksgiving offer thou:
To the most High perform thy word,
and fully pay thy vow.
15 And in the day of trouble great
see that thou call on me;
I will deliver thee, and thou
my name shalt glorify.
16 But God unto the wicked faith,
Why shouldst'th thou mention make
Of my commands? how dar'st thou in thy mouth my cov'nant take?
17 Sith it is so that thou dost hate
all good instruction;
And sith thou cast'st behind thy back,
and slight'st my words each one.
18 When thou a thief didst see, then straight thou join'dst with him in sin,
And with the vile adulterers
thou hast partaker been.

19 Thy mouth to evil thou dost give,
thy tongue deceit doth frame.
20 Thou sit'st and g'aينت thy brother speak'st,
thy mother's son to shame.
21 These things thou wickedly hast done,
and I have silent been;
Thou thought'st that I was like thyself,
and did approve thy sin:
But I will sharply thee reprove, and I will order right
Thy sins and thy transgressions, in presence of thy sight.
22 Consider this, and be afraid,
ye that forget the Lord,
Left I in pieces tear you all,
when none can help afford.
23 Who off'reth praise me glorifies:
I will shew God's salvation
To him that ordereth aright his life and conversation.

P S A L M L I.

1 After thy loving-kindness, Lord,
have mercy upon me:
For thy compassion's great, blot out all mine iniquity.
2 Me cleanse from sin, and thoroughly wash
from mine iniquity:
3 For my transgressions I confess;
my sin I ever see.
4 Gainst thee, thee only, have I sinn'd,
in thy sight done this ill;
That when thou speak'st thou may'st be and clear in judging ill. (just,
5 Behold, I in iniquity was form'd the womb within;
My mother also me conceiv'd in guiltiness and sin.
6 Behold, thou in the inward parts with truth delighted art;
And wisdom thou shalt make me know within the hidden part.
7 Do thou with hyssop sprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so;
Yea, wash thou me, and then I shall be whiter than the snow.
8 Of gladness and of joyfulness make me to hear the voice;
That fo these very bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.
9 All mine iniquities blot out,
thy face hide from my sin.
10 Create a clean heart, Lord, renew a right spirit me within.
11 Cast me not from thy sight, nor take thy holy Spirit away.
12 Restore me thy salvation's joy;
with thy free Spirit me stay.
13 Then will I teach thy ways unto those that transgressors be;
And those that sinners are shall then be turned unto thee.
14 O God, of my salvation God, me from blood-guiltiness Set free: then shall my tongue aloud sing of thy righteousness.
15 My closed lips, O Lord, by thee let them be opened;
Then shall thy praises by my mouth abroad be published.
16 For thou desire'st not sacrifice,
else would I give it thee;
Nor wilt thou with burnt-offering at all delight to be.
17 A broken spirit is to God
a pleasing sacrifice:
A broken and a contrite heart,
Lord, thou wilt not despise.

- 15 Shew kindness, and do good, O Lord,
to Sion, thine own hill:
The walls of thy Jerusalem built up of thy good will.
- 16 Then righteous off-rings shall thee please, and off-rings burnt, which they
With whole burnt-off-rings and with calves, shall on thine altar lay.

P S A L M LII.

- 1 Why dost thou boast, O mighty man,
of mischief and of ill?
The goodness of almighty God endureth ever still.
- 2 Thy tongue with malicious calumnies devoted subtilty,
Like to a razor sharp to cut,
working deceitfully.
- 3 I'll more than good, and more than truth
thou lovest to speak wrong:
- 4 Thou lovest all-devouring words,
O thou deceitful tongue.
- 5 So God shall thee destroy for ay, remove thee, pluck thee out Quite from thy house, cut of the land of life he shall thee root.
- 6 The righteous shall it see, and fear, and laugh at him they shall:
- 7 Lo, this the man is that did not make God his strength at all:
But he in his abundant wealth
his confidence did place:
And he took trust upon himself from his own wickedness.
- 8 But I am in the house of God
like to an olive green:
My confidence for ever hath upon God's mercy been.
- 9 And I for ever will thee praise, because thou hast done this:
I on thy name will wait; for good before thy saints it is.

P S A L M LIII.

- 1 That there is not a God, the fool
doth in his heart conclude;
They are corrupt, their works are vile,
not one of them doth good.
- 2 The Lord upon the sons of men from heav'n did cast his eyes,
To see if any one there was that sought God, and was wise.
- 3 They altogether filthy are,
they all are backward gone;
And there is none that doeth good,
no, not so much as one.
- 4 These workers of iniquity,
do they not know at all,
That they my people eat as bread,
and on God do not call?
- 5 Ev'n there they were afraid, and stood with trembling, all unmy'd, Whereas there was no cause at all
why they should be afraid:
For God his bones that these besieg'd hath scatter'd all abroad;
Thou hast confounded them, for they despised are of God.
- 6 Let Israel's help from Sion come:
when back the Lord shall bring His captive, Jacob shall rejoice,
and Israel shall sing.

P S A L M LIV.

- 1 Save me, O God, by thy great name,
and judge me by thy strength;
- 2 My prayer hear, O God: give ear unto my words at length.
- 3 For they that strangers are to me
do up against me rise:
Oppressors seek my soul, and God is not before their eyes.

- 4 The Lord my God my helper is,
lo, therefore I am bold:
He taketh part with every one that doth my soul uphold.
- 5 Unto mine enemies he shall mischief and ill repay:
O for thy truth's sake cut them off,
and sweep them clean away.
- 6 I will a sacrifice to thee give with free willingness:
Thy name, O Lord, because 'tis good,
with praise I will confess.
- 7 For he hath me delivered from all adversities;
And his desire mine eye hath seen upon mine enemies.

P S A L M LV.

- 1 Lord, hear my pray'r, hide not thyself
from my entreating voice:
- 2 Attend and hear me; in my plaint
I mourn and make a noise.
- 3 Because of th' en'my's voice, and for lewd men's oppression great:
On me they cast iniquity,
and they in wrath me hate.
- 4 Sore pain'd within me is my heart,
death's terrors on me fall:
- 5 On me comes trembling, fear and dread
o'erwhelm'd me withal.
- 6 O that I, like a dove, had wings,
I'd I, then would I flee Far hence, that I might find a place where I in rest might be.
- 7 Lo, then far off I wander would,
and in the desert stay;
- 8 From windy storm and tempest I would haste to 'scape away.
- 9 O Lord, on thine destruction bring,
and do their tongues divide;
For in the city violence and strife I have esp'y'd.
- 10 They day and night upon the walls
do go about it round:
There mischief is, and sorrow there in mult it is found.
- 11 Abundant wickedness there is within her inward part;
And from her streets deceitfulness and guile do not depart.
- 12 He was no foe that me reproach'd,
then that endure I could;
Nor hater that did 'gainst me boast,
from him me hide I would.
- 13 But thou, man, who mine equal, guide,
and mine a quittance walt:
- 14 We join'd of sweet counsels, to God's house
in company we past.
- 15 Let death upon them seize, and down
let them go quick to hall;
For wickedness doth much abound among them where they dwell.
- 16 I'll call on God: God will me save.
- 17 I'll pray, and make a noise
At ev'ning, morning, and at noon;
and he shall hear my voice.
- 18 He hath my soul delivered, that it in peace might be From battle that against me was;
for many were with me.
- 19 The Lord shall hear, and them afflict,
of old who hath abode:
Because they never changes have,
therefore they fear not God.
- 20 'Gainst those that were at peace with him
he hath put forth his hand:
The covenant that he had made,
by breaking he profan'd.

- 21 Mere fincoth than butter were his words,
while in his heart was war;
His speeches were more soft than oil,
and yet drawn swords they are.
- 22 Cast thou thy burden on the Lord,
and he shall thee sustain;
Yea, he shall cause the righteous man unmoved to remain.
- 23 But thou, O Lord my God, those men
in justice shalt o'erthrow,
And in destruction's dungeon dark at last shalt lay them low.
The bloody and deceitful men shall not live half their days:
But upon thee with confidence
I will depend always.

P S A L M LVI.

- 1 Shew mercy, Lord, to me, for man would swallow me outright;
He me oppresseth, while he doth against me daily fight.
- 2 They daily would me swallow up that hate me spitefully;
For they be many that do fight against me, O most High.
- 3 When I'm afraid I'll trust in thee:
In God I'll praise his word;
I will not fear what flesh can do,
my trust is in the Lord.
- 5 Each day they wreat my words; their
'gainst me are all for ill. (thoughts)
- 6 They meet, they lurk, they mark my steps, waiting my soul to kill.
- 7 But shall they by iniquity escape thy judgments lo?
O God, with indignation down do thou the people throw.
- 8 My wand'rings all what they have been thou know'st, their number took;
Into thy bottle put my tears:
are they not in thy book?
- 9 My foes shall, when I cry, turn back;
I know't, God is for me.
- 10 In God his word I'll praise; his word in God shall praised be.
- 11 In God I trust; I will not fear
what man can do to me.
- 12 Thy vows upon me are, O God:
I'll render praise to thee.
- 13 Wilt thou not, who from death me sav'd,
my feet from falls keep free,
To walk before God in the light of those that living be?

P S A L M LVII.

- 1 Be merciful to me, O God,
thy mercy unto me
Do thou extend; because my soul
doth put her trust in thee:
Yea, in the shadow of thy wings
my refuge I will place, Until these sad calamities do wholly overpass.
- 2 My cry I will cause to ascend unto the Lord most high;
To God, who doth all things for me perform most perfectly.
- 3 From heav'n he shall send down, and me from his reproach defend That would devour me: God his truth and mercy forth shall send.
- 4 My soul among fierce lions is,
I firebrands live among,
Men's sons, whose teeth are spears and darts,
a sharp sword is their tongue.
- 5 He thou exalted very high above the heav'ns, O God:
Let thou thy glory be advanc'd o'er all the earth abroad.

- 6 My foul's bow'd down; for they a net have laid, my steps to snare:
Into the pit which they have digg'd for me they fall in are.
- 7 My heart is fix'd, my heart is fix'd,
O God; I'll sing and praise.
- 8 My glory, wake: wake psaltry, harp;
myself I'll early raise.
- 9 I'll praise thee among the people, Lord;
among nations sing will I:
- 10 For great to heav'n thy mercy is,
thy truth is to the sky.
- 11 O Lord, exalted be thy name above the heav'ns to stand:
Do thou thy glory far advance above both sea and land.

P S A L M LVIII.

- 1 D O ye, O congregation,
indeed speak righteousness?
O ye that are the sons of men,
judge ye with uprightness?
- 2 Yea, ev'n within your very hearts
ye wickedness have done;
And ye the violence of your hands do weigh the earth upon.
- 3 The wicked men estranged are,
ev'n from the very womb;
They, speaking lyes, do stray as soon
as to the world they come.
- 4 Unto a serpent's poison like their poison doth appear;
Yea, they are like the adder deaf,
that closely stops her ears;
- 5 That fo she may not hear the voice of one that charm her would,
No, not though he most cunning were,
and charm most wifely could.
- 6 Their teeth, O God, within their mouth break thou in pieces small;
The great teeth break thou out, O Lord,
of these young lions all.
- 7 Let them like waters melt away,
which downward still do flow:
In pieces cut his arrows all,
when he shall bend his bow.
- 8 Like to a snail that melts away,
let each of them be gone;
Like woman's birth untimely, that they never see the sun.
- 9 He shall them take away before your pots the thorns can find,
Both living, and in fury great,
as with a stormy wind.

- 10 The righteous, when he vengeance sees,
he shall be joyful then;
The righteous one shall wash his feet
in blood of wicked men.
- 11 So men shall say, The righteous man reward shall never miss;
And verily upon the earth
a God to judge there is.

P S A L M LIX.

- 1 M Y God, deliver me from those that are mine enemies;
And do thou me defend from those that up against me rise.
- 2 Do thou deliver me from them
that work iniquity:
And give me safety from the men of bloody cruelty.
- 3 For, lo, they for my soul lay wait:
the mighty do combine Against me, Lord, not for my fault, nor any sin of mine.
- 4 They run, and, without fault in me, themselves do ready make:
Awake to meet me with thy help,
and do thou notice take.

- 5 Awake therefore, Lord God of hosts,
thou God of Israel,
To visit Heathen all: spare none that wickedly rebel.
- 6 At ev'ning they go to and fro:
they make great noise and found,
Like to a dog, and often walk
about the city round.
- 7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth,
and in their lips are swords:
For they do say thus, Who is he that now doth hear our words?
- 8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them,
and all the Heathen mock.
- 9 While he's in pow'r I'll wait on thee:
for God is my high rock.

- 10 He of my mercy that is God
betimes shall me prevent:
Upon mine en'mies God shall let me see mine heart's content.
- 11 Them slay not, lest my folk forget;
but scatter them abroad:
By thy strong pow'r; and bring them down,
O thou our shield and God.
- 12 For their mouth's sin, and for the words that from their lips do fly, Let them be taken in their pride;
because they curse and lye.
- 13 In wrath consume them, them consume, that fo they may not be:
And that in Jacob God doth rule to the earth's ends let them see.
- 14 At ev'ning let thou them return, making great noise and found,
Like to a dog, and often walk
about the city round.
- 15 And let them wander up and down
in seeking food to eat;
And let them grudge when they shall not be satisfy'd with meat.
- 16 But of thy pow'r I'll sing aloud;
at morn thy mercy praise:
For thou to me my refuge wast,
and tow'r, in troublous days.
- 17 O God, thou art my strength, I will sing praises unto thee:
For God is my defence, a God of mercy unto me.

P S A L M LX.

- 1 O Lord, thou hast rejected us,
and scatter'd us abroad:
Thou justly hast displeased been;
return to us, O God.
- 2 The earth to tremble thou hast made;
therein didst breaches make:
Do thou thereof the breaches heal,
because the land doth shake.
- 3 Unto thy people thou hard things hast shew'd, and on them sent;
And thou hast caus'd us to drink vine of abhorment.
- 4 And yet a banner thou hast giv'n to them who thee do fear;
That it by them, because of truth,
displayed may appear.
- 5 That thy beloved people may
deliver'd be from thral,
Save with the pow'r of thy right hand,
and hear me when I call.
- 6 God in his holiness hath spoke,
Herein I will take pleasure;
Sachem I will divide, as a fourth
will Succoth's valley measure;
- 7 Gilead I claim as mine by right;
Manasseh mine shall be;
Ephraim is of mine head the strength
Judah gives laws for me;

- 8 Moab's my washing-pot: my shoe
I'll over Edom throw;
And over Palestina's land
I will in triumph go.
- 9 O who is he will bring me to
the city fortify'd?
O who is he that to the land
of Edom will me guide?
- 10 O God, which hastest us cast off,
this thing wilt thou not do:
Ev'n thou, O God, which didest not forth with our armies go.
- 11 Help us from trouble; for the help is vain which man supplies.
- 12 Through God we'll do great acts; he shall tread down our enemies.

P S A L M LXI.

- 1 O God, give ear unto my cry;
unto my pray'r attend.
- 2 From th' utmost corner of the land
my cry to thee I'll send.
What time my heart is overwhelm'd,
and in perplexity,
Do thou me lead unto the Rock that higher is than I.
- 3 For thou hast for my refuge been
a shelter by thy pow'r;
And for defence against my foes thou hast been a strong tow'r.
- 4 Within thy tabernacle I
forever will abide:
And under covert of thy wings
with confidence me hide.
- 5 For thou the vows that I did make,
O Lord my God, didst hear:
Thou hast giv'n me the heritage of those thy name that fear.
- 6 A life prolong'd for many days thou to the king shalt give;
Like many generations be the years which he shall live.
- 7 He in God's presence his abode for evermore shall have:
O do thou truth and mercy both prepare, that may him save.
- 8 And so will I perpetually sing praise unto thy name;
That having made my vows, I may each day perform the same.

P S A L M LXII.

- 1 M Y soul with expectation depends on God indeed:
My strength and my salvation both from him alone proceed.
- 2 He only my salvation is,
and my strong rock is he;
He only is my sure defence;
much mov'd I shall not be.
- 3 How long will ye against a man plot mischief? ye shall all be slain; ye as a tott'ring fence shall be, and bowing fall.
- 4 They only plot to cast him down
from his excellency:
They joy in lyes, with mouth they bless,
but they curse inwardly.
- 5 My soul, wait thou with patience
upon thy God alone:
On him dependeth all my hope and expectation.
- 6 He only my salvation is,
and my strong rock is he;
He only is my sure defence:
I shall not moved be.
- 7 In God my glory placed is,
and my salvation sure:
In God the rock is of my strength,
my refuge most secure.

6 Ye people, place your confidence in him continually;
Before him pour ye out your heart:
God is our refuge high.
9 Surely men are vanity,
and great men are a lye.
In balance laid, they wholly are more light than vanity:
10 Trust ye not in oppression,
in robbery be not vain;
On wealth set not your hearts, when as increas'd is your gain.

11 God hath it spoken once to me,
yea, this I heard again,
That power to almighty God alone cometh appertain.
12 Yea, mercy also unto thee belongs, O Lord, alone:
For thou according to thy work reward'st ev'ry one.

P S A L M LXIII.

1 Lord, thee my God, I li early seek:
my soul doth thirst for thee,
My flesh longs in a dry parch'd land wherein no waters be:
2 That'd thy power may behold,
and brightness of thy face,
As I have seen thee heretofore within thy holy place.
3 Since better is thy love than life,
my lips thee praise shall give.
4 I in thy name will lift my hands,
and bless thee while I live.
5 Ev'n as with marrow and with fat
my soul shall filled be:
Then shall my mouth with joyful lips
sing praises unto thee:
6 When I do thee upon my bed
remember with delight,
And when on thee I meditate in watches of the night.
7 In shadow of thy wings I'll joy;
for thou mine help hast been.
8 My soul thee follows hard; and me thy right hand doth sustain.
9 Who seek my soul to spill shall sink down to earth's lowest room.
10 They by the sword shall be cut off, and foxes' prey become.
11 Yet shall the king in God rejoice, and each one glory shall That swear by him: but slopp'd shall be the mouth of liars all.

P S A L M LXIV.

1 When I to thee my prayer make,
Lord, to my voice give ear;
My life save from the enemy,
of whom I stand in fear.
2 Me from their secret counsel hide,
who do live wickedly;
From insurrection of those men
that work iniquity:
3 Who do their tongues with malice whet,
and make them cut like swords;
In whose bent bows are arrows set,
ev'n sharp and bitter words:
4 That they may at the perfect man
in secret aim their shot; Yea, suddenly they dare at him
to shoot, and fear it not.
5 In ill encourage they themselves, and their smokes close do lay:
Together conference they have;
Who shall them see? they cry.
6 They have search'd out iniquities, a perfect search they keep:
Of each of them the inward thought,
and very heart, is deep.

7 God shall an arrow shoot at them,
and wound them suddenly:
8 So their own tongue shall them confound;
all who them see shall fly.
9 And on all men a fear shall fall,
God's works they shall declare:
For they shall wisely notice take what these his doings are.
10 In God the righteous shall rejoice, and trust upon his might:
Yea, they shall greatly glory all in heart that are upright.

P S A L M LXV.

1 Praise waits for thee in Sion, Lord:
to thee vows paid shall be.
2 O thou that hearer art of pray'r,
all flesh shall come to thee.
3 Iniquities, I must confess, prevail against me do:
But as for our transgressions,
them purge away shalt thou.
4 Bless'd is the man whom thou dost choose,
and mak'st approach to thee,
That he within thy courts, O Lord,
may still a dweller be:
We surely shall be satisfi'd with thy abundant grace,
And with the goodness of thy house,
ev'n of thy holy place.
5 O God of our salvation,
thou, in thy righteousness,
By fearful works unto our pray'r thin answer dost express:
Therefore the ends of all the earth, and those afar that be Upon the sea, their confidence,
O Lord, will place in thee.
6 Who, being girt with pow'r, sets fast
by his great strength the hills.
7 Who noise of seas, noise of their waves,
and people's tumult, stills.
8 Those in the utmost parts that dwell are at thy signs afraid:
Th' outgoings of the morn and ev'n
by thee are joyful made.
9 The earth thou visit'st, watering it;
thou mak'st it rich to grow
With God's full flood; thou corn pre-when thou provid'st it fo, (par't, 10 Her ridg's thou wast'rest plenteously,
her furrows fettest:
With show'rs thou dost her mollify,
her spring by thee is blest.
11 So thou the year most lib'rally
dost with thy goodness crown;
And all thy paths abundantly on us drop fatness down.
12 They drop upon the pastures wide,
that do in deserts lie:
The little hills on ev'ry side rejoice right pleasantly.
13 With flocks the pastures clothed be,
the vales with corn are clad;
And now they shout and sing to thee,
for thou hast made them glad.

P S A L M LXVI.

1 All lands to God, in joyful sounds, aloft your voices raise.
2 Sing forth the honour of his name,
and glorious make his praise.
3 Say unto God, How terrible in all thy works art thou!
Through thy great pow'r thy foes to thee shall be constrain'd to bow.
4 All on the earth shall worship thee, they shall thy praise proclaim In songs: they shall sing cheerfully unto thy holy name.

5 Come, and the works that God hath with admiration see: (wrought In's working to the sons of men most terrible is he.
6 Into dry land the sea he turn'd, and they a passage had:
Ev'n marching through the flood on foot,
there we in him were glad.
7 He ruleth ever by his pow'r;
his eyes the nations see:
O let not the rebellious ones lift up themselves on high.
8 Ye people, bless our God; aloud
the voice speak of his praise;
9 Our soul in life who safe preserves,
our foot from sliding stays.
10 For thou did'st prove and try us, Lord,
as men do silver try;
11 Brought'st us into the net, and mad'st bands on our loins to lie.
12 Thou hast caus'd men ride o'er our heads:
and though that we did pass
Thro' fire and water, yet thou brought'st us to a wealthy place.
13 I'll bring burnt-off'rings to thy house;
to thee my vows I'll pay, 14 Which my lips utter'd, my mouth spake,
when trouble on me lay.
15 Burnt-sacrifices of fat rams with incense I will bring;
Of bullocks and of goats I will present an off-ring.
16 All that fear God, come, hear, I'll tell what he did for my soul.
17 I with my mouth unto him cry'd,
my tongue did him extol.
18 If in my heart I sin regard,
the Lord me will not hear:
19 But surely God me heard, and to my prayer's voice gave ear.
20 O let the Lord, our gracious God, for ever blessed be,
Who turned not my pray'r from him,
nor yet his grace from me.

P S A L M LXVII.

1 Lord, bless and pity us,
shine on us with thy face:
2 That th' earth thy way, and nations all may know thy saving grace.
3 Let people praise thee, Lord,
let people all thee praise.
4 O let the nations be glad,
in songs their voices raise:
Thou't justly people judge,
on earth rule nations all.
5 Let people praise thee, Lord; let them praise thee, both great and small.
6 The earth her fruit shall yield, our God shall blessing send.
7 God shall us bless; men shall him fear,
unto earth's utmost end.

Another of the same.

1 Lord, unto us be merciful,
do thou us also bless:
And graciously cause shine on us
the brightness of thy face:
2 That so thy way upon the earth to all men may be known,
Also among the nations all,
thy saving health be shewn.
3 O let the people praise thee, Lord;
let people all thee praise.
4 O let the nations be glad,
and sing for joy always:
For rightly thou shalt people judge,
and nations rule on earth.
5 Let people praise thee, Lord; let all the folk praise thee with mirth.

6 Then shall the earth yield her-increase,
God, our God, bless us shall.
7 God shall us bless; and of the earth
the ends shall fear him all.

P S A L M LXXVIII.

1 Let God arise, and scatter'd let all his en'mies be;
And let all those that do him hate before his presence flee.
2 As smoke is driv'n, so drive thou them;
as fire melts wax away,
Before God's face let wicked men
so perish and decay.

3 But let the righteous be glad,
let them before God's sight
Be very joyful; yea, let them rejoice with all their might.
4 To God sing, to his name sing praise:
extol him with your voice,
That rides on heav'n, by his name JAH, before his face rejoice.

5 Because the Lord a father is unto the fatherless;
God is the widow's judge within his place of holiness.
6 God doth the solitary set in families: and from bands
The chain'd doth free; but rebels do inhabit parched lands.

7 O God, what time thou didst go forth before thy people's face;
And when through the great wilderness thy glorious marching was;
8 Then at God's presence shook the earth,
then drops from heaven fell;
This Sinai shook before the Lord,
the God of Israel.

9 O God, thou to thine heritage
didst send a plenteous rain, Whereby thou, when it weary was,
didst it refresh again.
10 Thy congregation then did make their habitation there:
Of thine own goodness for the poor,
O God, thou didst prepare.

11 The Lord himself did give the word,
the word abroad did spread;
Great was the company of them
the same who published.
12 Kings of great armies foiled were,
and forc'd to flee away;
And women, who remain'd at home,
did distribute the prey.

13 Though ye have lain among the pots,
like doves ye shall appear,
Whose wings with silver, and with gold whose feathers cover'd are.
14 When there sh' Almighty scatter'd kings, like Salmon's snow 'twas white.
15 God's hill is like to Bashan hill, like Bashan hill for height.

16 Why do ye leap, ye mountains high?
this is the hill where God Desires to dwell; yea, God in it for ay will make abode.
17 God's chariots twenty thousand are,
thousands of angels strong;
In his holy place God is, as in mount Sinai them among.

18 Thou hast, O Lord, most glorious ascended up on high;
And in triumph victorious led captive captivity:
Thou hast received gifts for men
for such as did rebel; Yea, ev'n for them, that God the Lord in midst of them might dwell.

19 Bless'd be the Lord, who is to us of our salvation God;
Who daily with his benefits us plentifully doth load.
20 He of salvation is the God, who is our God most strong;
And unto God the Lord from death
the illuses do belong.

21 But surely God shall wound the head of those that are his foes;
The hairy scalp of him that fill on in his trespass goes.
22 God said, My people I will bring again from Babylon hill;
Yea, from the sea's devouring deeps them bring again I will,

23 That in the blood of enemies thy foot imbruid may be,
And of thy dogs dipp'd in the same the tongues thou mayest see.
24 Thy goings they have seen, O God;
the steps of majesty
Of my God, and my mighty King, within the sanctuary.

25 Before went fingers, players next on instruments took way;
And them among the damiels were that did on timbrels play.
26 Within the congregations
bless'd God with one accord:
From Israel's fountain do ye bless and praise the mighty Lord.

27 With their prince, little Benjamin, princes and council there
Of Judah were, there Zabulon's and Naphtali's princes were. (strong 28 Thy God commands thy strength; make what thou wrought'st for us, Lord.
29 For thy house at Jerusalem kings hath thee gifts afford.

30 The spearman's host, the multitude of bulls, which fiercely look,
Those calves which people have forth sent,
O Lord our God, rebuke,
Till ev'ry one submit himself,
and silver pieces bring:
The people that delight in war disperse, O God and King.

31 Those that be princes great shall then come out of Egypt lands:
And Ethiopia to God
shall soon stretch out her hands.
32 O all ye kingdoms of the earth,
sing praises to this King;
For he is Lord that ruleth all,
unto him praises sing.

33 To him that rides on heav'ns of heav'ns, which he of old did found;
Lo, he sends out his voice, a voice in might that doth abound.
34 Strength unto God do ye ascribe;
for his excellency
Is over Israel, his strength is in the clouds most high.

35 Thou'rt from thy temple dreadful, Lord, Israel's own God is he,
Who gives his people strength and pow'r:
O let God blessed be.

P S A L M LXIX.

1 Save me, O God, because the floods
do so environ me,
That ev'n unto my very soul
come in the waters be.
2 I downward in deep mire do sink,
where standing there is none:
I am into deep waters come,
where floods have o'er me gone.

3 I weary with my crying, my my throat is also dry'd;
Mine eyes do fail, while for my God
I waiting do abide.
4 Those men that do without a cause bear hatred unto me,
Than are the hairs upon my head
in number more they be:

They that would me destroy, and are mine en'mies wrongfully,
Are mighty: so, what I took not to render forc'd was I.
5 Lord, thou my folly know'st, my sins not cover'd are from thee.
6 Let none that wait on thee be sham'd,
Lord God of hosts, for me.

O Lord, the God of Israel, let none who search do make,
And seek thee, be at any time confounded for my sake.
7 For I have borne reproach for thee,
my face is hid with shame.
8 To brethren strange, to mother's sons an alien I became.

9 Because the zeal did eat me up which to thine house I bear;
And the reproaches cast at thee upon me fallen are.
10 My tears and fasts t' affl'ct my soul were turned to my shame.
11 When sackcloth I did wear, to them a proverb I became.

12 The men that in the gate do sit against me evil spoke;
They also that vile drunkards were,
of me their song did make.
13 But in an acceptable time,
my pray'r, Lord, is to thee:
In truth of thy salvation, Lord,
and mercy grant, hear me.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, from sinking do me keep;
Free me from those that do me hate,
and from the waters deep.
15 Let not the flood on me prevail,
whose water overflows;
Nor deep me swallow, nor the pit
her mouth upon me clofe.

16 Hear me, O Lord, because thy love and kindness is most good; Turn unto me, according to thy mercies multitude;
17 Nor from thy servant hide thy face:
I'm troubled, foot attend.
18 Draw near my soul, and it redeem;
me from my foes defend.

19 To thee is my reproach well known,
my shame, and my disgrace:
Those that mine adversities be are all before thy face.
20 Reproach hath broke my heart; I'm full of grief: I look'd for one To pity me, but none I found;
comforters found I none.

21 They also bitter gall did give unto me for my meat:
They gave me vinegar to drink,
when as my thirst was great.
22 Before them let their table prove a snare; and do thou make:
Their welfare and prosperity
a trap themselves to take.

23 Let thou their eyes so darken'd be,
that sight may them forsake;
And let their loins be made by thee continually to shake.

24 Thy fury pour thou out on them,
and indignation:
And let thy wrathful anger, Lord,
fall hot take them upon.

25 All waste and desolate let be their habitation:
And in their tabernacles all inhabitants be none.

26 Because him they do persecute whom thou didst smite before;
They talk unto the grief of those whom thou hast wounded sore.

27 Add thou iniquity unto their former wickedness;
And do not let them come at all into thy righteousness.

28 Out of the book of life let them be raz'd and blotted quite;
Among the just and righteous
let not their names be writ.

29 But now become exceeding poor and sorrowful am I:
By thy salvation, O my God,
let me be seen on high.

30 The name of God I with a song
most cheerfully will praise;
And I, in giving thanks to him,
his name shall highly raise.

31 This to the Lord a sacrifice more gracious shall prove,
Than bullock, ox, or any beast that hath both horn and hoof.

32 When this the humble men shall see,
it joy to them shall give:
O all ye that do seek the Lord,
ye hearts shall ever live.

33 For God the poor hears, and will not his prisoners condemn.

34 Let heav'n, and earth, and seas, him praise,
and all that move in them.

35 For God will Judah's cities build,
and he will Sion save;
That they may dwell therein, and it
in sure possession have.

36 And they that are his servants' feed inherit shall the same;
So shall they have their dwelling there that love his blessed name.

P S A L M LXX.

1 Lord, haste me to deliver;
with speed, Lord, succour me.

2 Let them that for my soul do seek
sham'd and confounded be:
Turn'd back be they, and sham'd,
that in my hurt delight.

3 Turn'd back be they, Ha, ha! that say,
their flaming to requite.

4 In thee let all be glad,
and joy that seek for thee:
Let them who thy salvation love
say still, God praised be.

5 I poor and needy am;
come, Lord, and make no stay:
My help thou and deliver art,
O Lord, make no delay.

Another of the same.

1 Make haste, O God, me to preserve;
with speed, Lord, succour me.

2 Let them that for my soul do seek
sham'd and confounded be:
Let them be turned back, and sham'd,
that in my hurt delight.

3 Turn'd back be they, Ha, ha! that say,
their flaming to requite.

4 O Lord, in thee let all be glad,
and joy that seek for thee:
Let them who thy salvation love
say still, God praised be.

5 But I both poor and needy am;
come, Lord, and make no stay:
My help thou and deliver art,
O Lord, make no delay.

P S A L M LXXI.

1 O Lord, my hope and confidence is plac'd in thee alone;
Then let thy servant never be put to confusion.

2 And let me, in thy righteousness, from thee deliverance have:
Cause me escape, incline thine ear unto me, and me save.

3 Be thou my dwelling-rock, to which I ever may resort:
Thou gav'st commandment me to save,
for thou'rt my rock and fort.

4 Free me, my God, from wicked hands,
hands cruel and unjust:

5 For thou, O Lord God, art my hope,
and from my youth my trust.

6 Thou from the womb didst hold me up:
thou art the same that me
Out of my mother's bowels took;
I ever will praise thee.

7 To many I a wonder am;
but thou'rt my refuge strong.

8 Fill'd let my mouth be with thy praise and honour all day long.

9 O do not cast me off, when as old age doth overtake me;
And when my strength decayed is,
then do not thou forsake me.

10 For those that are mine enemies against me speak with hate;
And they together counsel take that for my soul lay wait.

11 They said, God leaves him; him pursue and take: none will him save.

12 Be thou not far from me, my God:
thy speedily help I crave.

13 Confound, consume them, that unto my soul are enemies;
Cloth'd be they with reproach and shame that do my hurt devise.

14 But I with expectation will hope continually;
And yet with praises more and more
I will thee magnify.

15 Thy justice and salvation
my mouth ahead shall show, Ev'n all the day: for I thereof
the numbers do not know.

16 And I will constantly go on in strength of God the Lord;
And thine own righteousness, ev'n thine alone, I will record.

17 For even from my youth, O God,
by thee I have been taught;
And hitherto I have declar'd
the wonders thou hast wrought.

18 And now, Lord, leave me not, when I old and gray-headed grow:
Till to this age thy strength and pow'r to all to come I show.

19 And thy most perfect righteousness,
O Lord, is very high,
Who hast so great things done: O God,
who is like unto thee?

20 Thou, Lord, who great adversities, and sore, to me didst show, Shalt quicken, and bring me again from depths of earth below.

21 My greatness and my pow'r thou wilt increase, and far extend:
O ever rise against all grief thou wilt me comfort send.

22 Thee, ev'n thy truth, I'll also praise,
my God, with psaltery:
Thou holy One of Israel,
with harp I'll sing to thee.

23 My lips shall much rejoice in thee,
when I thy praises found:
My soul, which thou redeemed hast,
in joy shall much abound.

24 My tongue thy justice shall proclaim, continuing all day long:
For they confounded are, and sham'd, that seek to do me wrong.

P S A L M LXXII.

1 O Lord, thy judgments give the king, his son thy righteousness.

2 With right he shall thy people judge, thy poor with uprightness.

3 The lofty mountains shall bring forth unto the people peace;
Likewise the little hills the same shall do by righteousness.

4 The people's poor ones he shall judge,
the needy's children save;
And those shall be in pieces break who them oppress'd have.

5 They shall thee fear, while sun and moon do last, through ages all.

6 Like rain on mown grass he shall drop,
or snow's on earth that fall.

7 The just shall flourish in his days,
and prosper in his reign:
He shall, while doth the moon endure, abundant peace maintain.

8 His large and great dominion shall from sea to sea extend:
It from the river shall reach forth
unto earth's utmost end.

9 They in the wilderness that dwell bow down before him most;
And they that are his enemies shall lick the very dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish, and the isles, to him shall presents bring;
And unto him shall offer gifts
Sheba's and Saba's king.

11 Yea, all the mighty kings on earth before him nation shall fall;
And all the nations of the world do service to him shall.

12 For he the needy shall preserve,
when he to him doth call;
The poor also, and him that hath no help of man at all.

13 The poor man and the indigent
in mercy he shall spare;
He shall preserve alive the souls of those that needy are.

14 Both from deceit and violence their soul he shall set free;
And in his sight right precious and dear their blood shall be.

15 Yea, he shall live, and giv'n to him shall be of Sheba's gold:
For him shall thine they pray, and he shall daily be extol'd.

16 Of corn an handful in the earth on tops of mountains high,
With precious fruit shall make, like trees on Lebanon that be.

The city shall be flourishing,
her citizens abound
In number shall, like to the grass that grows upon the ground.

17 His name for ever shall endure;
last like the sun it shall:
Men shall be bless'd in him, and bless'd all nations shall him call.

18 Now blessed be the Lord our God,
the God of Israel,
For he alone doth wondrous works,
in glory that excel.

19 And blessed be his glorious name
to all eternity:
The whole earth let his glory fill.
Amen, so let it be.

P S A L M LXXIII.

1 Yet God is good to Israel, to each pure-hearted one.
2 But as for me, my steps near slipp'd,
my feet were almost gone.
3 For I envious was, and grudg'd the foolish folk to see,
When I perceiv'd the wicked sort enjoy prosperity.

4 For still their strength continueth firm, their death of bands is free.

5 They are not toil'd as other men, nor plagu'd as others be.

6 Therefore their pride, like to a chain, them compasseth about;
And, as a garment, violence
doth cover them throughout.

7 Their eyes stand out with fat, they have more than their hearts could with.

8 They are corrupt; their talk of wrong both lewd and lofty is.

9 They set their mouth against the heav'n in their blasphemous talk;
And their reproaching tongue throughout the earth at large doth walk.

10 His people oftentimes for this look back and turn about;
Sith waters of so full a cup to these are poured out.

11 And thus they say, How can it be that God these things doth know?
Or, Can there in the Highest be knowledge of things below?

12 Behold, these are the wicked ones, yet prosper at their will
In worldly things; they do increase in wealth and riches still.

13 I verily have done in vain
my heart to purify;
To no effect in innocence washed my hands have I.

14 For daily, and all day throughout, great plagues I suffer'd have;
Yea, ev'ry morning I of new dild chastisement receive.

15 If in this manner foolishly to speak I would intend,
Thy children's generation,
behold, I should offend.

16 When I this thought to know, it was too hard a thing for me:

17 Till to God's sanctuary I went,
then I their end did see.

18 Assuredly thou didst them fet a slipp'ry place upon;
Them suddenly thou castedst down into destruction.

19 How in a moment suddenly to ruin brought are they!
With fearful terrors utterly they are confum'd away.

20 Ev'n like unto a dream, when one from sleeping doth arise;
So thou, O Lord, when thou awak'st, their image shalt despise.

21 Thus grieved was my heart in me,
and me my reins oppress.

22 So rude was I, and ignorant, and in thy sight a beast.

23 Nevertheless, continually,
O Lord, I am with thee:
Thou dost me hold by my right hand,
and still upholdest me.

24 Thou with thy counsel, while I live, wilt me conduct and guide;
And to thy glory afterward receive me to abide.

25 Whom have I in the heavens high but thee, O Lord, alone?
And in the earth whom I desire besides thee there is none.

26 My flesh and heart doth faint and fail,
but God doth fail me never:
For of my heart God is the strength and portion for ever.

27 For, lo, they that are far from thee for ever perish shall:
Them that a whoring from thee go thou hast destroyed all.

28 But surely it is good for me that I draw near to God:
In God I trust, that all thy works
I may declare abroad.

P S A L M LXXIV.

1 O God, why hast thou cast us off?
is it for evermore?

Against thy pasture-sheep why doth thine anger smoke so sore?

2 O call to thy remembrance thy congregation,
Which thou hast purchased of old;
still think the same upon:

The rod of thine inheritance,
which thou redeemedst halt,
This Sion hill, wherein thou hast thy dwelling in times past.

3 To these long desolations thy feet lift, do not tarry;
For all the ill thy foes have done within thy sanctuary.

4 Amidst thy congregations thine enemies do roar:
Their ensigns they set up for signs of triumph thee before.

5 A man was famous, and was had in estimation,
According as he lifted up his axe thick trees upon.

6 But all at once with axes now and hammers they go to,
And down the carved work thereof
they break, and quite undo.

7 They fired have thy sanctuary,
and have desil'd the same,
By casting down unto the ground
the place where dwelt thy name.

8 Thus said they in their hearts, Let us destroy them out of hand:
They burnt up all the synagogues of God within the land.

9 Our signs we do not now behold;
there is not us among A prophet more, nor any one that knows the time how long.

10 How long, Lord, shall the enemy
thus in reproach exclaim?
And shall the adversary thus always blaspheme thy name?

11 Thy hand, ev'n thy right hand of might,
why dost thou thus draw back?
O from thy bosom pluck it out for our deliverance sake.

12 For certainly God is my king,
ev'n from the times of old,
Working in midst of all the earth
salvation manifold.

13 The sea, by thy great pow'r, to part asunder thou didst make;
And thou the dragons' heads, O Lord,
within the waters brake.

14 The leviathan's head thou brak'st in pieces, and didst give Him to be meat unto the folk in wilderness that live.

15 Thou clav'st the fountain and the flood,
which did with fireams abound:
Thou dry'dst the mighty waters up unto the very ground.

16 Thine only is the day, O Lord, thine also is the night;
And thou alone preparedst
the sun and shining light.

17 By thee the borders of the earth were settled ev'ry where:
The summer and the winter both by thee created were.

18 That th' enemy reproach'd hath,
O keep it in record;
And that the foolish people have blasphem'd thy name, O Lord.

19 Unto the multitude do not thy turtle's soul deliver:
The congregation of thy poor
do not forget for ever.

20 Unto thy covenant have respect; for earth's dark places be Full of the habitations of horrid cruelty.

21 O let not those that be oppress'd return again with shame:
Let those that poor and needy are give praise unto thy name.

22 Do thou, O God, arise and plead the cause that is thine own:
Remember how thou art reproach'd still by the foolish one.

23 Do not forget the voice of those that are thine enemies;
Of those the tumult ever grows that do against thee rise.

P S A L M LXXV.

1 To thee, O God, do we give thanks,
we do give thanks to thee;
Because thy wondrous works declare thy great name near to be.

2 I purpose, when I shall receive the congregation,
That I shall judgment uprightly render to ev'ry one.

3 Dissolved is the land, with all that in the same do dwell;
But I the pillars thereof do bear up, and stablish well.

4 I to the foolish people said,
Do not deal foolishly;
And unto those that wicked are,
Lift not your horn on high:

5 Lift not your horn on high, nor speak with stubborn neck. But know, That not from east, nor west, nor south, promotion doth flow.

7 But God is judge; he puts down one,
and sets another up.
8 For in the hand of God most high of red wine is a cup:

'Tis full of mixture, he pours forth, and makes the wicked all Wring out the bitter dregs thereof;
yea, and they drink them all.

9 But I for ever will declare,
I Jacob's God will praise.
10 All horns of lewd men I'll cut off;
but just men's horns will raise.

PSALM LXXVI.

- 1 IN Judah's land God is well known,
His name's in Israel great;
- 2 In Sion is his tabernacle,
in Sion is his seat.
- 3 There arrows of the bow he broke,
the flight, the sword, the war;
- 4 More glorious than hills of prey, more excellent his far.
- 5 Troops that were stout of heart are spoil'd,
they flie: their deep outright;
- 6 And none of those their hands did find that were the men of might.
- 7 When thy rebuke, O Jeo's God, had forth against them past,
Their horses and their chariots both were in a dead sleep cast.
- 8 Thou, Lord, ev'n thou art he that should be fear'd; and who is he
That may stand up before thy fight, if once thou angry be?
- 9 From heav'n thou judgment caus'dst be the earth was still with fear; (heard);
- 10 When God to judgment rose, to save all meek on earth that were.
- 11 Surely the very wrath of man unto thy praise redeems:
Thou to the remnant of his wrath wilt set restraining bounds.
- 12 Vow to the Lord your God, and pay:
all ye that near him be,
Bring gifts and presents unto him;
for to be fear'd is he.
- 13 By him the spirits dead be cut off of those that princes are:
Unto the kings that are on earth
no fearful oath appear.

PSALM LXXVII.

- 1 UNTO the Lord I with my voice,
I unto God did cry;
Even with my voice, and unto me
his ear he did apply.
- 2 I in my ravine sought the Lord,
my foot by night did run,
And cease not: my griev'd soul did consolation find.
- 3 I to remembrance God did call,
yet trouble did remain;
And overwhelm'd my spirit was,
 whilst I did sore complain.
- 4 Mine eyes did search'd for a rest and sleep,
thou wakedst till to wake:
My trouble is so great, that I was unable to speak.
- 5 The day of grief to mind I call'd, and oft did think upon
Time when an ages that are past full many years ago.
- 6 By night my song I call to mind,
and commune with my heart;
My spirit did ear fully enquire what I might say my heart.
- 7 For ever will the Lord be off,
and graunt us no more;
- 8 For ever is his mercy gone?
faile his word evermore?
- 9 I thought, that to be generous the Lord had forgotten him;
And that he would remember less that up in his wrath.
- 10 Then did I say, That surely this is mine iniquity:
I have seen the years of the right hand
of him that is most high.
- 11 For I remember all his works that thou hast done for me:
Thou wast the one of old by thee
I surely was recover'd.

PSALMS LXXVI, LXXVII, LXXVIII.

- 12 I also will of all thy works
my meditation make:
And of thy doings to discourse great pleasure I will take.
- 13 O God, thy way most holy is
within thy sanctuary;
And what god is so great in pow'r
as is our God most high?
- 14 Thou art the God that wonders do'st
by thy right hand most strong;
Thy mighty pow'r thou hast declar'd the nations among.
- 15 To thine own people with thine arm
thou didst redemption bring;
To Jacob's sons, and to the tribes of Joseph that do spring.
- 16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee,
the waters saw thee well;
And they for fear aside did flee;
the depths on trembling fell:
- 17 The clouds in water form were pour'd,
found loudly did the sky;
And swiftly through the world abroad thine arrows fierce did fly.
- 18 Thy thunder's voice along the heav'n
a mighty noise did make:
By lightnings lighten'd was the world;
th' earth tremble did and shake.
- 19 Thy way is in the sea, and in the waters great thy path:
Yet are thy footsteps hid, O Lord;
none knowledge thereof hath.
- 20 Thy people thou didst safely lead,
like to a flock of sheep;
By Moses' hand and Aaron's thou didst them conduct and keep.

PSALM LXXVIII.

- 1 ATTEND, my people, to my law;
I thee to give thou an ear;
The words that from my mouth proceed attentively do hear.
- 2 My mouth shall speak a parable,
and sayings dark of old;
- 3 The flame which we have heard and known,
and us our fathers told.
- 4 We also will them not conceal from their posterity;
Them to the generation
to come declare will we:
The praises of the Lord our God,
and his almighty strength,
The wondrous works that he hath done,
we will shew forth at length.
- 5 His testimony and his law
in Israel he did place,
And charg'd our fathers it to shew
to their succeeding race;
- 6 That so the race which was to come might well them learn and know;
And sons unborn, who should arise,
might to their sons them shew.
- 7 That they might set their hope in God,
and suffer not to fall
His mighty works out of their mind, but keep his precepts all.
- 8 And might not, like their fathers, be a stiff rebellious race;
A race not right in heart; with God whose spirit not steadfast was.
- 9 The sons of Ephraim, who nor bows
nor other arms did lack,
When as the day of battle was,
they faintly turned back.
- 10 They brake God's covenant, and refused in his command to go;
- 11 His works and wonders they forgot,
which he to them did shew.

- 12 Things marvellous he brought to pass,
their fathers them beheld,
Within the land of Egypt done,
yea, ev'n in Zoan's field.
- 13 By him divid'd was the sea,
he caus'd them through to pass;
And made the waters to stand,
as like an heap it was.
- 14 With cloud by day, with light of fire
all night, he did them guide.
- 15 In desert rocks he clave, and drink,
as from great depths, supply'd.
- 16 He from the rock brought streams like made waters to run down. (Hoods),
- 17 Yet thirsting more, in desert they provok'd the highest One.
- 18 For in their heart they tempted God,
and, speaking with mistrust,
They greedily did meat require to satisfy their lust.
- 19 Against the Lord himself they spake, and, murmuring, said thus,
A table in the wilderness can God prepare for us?
- 20 Behold, he smote the rock, and thence came streams and waters great;
But can he give his people bread?
and send them flesh to eat?
- 21 The Lord did hear, and waxed wroth;
so kindled was a flame Against Jacob, and against Israel up indignation came.
- 22 For they believ'd not God, nor trust in his salvation had;
- 23 Though clouds above he did command, and heav'n's doors open made,
- 24 And manna rain'd on them, and gave them corn of heav'n to eat.
- 25 Man angels' food did eat; to them
he to the full sent meat.
- 26 And in the heaven he did cause an eastern wind to blow;
And by his power he let out
the southern wind to go.
- 27 Then flesh as thick as cust he made to rain down them among;
And feather'd fowls, like as the sand which lyeth there along.
- 28 At his command amidst their camp those flow'rs of flesh down fell,
All round about the tabernacles and tents where they did dwell.
- 29 So did they eat abundantly, and had of meat their fill;
For he did give to them what was their own desire and will.
- 30 They from their lust had not estrang'd their heart and their desire;
But while the meat was in their mouths,
which they did so require,
- 31 God's wrath upon them came, and flew
the fastest of them all;
So that the choice of Israel, o'erthrown by death, did fall.
- 32 Yet, notwithstanding of all this,
they sinned still the more:
And tho' he had great wonders wrought, believ'd him not therefore.
- 33 Wherefore their days in vanity
he did consume and waste;
And by his wrath their wretched years away in trouble past.
- 34 But when he saw them, then they did to seek him shew desire; Yea, they return'd, and after God right early did enquire.

35 And that the Lord had been their Rock
they did remember then ;
Ev'n that the high almighty God had their Redeemer been.

36 Yet with their mouth they flatter'd him,
and spake but feignedly ;
And they unto the God of truth with their false tongues did lye.

37 For though their words were good, their with him was not sincere : (heart Unflaid and perfidious
they in his cov'nant were.

38 But, full of pity, he forgave their sin, them did not slay ; Nor stir'd up all his wrath, but oft his anger turn'd away.

39 For that they were but fading flesh to mind he did recall ;
A wind that passeth soon away,
and not returns at all.

40 How often did they him provoke within the wilderness !
And in the desert did him grieve with their rebellion !

41 Yea, turning back, they tempted God, and limits set upon Him, who in midst of Is'ra'el is the only holy One.

42 They did not call to mind his pow'r, nor yet the day when he Deliver'd them out of the hand of their fierce enemy :

43 Nor how great signs in Egypt land
he openly had wrought ;
What miracles in Zoan's field his hand to pass had brought.

44 How lakes and rivers ev'ry where he turned into blood ;
So that no man nor beast could drink of standing lake or flood.

45 He brought among them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy ;
And diverse kinds of filthy frogs he sent them to destroy.

46 He to the caterpillar gave the fruits of all their soil :
Their labours he deliver'd up unto the locusts' spoil.

47 Their vines with hail, their sycamores
he with the frost did blast.

48 Their beasts to hail he gave, their flocks hot thunderbolts did waste.

49 Fierce burning wrath he on them cast,
and indignation strong,
And troubles sore, by sending forth ill angels them among.

50 He to his wrath made way ; their soul from death he did not save ;
But over to the pestilence
the lives of them he gave.

51 In Egypt land the first-born all he smote down ev'ry where ;
Among the tents of Ham, ev'n these chief of their strength that were.

52 But his own people, like to sheep, thence to go forth he made ;
And he, amidst the wilderness,
them, as a flock, did lead.

53 And he them safely on did lead,
so that they did not fear :
Whereas their enemies by the sea quite overwhelm'd were.

54 To borders of his sanctuary
the Lord his people led, Ev'n to the mount which his right hand
for them had purchas'd.

55 The nations of Canaan,
by his almighty hand,
Before their face he did expel out of their native land ;
Which for inheritance to them
by line he did divide,
And made the tribes of Is'ra'el within their tents abide.

56 Yet God most high they did provoke, and tempted ever still ;
And to observe his testimonies did not incline their will.

57 But, like their fathers, turned back,
and dealt unfaithfully :
Aside they turned, like a bow that shoots deceitfully.

58 For they to anger did provoke him with their places high ;
And with their graven images
mov'd him to jealousy.

59 When God heard this, he waxed wroth, and much loath'd Is'ra'el then :

60 So Shiloh's tent he left, the tent which he had plac'd with men.

61 And he his strength deliver'd into captivity ;
He left his glory in the hand of his proud enemy.

62 His people also he gave o'er unto the sword's fierce rage :
So for his wrath inflam'd was against his heritage.

63 The fire consum'd their choice young men :
their maids no marriage had.

64 And when their priests fill'd by the sword, their wives no mourning made.

65 But then the Lord arose, as one that doth from sleep awake ;
And like a giant that, by wine refresh'd, a shout doth make :

66 Upon his enemies' hinder parts
he made his stroke to fall ;
And so upon them he did put a flame perpetual.

67 Moreover, he the tabernacle of Joseph did refuse ;
The mighty tribe of Ephraim
he would in no wise choose :

68 But he did choose Jehudah's tribe to be the rest above ;
And of mount Sion he made choice,
which he so much did love.

69 And he his sanctuary built like to a palace high,
Like to the earth which he did found to perpetuity.

70 Of David, that his servant was,
he also choice did make,
And even from the folds of sheep was pleas'd him to take :

71 From waiting on the ewes with young he brought him forth to feed Is'ra'el, his inheritance, his people, Jacob's seed.

72 So after the integrity
he of his heart them fed ;
And by the good skill of his hands them wisely governed.

P S A L M LXXIX.

1 O God, the Heathen enter'd have thyne heritage : by them Desil'd is thy house : on heaps they laid Jerusalem.

2 The bodies of thy servants they have cast forth to be meat
To ravenous fowls : thy dear saints' flesh they gave to beasts to eat.

3 Their blood about Jerusalem like water they have shed ;
And there was none to bury them when they were slain and dead.

4 Unto our neighbours a reproach most base be come are we ;
A scorn and laughing-stock to them that round about us be.

5 How long, Lord, shall thine anger last ?
wilt thou still keep the same ?
And shall thy fervent jealousy burn like unto a flame ?

6 On Heathen pour thy fury forth, that have thee never known,
And on these kingdoms which thy name have never call'd upon.

7 For these are they who Jacob have devoured cruelly ;
And they his habitation
have caused waste to lie.

8 Against us mind not former sins ;
thy tender mercies thou ;
Let them prevent us specially,
for we're brought very low.

9 For thy name's glory help us, Lord, who hast our Saviour been ;
Deliver us ; for thy name's sake,
O purge away our sin.

10 Why say the Heathen, Where's their God ?
let him to them be known ;
When those who shed thy servants' blood are in our sight o'erthrown.

11 O let the prisoners' sighs ascend before thy sight on high ; Preserve those in thy mighty pow'r that are design'd to die.

12 And to our neighbours' bosom cause it seven-fold render'd be ;
Even the reproach which with they have,
O Lord, reproach'd thee.

13 So we thy folk, and pasture sheep, shall give thee thanks always :
And unto generations all we will shew forth thy praise.

P S A L M LXXX.

1 Hear, Is'ra'el's Shepherd ! like a flock thou that dost Joseph guide :
Shine forth, O thou that dost between the cherubims abide.

2 In Ephraim's, and Benjamin's, and in Manasse's sight,
O come for our salvation ;
flour up thy strength and might.

3 Turn us again, O Lord our God,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

4 O Lord of hosts, almighty God,
how long shall I be vex'd Thy wrath gain'd ! the prayer made by thine own folk to thee ?

5 Thou tears of sorrow giv'st it to them
instead of bread to eat ;
Yea, tears instead of drink thou giv'st to them in measure great.

6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours round about ;
Our enemies among themselves
at us do laugh and shout.

7 Turn us again, O God of hosts,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

8 A vine from Egypt brought thou'st us,
by thine outstretched hand ;
Add thou the Heathen out of dust cast,
to plant in their land.

- 8 I'll hear what God the Lord will speak:
to his folk he'll speak peace,
And to his faithfuls; but let them not return to foolishness.
- 9 To them that fear him surely near is his salvation;
That glory in our land may have her habitation.
- 10 Truth met with mercy, righteousness and peace kiss'd mutually:
- 11 Truth springs from earth, and righteousness looks down from heaven high.
- 12 Yea, what is good the Lord shall give;
our land shall yield increase.
- 13 Justice, to set us in his steps,
shall go before his face.

P S A L M LXXXVI.

- 1 O Lord, do thou bow down thine ear,
and hear me graciously;
Because I fore afflicted am,
and am in poverty.
- 2 Because I'm holy, let my soul
by thee preserved be:
O thou my God, thy servant save that puts his trust in thee.
- 3 Sith unto thee I daily cry,
be merciful to me.
- 4 Rejoice thy servant's soul: for, Lord,
I lift my soul to thee.
- 5 For thou art gracious, O Lord,
and ready to forgive;
And rich in mercy, all that call upon thee to relieve.
- 6 Hear, Lord, my prayer; unto the voice of my request attend:
- 7 In troublous times I'll call on thee;
for thou wilt answer send.
- 8 Lord, there is none among the gods that may with thee compare;
And like the works which thou hast done,
not any work is there.
- 9 All nations whom thou mad'st shall come and worship reverently
Before thy face: and they, O Lord, thy name shall glorify.
- 10 Because thou art exceeding great,
and works by thee are done
Which are to be admir'd; and thou art God thyself alone.
- 11 Teach me thy way, and in thy truth,
O Lord, then walk will I; Uaite my heart, that I thy name may fear continually.
- 12 O Lord my God, with all my heart to thee I will give praise;
And I the glory will ascribe unto thy name always.
- 13 Because thy mercy toward me
in greatness doth excel;
And thou deliver'd hast my soul
out from the lowest hell.
- 14 O God, the proud against me rise,
and villen men have met,
That for my soul have fought; and thee before them have not set.
- 15 But thou art full of pity, Lord,
a God most gracious,
Long-suffering, and in thy truth and mercy plenteous.
- 16 O turn to me thy countenance, and mercy on me have;
Thy servant strengthen, and the son of thine own handmaid save.
- 17 Show me a sign for good, that they which do me hate may see,
And be ashamed: because thou, Lord,
didst help and comfort me.

P S A L M LXXXVII.

- 1 Upon the hills of holiness
he his foundation sets.
- 2 God more than Jacob's dwellings all delights in Zion's gates.
- 3 Things glorious are said of thee,
thou city of the Lord.
- 4 Rahab and Babel I, to those that know me, will record:
Behold ev'n Tyros, and with it
the land of Palestine,
And likewise Ethiopia;
like man was born therein.
- 5 And it of Zion shall be said,
This man and that man there
Was born: and he that is most High himself shall stablish her.
- 6 When God the people writes, he'll count that this man born was there.
- 7 There be that sing and play; and all my well-springs in thee are.

P S A L M LXXXVIII.

- 1 Lord God, my Saviour, day and night before thee cry'd have I.
- 2 Before thee let my prayer come;
give ear unto my cry.
- 3 For troubles great do fill my soul:
my life draws nigh the grave.
- 4 I'm counted with those that go down to pit, and no strength have.
- 5 Ev'n free among the dead, like them that slain in grave do lie;
Cut off from thy hand, whom no more thou hast in memory.
- 6 Thou hast me laid in lowest pit,
in deeps and darksome caves.
- 7 Thy wrath lies hard on me, thou hast me press'd with all thy waves.
- 8 Thou hast put far from me my friends,
thou mad'st them to abhor me;
And I am so shut up, that I find no evasion for me.
- 9 By reason of affliction
mine eye mourns dolfully:
To thee, Lord, do I call, and stretch
my hands continually.
- 10 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead?
shall they rise, and thee bless?
- 11 Shall in the grave thy love be told?
in death thy faithfulness?
- 12 Shall thy great wonders in the dark,
or shall thy righteousness
Be known to any in the land of deep forgetfulness?
- 13 But, Lord, to thee I cry'd; my pray'r at morn prevent shall thee.
- 14 Why, Lord, dost thou cast off my soul,
and hid'st thy face from me?
- 15 Drest I am I, and from my youth
I ready am to die;
Thy terrors I have borne, and am distracted fearfully.
- 16 The dreadful fierceness of thy wrath quite over me doth go:
Thy terrors great have cut me off,
they did pursue me so.
- 17 For round about me ev'ry day,
like water, they did roll;
And, gathering together, they have compass'd my soul.
- 18 My friends thou hast put far from me,
and him that did me love;
And those that mine acquaintance were to darkness didst remove.
- 19 O Lord's mercies I will ever sing;
and with my mouth I shall Thy faithfulness make to be known to generations all.

P S A L M LXXXIX.

- 2 For mercy shall be built, said I,
for ever to endure;
Thy faithfulness, ev'n in the heav'n,
thou wilt establish sure.
- 3 I with my chosen One have made a covenant graciously:
And to my servant, whom I lov'd,
to David sworn have I:
- 4 That I thy seed establish shall
for ever to remain,
And will to generations all thy throne build and maintain.
- 5 The praises of thy wonders, Lord,
the heavens shall express;
And in the congregation of saints thy faithfulness.
- 6 For who in heaven with the Lord may once himself compare?
Who is like God among the sons of those that mighty are?
- 7 Great fear in meeting of the saints is due unto the Lord;
And he of all about him should with reverence be ador'd.
- 8 O thou that art the Lord of hosts,
what Lord in mightiness
Is like to thee? who compass'd round art with thy faithfulness.
- 9 Ev'n in the raging of the sea
thou over it dost reign;
And when the waves thereof do swell,
thou stillest them again.
- 10 Rahab in pieces thou didst break, like one that slaughter'd is;
And with thy mighty arm thou hast dispers'd thine enemies.
- 11 The heav'n are thine, thou for thine own
the earth dost also take:
The world, and fulness of the same,
thy pow'r did found and make.
- 12 The north and south from thee alone their first beginning had;
Both Tabor mount and Hermon hill shall in thy name be glad.
- 13 Thou hast an arm that's full of pow'r, thy hand is great in might;
And thy right hand exceedingly exalted is in height.
- 14 Justice and judgment of thy throne are made the dwelling-place:
Mercy, accompany'd with truth,
shall go before thy face.
- 15 O greatly blest'd the people are the joyful sound that know;
In brightness of thy face, O Lord,
they err on shall go.
- 16 They in thy name shall all the day
rejoice exceedingly:
And in thy righteousness shall they exalted be on high.
- 17 Because the glory of thy strength
doth only stand in thee;
And in thy favour shall our horn and pow'r exalted be.
- 18 For God is our defence; and he
to us doth safety bring:
The holy One of Israel is our almighty King.
- 19 In vision to thy holy One thou shalt, I help upon
A strong one said: out of the folk
I rais'd a chosen one:
- 20 Ev'n David, I have found him out
a servant unto me;
And with my holy oil my king anointed him to be.

21 With whom my hand shall flourish'd be;
None arm shall make him strong.
22 On him the foe shall not exult,
Nor son of mischief wrong.
23 I will beat down before his face
All his malicious foes:
I will them greatly plague who do
With hatred him oppose.
24 My mercy and my faithfulness
With him yet shall abide:
And in my name his horn and pow'r
Men shall exalted see.
25 His hand and pow'r shall reach afar,
I'll see it in the sea:
And his right hand established Shall in the rivers be.
26 Thou art my Father, he shall cry,
Thou art my God alone;
And he shall say, Thou art the Rock
Of my salvation.
27 I'll make him my first-born, more high
Than kings of any land.
28 My love I'll ever keep for him,
My covenant fast shall stand.
29 His feed I by my pow'r will make
For ever to endure;
And, as the days of heav'n, his throne
Shall stable be and sure.
30 But if his children shall forsake
My laws, and go astray,
And in my judgments shall not walk,
But wander from my way:
31 If they my laws break, and do not Keep my commandments;
32 I'll visit then their faults with rods,
Their sins with chastisements.
33 Yet I'll not take my love from him,
Nor false my promise make.
34 My covenant I'll not break, nor change
What with my mouth I spake.
35 Once by my holiness I swear,
To David I'll not lie:
36 His seed and throne shall, as the sun,
Before me last for aye.
37 It, like the moon, shall ever be Establish'd stedfastly;
And like to that which in the heav'n
Doth witness faithfully.
38 But thou, displeased, hast cast off,
Thou dost abhor and loathe;
With him that thine anointed is Thou hast been very wroth.
39 Thou hast thy servant's covenant Made void, and quite cast by;
Thou hast profan'd his crown, while it Lies on the ground doth lie.
40 Thou all his hedges hast broke down,
His strong holds down hast torn.
41 He to all pillars-by a spoil,
To neighbours is a scorn.
42 Thou hast set up his foes right hand,
Made it all his own; glad:
43 Turn'd his sword's edge, and him to stand
In battle hast not made.
44 His glory thou hast made to cease,
His throne to great dishonour cast:
45 Shorten'd his days of youth, and him
With shame thou hast cast.
46 How long, Lord, wilt thou hide thyself?
For ever, in thine ire:
And shall thine indignation
Burn like unto a fire?
47 Remember, Lord, how short a time
I shall on earth remain:
O wherefore is it so, that thou
Hast made all men in vain?

48 What man is he that liveth here,
And death shall never see?
Or from the power of the grave
What man his soul shall free?
49 Thy former loving-kindnesses,
O Lord, where be they now?
These which in truth and faithfulness
To David sworn hast thou.
50 Mind, Lord, thy servant's sad reproach;
How I in bosom bear
The scornings of the people all,
Who strong and mighty are.
51 Wherewith thy raging enemies
Reproach'd, O Lord, think on;
Wherewith they have reproach'd the steps
Of thine anointed one.
52 All blessing to the Lord our God
Let be ascribed then;
For evermore so let it be.
Amen, yea, and amen.

P S A L M XC.

1 Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place
In generations all.
2 Before thou ever hadst brought forth
The mountains great or small;
Ere ever thou hadst form'd the earth,
And all the world abroad;
Ere thou from everlasting art
To everlasting God.
3 Thou dost unto destruction
Man that is mortal turn;
And unto them thou say'st again,
Ye sons of men, return.
4 Because a thousand years appear
No more before thy sight
Than yesterday, when it is past,
Or than a watch by night.
5 As with an overflowing flood
Thou carriest them away:
They like a deep are, like the grass
That grows at morn are they.
6 At morn it flourisheth and grows,
Cut down at ev'n doth fade.
7 For by thine anger we're consum'd,
Thy wrath makes us afraid.
8 Our sins, thou, and iniquities,
Dost in thy presence place,
And sett'st our secret faults before
The brightness of thy face.
9 For in thine anger all our days
Do pass on to an end;
And as a tale that hath been told,
So we our years do spend.
10 Therefore and ten years do sum up
Our days and years, we see;
Or if, by reason of more strength,
In some fourscore they be:
Yet doth the strength of such old men
But grief and labour prove;
For it is soon cut off, and we Fly hence, and soon remove.

11 Who knows the power of thy wrath?
According to thy fear.
12 So is thy wrath: Lord, teach thou us
Our end in mind to bear:
And so to count our days, that we
Our hearts may still appy
To learn thy wisdom and thy truth,
That we may live thereby.
13 Turn yet again to us, O Lord,
How long thus shall it be?
Let it repent thee now for those
That servants are to thee.
14 O with thy tender mercies, Lord,
Be early satisfy:
So we rejoice shall all our days,
And still be glad in thee.

15 According as the days have been,
Wherein we grief have had,
And years wherein we ill have seen,
So do thou make us glad.
16 O let thy work and pow'r appear Thy servants' face before;
And shew unto their children dear
Thy glory evermore:
17 And let the beauty of the Lord
Our God be us upon:
Our handy works establish thou,
Establish them each one.

P S A L M XCII.

1 HE that doth in the secret place
Of the most High reside, Under the shade of him that is
Th' Almighty shall abide.
2 I of the Lord my God will say,
He is my refuge still,
He is my fortress, and my God,
And in him trust I will.
3 Assuredly he shall thee save,
And give deliverance
From subtle fowler's snare, and from
The noisome pestilence.
4 His feathers shall thee hide; thy trust
Under his wings shall be:
His faithfulness shall be a shield
And buckler unto thee.
5 Thou shalt not need to be afraid
For terrors of the night,
Nor for the arrow that doth fly
By day, while it is light;
6 Nor for the pestilence, that walks
In darkness secretly;
Nor for destruction, that doth waste
At noon-day openly.
7 A thousand at thy side shall fall,
On thy right hand shall lie
Ten thousand dead; yet unto thee
It shall not once come nigh.
8 Only thou with thine eyes shalt look,
And a beholder be;
And thou therein the just reward
Of wicked men shalt see.
9 Because the Lord, who constantly
My refuge is alone,
Ere the most High, is made by thee
Thy habitation.
10 No plague shall near thy dwelling come,
No ill shall thee befall;
11 For thee to keep in all thy ways
His angels charge he shall.
12 They in their hands shall bear thee up,
Still waiting thee upon;
Left thou at any time should'st dash
Thy foot against a stone.
13 Upon the adder thou shalt tread,
And on the lion strong;
Thy feet on dragons trample shall,
And on the lions young.
14 Because on me he set his love,
I'll save and fet him free;
Because my great name he hath known,
I will him set on high.
15 He'll call on me, I'll answer him;
I will be with him still
In trouble, to deliver him,
And honour him I will.
16 With length of days unto his mind
I will him satisfy;
I'll so my salvation
Will cause his eyes to see.

P S A L M XCIII.

1 TO render thanks unto the Lord
It is a comely thing,
And to thy name, O thou most High,
Due praise aloud to sing.

2 Thy loving-kindness to shew forth,
when shines the morning light;
And to declare thy faithfulness with pleasure ev'ry night.

3 On a ten-stringed instrument,
upon the psalter;
And on the harp with solemn sound and grave sweet melody.

4 For thou, Lord, by thy mighty works, hast made my heart right glad;
And I will triumph in the works which by thine hands were made.

5 How great, Lord, are thy works! each of thine a deep it is. (thought)

6 A brutish man it knoweth not;
fools understand not this.

7 When those that lewd and wicked are spring quickly up like grafs,
And workers of iniquity
do flourish all apace;
It is that they for ever may be destroyed be and slain:

8 But thou, O Lord, art the most High,
for ever to remain.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, thine en'mies perish shall:
The workers of iniquity shall be disperfed all.

10 But thou shalt, like unto the horn of th' unicorn, exalt
My horn on high: thou with fresh oil anoint me also shalt.

11 Mine eyes shall also my desire see on mine enemies:
Mine ear shall of the wicked hear,
that do against me rise.

12 But like the palm-tree flourishing shall be the righteous one;
He shall like to the cedar grow,
that is in Lebanon.

13 Those that within the house of God
are planted by his grace,
They shall grow up, and flourish all in our God's holy place.

14 And in old age, when others fade, they fruit it forth shall bring;
They shall be fat, and full of sap,
and ay be flourishing.

15 To shew that upright is the Lord:
he is a rock to me;
And he from all unrighteousness is altogether free.

P S A L M XCIII.

1 THE Lord doth reign, and cloth'd is he with majesty most bright:
His works do shew him cloth'd to be and girt about with might.
The world is also stablished, that it cannot depart.

2 Thy throne is fix'd of old, and thou from everlasting art.

3 The floods, O Lord, have lifted up,
they lifted up their voice;
The floods have lifted up their waves,
and made a mighty noise.

4 But yet the Lord, that is on high,
is more of might by far Than noise of many waters is,
or great sea-billows are.

5 Thy testimonies ev'ry one in faithfulness excel;
And holiness for ever, Lord,
thine house becometh well.

P S A L M XCIV.

1 O Lord God, unto whom alone
all vengeance doth belong;
O mighty God, who vengeance own'st, shine forth, avenging wrong.

2 Lift up thyself, thou of the earth
the sov'reign Judge that art;
And unto those that are so proud
a due reward impart.

3 How long, O mighty God, shall they who lewd and wicked be,
How long shall they who wicked are,
thus triumph haughtily?

4 How long shall things most hard by them be uttered and told?
And all that work iniquity to boast themselves be bold?

5 Thy folk they break in pieces, Lord, thine heritage oppress;
The widow they and stranger slay,
and kill the fatherless.

7 Yet say they, God it shall not see,
nor God of Jacob know.

8 Ye brutish people! understand;
fools! when will ye grow?

9 The Lord did plant the ear of man, and hear then shall not he?
He only form'd the eye, and then shall he not clearly see?

10 He that the nations doth correct, shall he not chastise you?
He knowledge unto man doth teach,
and shall himself not know?

11 Man's thoughts to be but vanity
the Lord doth well discern.

12 Bless'd is the man thou chafest, Lord, and mak'st thy law to learn:

13 That thou may'st give him rest from days
of sad adversity,
Until the pit be digg'd for those
that work iniquity.

14 For sure the Lord will not cast off those that his people be, Neither his own inheritance quit and forsake will he:

15 But judgment unto righteousness shall yet return again;
And all shall follow after it that are right-hearted men.

16 Who will rise up for me against those that do wickedly?
Who will stand up for me 'gainst those
that work iniquity?

17 Unless the Lord had been my help
when I was fore oppress'd, Almost my soul had in the house of silence been at rest.

18 When I had uttered this word,
(my foot doth slip away,) Thy mercy held me up, O Lord, thy goodness did me stay.

19 Amidst the multitude of thoughts which in my heart do fight,
My soul, lest it be overcharg'd,
thy comforts do delight.

20 Shall of iniquity the throne have fellowship with thee,
Which mischief, cunningly contriv'd, doth by a law decree?

21 Against the righteous souls they join,
they guiltless blood condemn.

22 But of my refuge God's the rock, and my defence from them.

23 On them their own iniquity
the Lord shall bring and lay,
And cut them off in their own sin;
our Lord God shall them slay.

P S A L M XCV.

1 O Come, let us sing to the Lord, come, let us ev'ry one
A joyful noise make to the Rock of our salvation.

2 Let us before his presence come with praise and thankful voice;
Let us sing psalms to him with grace,
and make a joyful noise.

3 For God, a great God, and great King, above all gods he is.

4 Depths of the earth are in his hand,
the strength of hills is his.

5 To him the spacious sea belongs, for he the same did make;
The dry land also from his hands its form at first did take.

6 O come, and let us worship him,
let us bow down withal,
And on our knees before the Lord
our Maker let us fall.

7 For he's our God, the people we
of his own pasture are,
And of his hand the sheep; to-day,
if ye his voice will hear,

8 Then harden not your hearts, as in the provocation,
As in the desert, on the day
of the temptation:

9 When me your fathers tempt'd and prov'd;
and did my working fee;

10 Ev'n for the space of forty years
this race hath griev'd me.

P S A L M XCVI.

1 O Sing a new song to the Lord,
sing all the earth to God:

2 To God sing, blest his name, shew still his saving health abroad.

3 Among the Heathen nations his glory do declare;
And unto all the people shew his works that wondrous are.

4 For great's the Lord, and greatly he is to be magnify'd; Yea, worthy to be fear'd is he above all gods beside.

5 For all the gods are idols dumb,
which blinded nations fear;
But our God is the Lord, by whom the heav'n's created were.

6 Great honour is before his face,
and majesty divine;
Strength is within his holy place,
and there doth beauty shine.

7 Do ye ascribe unto the Lord, of people ev'ry tribe,
Glory do ye unto the Lord,
and mighty pow'r ascribe.

8 Give ye the glory to the Lord
that to his name is due:
Come ye into his courts, and bring an offering with you.

9 In beauty of his holiness,
O do the Lord adore:
Likewise let all the earth throughout tremble his face before.

10 Among the Heathen say, God reigns;
the world shall steadfastly Be fix'd from moving; he shall judge
the people righteously.

11 Let heav'n's be glad before the Lord,
and let the earth rejoice;
Let seas, and all that is therein,
cry out, and make a noise.

12 Let fields rejoice, and ev'ry thing that springeth of the earth:
Then woods and ev'ry tree shall sing with gladness and with mirth.

13 Before the Lord : because he comes,
to judge the earth comes he :
He'll judge the world with righteousness,
the people faithfully.

P S A L M CXVII.

1 God reigneth, let the earth be glad,
and lyes rejoice each one.
2 Dark clouds him compass; and in right with judgment dwells his throne.
3 Fire goes before him, and his fires
it turns up round about :
4 His lightnings light n did the world;
earth saw, and shook throughdnt.
5 Hills at the presence of the Lord,
like wax, did melt away;
Evn at the presence of the Lord of all the earth, I say.
6 The heav'ns declare his righteousness, all men his glory see.
7 All who serve graven images, condemned I t them be.
Who do of idols boast themselves,
let shame upon them fall;
Ye that are called gods, see that ye do him worship all.
8 Sion did hear, and joyful was, glad Judah's daughters were;
They much rejoice d, O Lord, because thy judgments did appear.

9 For thou, O Lord, art high above all things on earth that art;
Above all other gods thou art exalted very far.
10 Hate ill, all ye that love the Lord :
his faints' souls keepeth he;
And from the hands of wicked men
he sets them safe and free.
11 For all those that be righteous
frow is a joyful light,
And gladness isown is for all those that are in heart upright.
12 Ye righteous, in the Lord rejoice;
express your thankfulness,
When ye into your memory
do call his holiness.

P S A L M CXVIII.

1 O Sing a new song to the Lord,
for wonders his hath done :
His right hand and his holy arm him victory hath won.
2 The Lord God his salvation hath caused to be known;
His justice in the Heavens's sight
he openly hath shewn.
3 He numberd of his grace and truth to Iſr'el's house hath been;
And the salvation of our God
all ends of th' earth have seen.
4 Let all the earth unto the Lord
send forth a joyful noise;
Lift up your voice aloud to him,
sing praises, and rejoice.
5 With harp, with harp, and voice of psalms,
unto JEH and VAH sing :
6 With trumpets, cornets, gladly sound before the Lord the King.
7 Let fountains all their fulness roar,
the world, and dwellers there :
8 Let floods clap hands, and let the hills ton their joy declare 9 Before the Lord : because he comes,
to judge the earth comes he :
He'll judge the world with righteousness,
the folk with equity.

P S A L M CXIX.

1 TH' eternal Lord doth reign as king,
because the people quake;
He sits between the herobims,
let th' earth be mov'd and shake.

2 The Lord in Sion, great and high above all people is;
3 Thy great and dreadful name (for it is holy) let them blefs.

4 The king's strength also judgment loves;
thou sett'st equity :
Just judgment thou dost execute in Jacob righteously.

5 The Lord our God exalt ou high, and reverently do ye
Before his footstool worship him :
the holy One is he.

6 Moses and Aaron 'mong his priests,
Samuel, with them that call Upon his name : these call'd on God, and he them answer'd all.

7 Within the pillar of the cloud
he unto them did speak :
The testimonies he them taught,
and laws, they did not break.

8 Thou answer'dst them, O Lord our God, thou wast a God that gave Pardon to them, though on their deeds thou wouldest vengeance have.

9 Do ye exalt the Lord our God, and at his holy hill
Do ye him worship : for the Lord our God is holy still.

P S A L M C.

1 All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice,
2 Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.
3 Know that the Lord is God indeed :
Without our aid he did us make;
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
And for his sheep he doth us take.
4 O enter then his gates with praise, Approach with joy his courts unto :
Praise, laud, and blefs his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.
5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever true :
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same.

1 O All ye lands! unto the Lord make ye a joyful noise.
2 Serve God with gladness, him before come with a singing voice.
3 Know ye the Lord that he is God :
not we, but he us made;
We are his people, and the sheep within his pasture fed.
4 Enter his gates and courts with praise, to thank him go ye thither :
To him express your thankfulness,
and blefs his name together.
5 Because the Lord our God is good,
his mercy faileth never;
And to all generations
his truth endureth ever.

P S A L M CI.

1 Mercy will and judgment sing,
Lord, I will sing to thee.
2 With wisdom in a perfect way shall my behaviour be.
O when in kindness unto me,
wilt thou be pleas'd to come?
I with a perfect heart will walk within my house at home.
3 I will endure no wicked thing before mine eyes to be :
I hate their work that turn aside,
it shall not cleave to me.

4 Stubborn and a froward heart depart quite from me shall;
A person giv'n to wickedness
I will not know at all.

5 I'll cut him off that slandereth his neighbour privily :
The haughty heart I will not bear,
nor him that looketh high

6 Upon the faithful of the land mine eyes shall be, that they May dwell with me : he shall me serve that walks in perfect way,

7 Who of deceit a worker is in my house shall not dwell ;
And in my presence shall he not remain that lyes doth tell.

8 Yea, all the wicked of the land early destroy will I ;
All from God's city to cut off
that work iniquity.

P S A L M CII.

1 O Lord, unto my pray'r give ear,
my cry let come to thee ;
2 And in the day of my distress hide not thy face from me.
Give ear to me : what time I call,
to answer me make haste.
3 For as an hearth my bones are burnt,
my days like smoke do waste.
4 My heart within me finiten is,
and it is withered
Like very grass : so that I do forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of my groaning voice
my bones cleave to my skin, 6 Like pelican in wilderness forsaken I have been :
I like an owl in desert am,
that nightly there doth moan ;
7 I watch, and like a parrow am on the house-top alone.
8 My bitter en'mies all the day
reproaches cast on me ;
And, being mad at me, with rage against me sworn they be.
9 For why? I ashes eaten have like bread, in sorrows deep ;
My drink I also mingled have with tears that I did weep.
10 Thy wrath and indignation did cause this grief and pain :
For thou hast lift me up on high,
and cast me down again.
11 My days are like unto a shade,
which doth declining pass;
And I am dry'd and withered,
even like unto the grass.
12 But thou, Lord, everlasting art, and thy remembrance shall Continually endure, and be
to generations all.
13 Thou shalt arise, and mercy have upon thy Sion yet :
The time to favour her is come,
the time that thou hast set.
14 For in her rubbish and her stones thy servants pleasure take,
Yea, they the very dust thereof
do favour for her sake.
15 So shall the heathen people fear
the Lord's most holy name ;
And all the kings on earth shall dread thy glory and thy fame.
16 When Sion by the mighty Lord built up again shall be,
In glory then and majesty to men appear shall he.

P S A L M S. CIII, CIV.

- 17 The prayer of the deftitute
he furely will regard ;
Their prayer will he not defpife,
by him it fhall be heard.
- 18 For generations yet to come
this fhall be on record :
So fhall the people that fhall be created praife the Lord.
- 19 He from his Sanctuary's height hath downward caft his eye ;
And from his glorious throne in heav'n
the Lord the earth did fy ;
- 20 That of the mournful prifoner
the groanings he might hear,
To fet them free that unto death by men appointed are :
- 21 That they in Sion may declare the Lord's moft holy name,
And publish in Jerufalem
the praifes of the fame ;
- 22 When as the people gather fhall
in troops with one accord,
When kingdoms fhall afsembled be to ferve the higheft Lord.
- 23 My-wonted ftrength and force he hath abated in the way,
And he my days hath fhortened :
- 24 Thus therefore did I fay,
My God, in mid-time of my days
take thou me not away :
From age to age eternally
thy years endure and ftay.
- 25 The firm foundation of the earth of old time thou haft laid :
The heavens alfo are the work which thine own hands have made.
- 26 Thou fhalt for evermore endure,
but they fhall perih all ;
Yea, ev'ry one of them wax old,
like to a garment, fhall :
- 27 Thou as a vefure fhalt them change, and they fhall changed be :
- 28 But thou the time art, and thy years are to eternity.
- 29 The children of thy fervants fhall continually endure :
And in thy light, O Lord, their feed fhall be eftablifh'd fure.

Another of the fame.

- 1 Lord, hear my pray'r, and let my cry
Have fpeedy accefs unto thee.
- 2 In day of my calamity,
O hide not thou thy face from me :
Hear when I call to thee ; that day
An anfwer fpeedily return.
- 3 My days, like fmoke, confume away,
And, as an hearth, my bones do burn.
- 4 My heart is wounded very fore,
And withered, like grafs doth fade :
I am forgetful grown therefore
To take and eat my daily bread.
- 5 By reafon of my fmart within,
And voice of my moft grievous groans,
My flefh confumed is, my fkin,
All parch'd, doth cleave unto my bones.
- 6 The pelican of wildernefs,
The owl in defert, I do match :
And, fparrow-like, companionlefs,
Upon the houfe's-top I watch.
- 7 I all day long am made a fcorn,
Reproach'd by my malicious foes :
The madmen are againft me fworn,
The men againft me that arofe.
- 8 For I have afhes eaten up,
To me as if they had been bread ;
And with my drink I in my cup
Of bitter tears a mixture made.

- 10 Becaufe thy wrath was not appeas'd,
And dreadful indignation :
Therefore it was that thou me rais'd,
And thou again didft caft me down.
- 11 My days are like a fhade away,
Which doth declining fwiftly pafs :
And I am withered away,
Much like unto the fading grafs.
- 12 But thou, O Lord, fhalt ftill endure,
From change and all mutation free,
And to all generations fure Shall thy remembrance ever be.
- 13 Thou fhalt arife, and mercy yet
Thou to mount Sion fhalt extend :
Her time for favour which was fet,
Behold, is now come to an end.
- 14 Thy faints take pleafure in her ftones,
Her very duft to them is dear.
- 15 All heathen lands and kingly thrones on earth thy glorious name fhall fear.
- 16 God in his glory fhall appear,
When Sion he builds and repairs.
- 17 He fhall regard and lend his ear
Unto the needy's humble pray'rs :
Th' afflicted's pray'r he will not fcorn.
- 18 All times this fhall be on record :
And generations yet unborn
Shall praife and magnify the Lord.
- 19 He from his holy place look'd down,
The earth he view'd from heav'n on high :
- 20 To hear the prif'ners' mourning groan,
And free them that are doom'd to die ;
- 21 That Sion, and Jerus'lem too,
His name and praife may well record,
- 22 When people and the kingdoms do
Affemble all to praife the Lord.
- 23 My ftrength he weaken'd in the way,
My days of life he fhortened.
- 24 My God, O take me not away
In mid-time of my days, I faid :
Thy years throughout all ages laft.
- 25 Of old thou haft eftablifhed
The earth's foundation firm and faft :
Thy mighty hands the heav'n's have made.
- 26 They perih fhall, as garments do,
But thou fhalt evermore endure :
As vefures, thou fhalt change them fo ;
And they fhall all be changed fure.
- 27 But from all changes thou art free ;
Thy endlefs years do laft for ay.
- 28 Thy fervants, and their feed, who be,
Eftablifh'd fhall before thee ftay.

P S A L M CIII.

- 1 O Thou my foul, blefs God the Lord ;
and all that in me is,
Be ftirred up his holy name
to magnify and blefs.
- 2 Blefs, O my foul, the Lord thy God,
And not forgetful be
Of all his gracious benefits
he hath beflow'd on thee.
- 3 All thine iniquities who doth moft gracioufly forgive :
Who thy difeafes all and pains doth heal, and thee relieve.
- 4 Who doth redeem thy life, that thou to death may'ft not go down :
Who thee with loving-kindnefs doth and tender mercies crown.
- 5 Who with abundance of good things
doth fatisfy thy mouth ;
So that, ev'n as the eagle's age, renewed is thy youth.
- 6 God righteous judgment executes for all oppreffed ones.
- 7 His ways to Moifs, he his afts made known to If'el's fons.

- 8 The Lord our God is merciful, and he is gracious,
Long-fuffering, and flow to wrath,
in mercy plenteous.
- 9 He will not chide continually,
nor keep his anger ftill.
- 10 With us he dealt not as we fin'd,
nor did requite our ill.
- 11 For as the heav'n in its height
the earth furmounteth far ;
So great to thofe that do him fear his tender mercies are.
- 12 As far as eaft is diftant from the weft, fo far hath he
From us removed, in his love,
all our iniquity.
- 13 Such pity as a father hath unto his children dear ;
Like pity fhews the Lord to fuch as worfhip him in fear.
- 14 For he remembers we are duft,
and he our frame well knows.
- 15 Frail man, his days are like the grafs,
as flow'r in field he grows :
- 16 For over it the wind doth pafs,
and it away is gone ;
And of the place where once it was
it fhall no more be known.
- 17 But unto them that do him fear
God's mercy never ends ;
And to their children's children ftill his righteoufnefs extends :
- 18 To fuch as keep his covenant,
and mindful are alway
Of his moft juft commandments, that they may them obey.
- 19 The Lord prepared hath his throne
in heavens firm to ftand ;
And ev'ry thing that being hath his kingdom doth command.
- 20 O ye his angels, that excel in ftrength, blefs ye the Lord ;
Ye who obey what he commands,
and hearken to his word.
- 21 O blefs and magnify the Lord,
ye glorious hofts of his ;
Ye minifters, that do fulfil whate'er his pleafure is.
- 22 O blefs the Lord, all ye his works,
where-with the world is ftor'd :
In his dominions ev'ry where,
My foul, blefs thou the Lord.

P S A L M CIV.

- 1 Blefs God, my foul. O Lord my God, thou art exceeding great ;
With honour and with majefty thou clothed art in ftate.
- 2 With light, as with a robe, thyfelf thou covereft about ;
And, like unto a curtain, thou
the heavens ftretch'ft out.
- 3 Who of his chambers doth the beams within the waters lay ;
Who doth the clouds his chariot make,
on wings of wind make way.
- 4 Who flaming fire his minifters, his angels fpirits, doth make.
- 5 Who earth's foundations did lay,
that it should never fhake.
- 6 Thou didft it cover with the deep,
as with a garment fpread :
The waters flood above the hills,
when thou the word but faid.
- 7 But at the voice of thy rebuke
they fled, and would not ftay ;
They at thy thunder's dreadful voice did haitt them haft away.

P S A L M CV.

8 They by the mountains do ascend, and by the valley ground Descend, unto that very place which thou for them didst found.

9 Thou hast a bound unto them set,
that they may not pass over,
That they do not return again
the face of earth to cover.

10 He to the vallies sends the springs, which run among the hills :

11 They to all beasts of field give drink, wild asses drink their fills.

12 By them the fowls of heav'n shall have
their habitation,
Which do among the branches sing with delectation.

13 He from his chambers watereth
the hills, when they are dry'd :
With fruit and increase of t'ny works
the earth is satisfy'd.

14 For cattle he makes grafs to grow,
he makes the herb to spring
For the use of man, that food to him he from the earth may bring :

15 And wine, that to the heart of man
doth cheerfulness impart, Oil that his face makes shine, and bread that strengtheneth his heart.

16 The trees of God are full of sap;
the cedars that do stand
In Lebanon, which planted were
by his almighty hand.

17 Birds of the air upon their boughs do choose their nests to make ;
As for the stork, the fir-tree like doth for her dwelling take.

18 The lofty mountains for wild goats
a place of refuge be ;
The conies also to the rocks
do for their safety flee.

19 He sets the moon in heav'n, thereby the seasons to discern :
From him the sun his certain time of going down doth learn.

20 Thou darkest mak'st, 'tis night, then beasts of forests creep abroad.

21 The lions young roar for their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22 The sun doth rise, and home they flock, down in their dens they lie.

23 Man goes to work, his labour he doth to the ev'ning ply.

24 How manifold, Lord, are thy works !
in wisdom wonderful Thou ev'ry one of them hast made ;
earth's of thy riches full :

25 So is this great and spacious sea, wherein things creeping are,
Which number'd cannot be ; and beasts
both great and small are there.

26 There ships go ; there thou mak'st it to play that leviathan great.

27 These all wait on thee, that thou may'st in due time give them meat.

28 That which thou givest unto them they gather for their food :
Thine hand thou open'st lib'rally,
they filled are with good.

29 Thou hid'st thy face, they troubled are,
their breath thou tak'st away ;
Then do they die, and to their dust return again do they.

30 Thy quick'ning Spirit thou send'st forth, then they created be ;
And then the earth's decayed face renewed is by thee.

31 The glory of the mighty Lord continue shall for ever :
The Lord JEHOVAH shall rejoice
in all his works together.

32 Earth, as awrighted, trembleth all,
if he on it but look ;
And if the mountains he but touch,
they presently do smoke.

33 I will sing to the Lord most high,
to long as I shall live ;
And while I being have I shall to my God praises give.

34 Of him my meditation shall sweet thoughts to me afford ;
And as for me, I will rejoice in God, my only Lord.

35 From earth let sinners be consum'd, let ill men no more be.
O thou my soul, bless thou the Lord.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

P S A L M CV.

1 Give thanks to God, call on his name ;
to men his deeds make known.

2 Sing ye to him, sing psalms ; proclaim his wondrous works each one.

3 See that ye in his holy name to glory do accord :
And let the heart of ev'ry one rejoice that seeks the Lord.

4 The Lord almighty, and his strength, with steadfast hearts seek ye :
His blessed and his gracious face seek ye continually.

5 Think on the works that he hath done,
which admiration breed ;
His wonders, and the judgments all,
which from his mouth proceed.

6 O ye that are of Abr'ham's race, his servant well approv'n :
And ye that Jacob's children are,
whom he chose for his own.

7 Because he, and he only, is the mighty Lord our God ;
And his most righteous judgments are in all the earth abroad.

8 His cov'nant he remember'd hith, that it may ever stand :
To thousand generations
the word he did command.

9 Which covenant he firmly made with faithful Abraham,
And unto Isaac, by his oath,
he did renew the same :

10 And unto Jacob, for a law,
he made it firm and sure,
A covenant to Israel,
which ever should endure.

11 He said, I'll give Canaan's land for heritage to you.

12 While they were strangers there, and few,
in number very few ;

13 While yet they went from land to land without a sure abode ;
And while, through sundry kingdoms, they did wander far abroad :

14 Yet, notwithstanding, suffer'd he no man to do them wrong :
Yea, for their sakes, he did reprove kings, who were great and strong.

15 Thus did he say, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be,
Nor do the prophets any harm that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd for famine on the land,
he brake the staff of bread :

17 But yet he sent a man before,
by whom they should be fed :

Ev'n Joseph, whom unnat'rally sell for a slave did they ;

18 Whole feet with fetters they did hurt,
and he in irons lay ;

19 Until the time that his word came to give him liberty,
The word and purpose of the Lord
did him in prison try.

20 Then sent the king, and did command that he enlarg'd should be :
He that the people's ruler was did send to set him free.

21 A lord to rule his family
he rais'd him, as most fit ;
To him of all that he possess'd
he did the charge commit :

22 That he might at his pleasure bind
the princes of the land ;
And he might teach his senators wisdom to understand.

23 The people then of Israel down into Egypt came ;
And Jacob also sojourned
within the land of Ham.

24 And he did greatly by his pow'r increase his people there ;
And stronger than their enemies
they by his blessing were.

25 Their heart he turned to envy
his folk maliciously,
With those that his own servants were to deal in subtilty.

26 His servant Moses he did send,
Aaron his chosen one.

27 By these his signs and wonders great in Ham's land were made known.

28 Darkness he sent, and made it dark ;
his word they did obey.

29 He turn'd their waters into blood, and he their fish did slay.

30 The land in plenty brought forth frogs in chambers of their kings.

31 His word all foets of flies and lice in all their borders brings.

32 He hail for rain, and flaming fire, into their land he sent :

33 And he their vines and fig-trees smote ;
trees of their coast he rent.

34 He spake, and caterpillars came,
locusts did much abound ;

35 Which in their land all herbs consum'd, and all fruits of their ground.

36 He smote all first-born in their land, chief of their strength each one.

37 With gold and silver brought them forth, weak in their tribes were none.

38 Egypt was glad when forth they went,
their fear on them did light.

39 He spread a cloud for covering,
and fire to shine by night.

40 They ask'd, and he brought quails : with of heav'n he filled them. (bread

41 He open'd rocks, floods gush'd, and ran in deserts like a stream.

42 For on his holy promise he,
and servant Abr'ham, thought.

43 With joy his people, his elect with gladness, forth he brought.

44 And unto them the pleasant lands
he of the Heav'n gave ;
That of the people's labour they inheritance might have.

45 That they his statutes might observe according to his word ;
And that they might his laws obey.
Give praise unto the Lord.

PSALM CVI.

- 1 Give praise and thanks unto the Lord,
for bountiful is he;
His tender mercy doth endure
unto eternity.
- 2 God's mighty works who can express?
or shew forth all his praise?
- 3 Blessed are they that judgment keep,
and justly do always.
- 4 Remember me, Lord, with that love which thou to thine doest bear;
With thy salvation, O my God,
to visit me draw near:
- 5 That I thy chosen's good may see,
and in their joy rejoice;
And may with thine inheritance triumph with cheerful voice.
- 6 We with our fathers sinned have,
and of iniquity
Too long we have the workers been;
we have done wickedly.
- 7 The wonders great which thou, O Lord,
didst work in Egypt land,
Our fathers, though they saw, yet them
they did not understand:
And they thy mercies multitude kept not in memory;
But at the sea, ev'n the Red sea,
provok'd him grievously.
- 8 Nevertheless, he saved them,
ev'n for his own name's sake;
That so he might to be well known his mighty power make.
- 9 When he the Red sea did rebuke,
then dried up it was:
Through depths, as through the wilderness,
he safely made them pass.
- 10 From hands of those that hated them
he did his people save;
And from the en'my's cruel hand their redemption gave.
- 11 The waters overwhelm'd their foes;
not one was left alive.
- 12 Then they believ'd his word, and praise to him in songs did give.
- 13 But soon did they his mighty works
forget unthankfully,
And on his counsel and his will
did not wait patiently;
- 14 But much did lust in wilderness,
and God in desert tempt.
- 15 He gave them what they sought, but to their soul he leanness sent.
- 16 And against Moses in the camp their envy did appear;
At Aaron they, the saint of God, envious also were.
- 17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour,
And all Abiram's company
did cover in that hour.
- 18 Like wildfire among their company a fire was kindled then;
And so the hot consuming flame burnt up these wicked men.
- 19 Upon the hill of Horeb they an idol-calf did frame,
A molten image they did make,
and worshipp'd the same.
- 20 And thus their glory, and their God, most vainly changed they Into the likeness of an ox that eateth grass or hay.
- 21 They did forget the mighty God,
that had their Saviour been,
By whom such great things brought to pass
they had in Egypt seen.

PSALMS CVI, CVII.

- 22 In Ham's land he did wondrous works, things terrible did he,
When he his mighty hand and arm stretch'd out at the Red sea.
- 23 Then said he, He would them destroy,
had not, his wrath to stay,
His chosen Moses stood in breach,
that them he should not slay.
- 24 Yea, they despis'd the pleasant land,
believ'd not his word:
- 25 But in their tents they murmured, not heark'ning to the Lord.
- 26 Therefore in desert them to slay
he lifted up his hand:
- 27 'Mong nations to o'erthrow their seed,
and scatter in each land.
- 28 They unto Baal-peor did themselves associate;
The sacrifices of the dead
they did profanely eat.
- 29 Thus, by their lewd inventions,
they did provoke his ire;
And then upon them suddenly the plague brake in as fire.
- 30 Then Phin' has rose, and justice did,
and so the plague did cease:
- 31 That to all ages counted was to him for righteousness.
- 32 And at the waters, where they drove,
they did him angry make,
In such sort, that it fared ill
with Moses for their sake:
- 33 Because they there his spirit meek
provoked bitterly,
So that he utter'd with his lips words unadvisedly.
- 34 Nor, as the Lord commanded them,
did they the nations slay:
- 35 But with the Heathen mingled were,
and learn'd of them their way.
- 36 And they their idols serv'd, which did a snare unto them turn.
- 37 Their sons and daughters they to dev'ls in sacrifice did burn.
- 38 In their own children's guiltless blood their hands they did imbrue, Whom to Canaan's idols they for sacrifices flew:
- 39 So was the land defil'd with blood.
They stain'd with their own way,
And with their own inventions
a whoring they did stray.
- 40 Against his people kindled was the wrath of God therefore,
Inasmuch that he did his own inheritance abhor.
- 41 He gave them to the Heathen's hand;
their foes did them command.
- 42 Their en'mies them oppress'd, they were made subject to their hand.
- 43 He many times deliver'd them,
but with their counsel so They him provok'd, that for their sin they were brought very low.
- 44 Yet their affliction he beheld,
when he did hear their cry:
- 45 And he for them his covenant
did call to memory;
After his mercies multitude
he did repent: And made Them to be pity'd of all those who did them captive lead.
- 46 O Lord our God, us save, and gather the Heathen from among,
That we thy holy name may praise
in a triumphant song.

- 48 Bless'd be JEHOVAH, Isr'el's God,
to all eternity:
Let all the people say, Amen.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CVII.

- 1 Praise God, for he is good: for still his mercies lasting be.
- 2 Let God's redeem'd say fo, whom he from th' en'my's hand did free:
- 3 And gather'd them out of the lands, from north, south, east, and west.
- 4 They stray'd in desert's pathless way,
no city found to rest.
- 5 For thirst and hunger in them faints
6 their soul. When straits them press,
They cry unto the Lord, and he them frees from their distress.
- 7 Them also in a way to walk that right is he did guide,
That they might to a city go,
wherein they might abide.
- 8 O that men to the Lord would give praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men!
- 9 For he the soul that longing is doth fully satisfy;
With goodness he the hungry soul
doth fill abundantly.
- 10 Such as shut up in darkness deep,
and in death's shade abide,
Whom strongly hath affliction bound,
and irons fast have ty'd:
- 11 (Because against the words of God
they wrought rebelliously,
And they the counsel did condemn
of him that is most High:)
- 12 Their heart he did bring down with grief;
they fell, no help could have:
- 13 In trouble then they cry'd to God,
he them from straits did save.
- 14 He out of darkness did them bring,
and from death's shade them take;
These bands wherewith they had been bound asunder quite he brake.
- 15 O that men to the Lord would give
praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men!
- 16 Because the mighty gates of brass
in pieces he did tear,
By him in sunder also cut the bars of iron were.
- 17 Fools, for their sin, and their offence;
do sore affliction bear;
- 18 All kind of meat their soul abhors;
they to death's gates draw near;
- 19 In grief they cry to God; he saves them from their miseries.
- 20 He sends his word, them heals, and them from their destruction frees.
- 21 O that men to the Lord would give
praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men!
- 22 And let them sacrifice to him
off'rings of thankfulness;
And let them shew abroad his works in songs of joyfulness.
- 23 Who go to sea in ships, and in great waters trading be,
- 24 Within the deep these men God's works and his great wonders see.
- 25 For he commands, and forth in haste
the stormy tempest flies,
Which makes the sea with rolling waves aloft to swell and rise.

10 They mount to hear'n, then to the depths
they do go down again ;
Their feet doth faint, and melt away,
with trouble and with pain.
11 They reel and stagger like one drunk, at their wits' end they be :
12 Then they to God in trouble cry, who them from straits doth free.
13 The storm is chang'd into a calm at his command and will ;
So that the waves, which rag'd before,
now quiet are and still.
14 Then are they glad, because at rest and quiet now they be :
So to the haven he them brings,
which they desir'd to see.

15 O that men to the Lord would give
praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men !

16 Among the people gathered let them exalt his name ; Among assembled elders spread his most renowned fame.

17 He to dry land turns water-springs, and floods to wilderness :

18 For sins of those that dwell therein,
fat land to barrenness.

19 The burnt and parched wilderness to water-pools he brings,
The ground that was dry'd up before he turns to water-springs :

20 And there, for dwelling, he a place doth to the hungry give,
That they a city may prepare commodiously to live.

21 There sow they fields, and vineyards plant, to yield fruits of increase.

22 His blessing makes them multiply, lets not their beasts decrease.

23 Again they are diminished, and very low brought down,
Through sorrow and affliction, and great oppression.

24 He upon princes pours contempt,
and casteth them to stray,
And wander in a wilderness,
wherein there is no way.

25 Yet fetcheth he the poor on high from all his miseries,
And he, much like unto a flock,
doth make him families.

26 They that are righteous shall rejoice, when they the fame shall see :
And, as ashamed, stop her mouth shall all iniquity.

27 Winde is wife, and will these things observe, and them record,
For they shall understand the love and kindness of the Lord.

P S A L M CVIII.

1 My heart is fix'd, Lord, I will sing,
and with my glory praise.

2 Awake up, psaltery and harp ;
sound it in thy early raise.

3 I'll praise thee among the people, Lord ;
"mong nations thou wilt I :

4 For above heav'n thy mercy's great,
thy truth doth reach the sky.

5 Be thou above the heavens, Lord, exalted gloriously.

6 Thy glory all the earth above doth praise up on high.

7 That trust who thy beloved are delivered may be,

8 So thou save with thy right hand,
and answer give to me.

7 God in his holiness hath said,
Herein I will take pleasure ;

Shechem I will divide, and forth
will Succoth's valley measure ;

8 Gilead I claim as mine by right ;
Manasseh mine shall be ;

9 Ephraim is of my head the strength ;
Judah gives laws for me ;

10 Moab's my washing-pot ; my shoe
I'll over Edom throw ;

Over the land of Palestine
I will in triumph go.

11 O who is he will bring me to the city fortify'd ?

O who is he that to the land
of Edom will me guide ?

12 O God, thou who hadst cast us off,
this thing wilt thou not do :
And wilt not thou, ev'n thou, O God,
forth with our armies go ?

13 O thou from trouble give us help,
for helpless is man's aid.

14 Through God we shall do valiantly ;
our foes he shall down tread.

P S A L M CIX.

1 O Thou the God of all my praise,
do thou not hold thy peace ;

2 For mouths of wicked men to speak against me do not cease :

The mouths of vile deceitful men against me open'd be ;

And with a false and lying tongue
they have accused me.

3 They did bestir me round about with words of hateful spite :
And though to them no cause I gave,
against me they did fight.

4 They for my love became my foes,
but I me let to pray.

5 Evil for good, hatred for love,
to me they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him ;
and upon his right hand

Give thou his greatest enemy, ev'n Satan, leave to stand.

7 And when by thee he shall be judg'd, let him condemned be ;

And let his pray'r be turn'd to sin,
when he shall call on thee.

8 Few be his days, and in his room his charge another take.

9 His children let be fatherless, his wife a widow make.

10 His children let be vagabonds,
and beg continually ;

And from their places desolate seek bread for their supply.

11 Let covetous extortioners catch all he hath away :

Of all for which he labour'd hath let strangers make a prey.

12 Let there be none to pity him, let there be none at all

That on his children fatherless will let his mercy fall.

13 Let his posterity from earth cut off for ever be,

And in the full-wing age their name
be blotted out by thee.

14 Let God his father's wickedness fill to remembrance call ;

And never let his mother's sin be blotted out at all.

15 But let them all before the Lord appear continually,

That he may wholly from the earth
cut off their memory.

16 Because he mercy minded not,
but persecuted still

The poor and needy, that he might the broken-hearted kill.

17 As he in curling pleasure took,
so let it to him fall ;

As he delighted not to bless,
so bless him not at all.

18 As cursing he like clothes put on,
into his bowels fo,

Like water, and into his bones,
like oil, down let it go.

19 Like to the garment let it be which doth himself array,

And for a girdle wherewith he is girt about alway.

20 From God let this be their reward
that enemies are to me,

And their reward that speak against my soul maliciously.

21 But do thou, for thine own name's sake,
O God the Lord, for me :

Sith good and sweet thy mercy is,
from trouble set me free.

22 For I am poor and indigent, afflicted sore am I,

My heart within me also is wounded exceedingly.

23 I pass like a declining shade,
am like the locust toll :

24 My knees through fasting weaken'd are,
my flesh hath fatness lost.

25 I also am a vile reproach unto them made to be ;

And they that did upon me look did shake their heads at me.

26 O do thou help and succour me,
who art my God and Lord :

And, for thy tender mercy's sake, safety to me afford.

27 That thereby they may know that this is thy almighty hand ;

And that thou, Lord, hast done the same,
they may well understand.

28 Although they curse with spite, yet, Lord, bless thou with loving voice :

Let them ashamed be when they rise ;
thy servant let rejoice.

29 Let thou mine adversaries all with shame be clothed over ;

And let their own confusion them, as a mantle, cover.

30 But as for me, I with my mouth will greatly praise the Lord ;

And I among the multitude his praises will record.

31 For he shall stand at his right hand who is in poverty,

To save him from all those that would condemn his soul to die.

P S A L M CX.

1 The Lord did say unto my Lord,
Sit thou at my right hand,

Until I make thy foes a stool, whereon thy feet may stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the rod of thy thine enemies

In midst of all thine enemies be thou the governor.

3 A willing people, in thy day of pow'r, shall come to thee,

In holy beauties from morn's womb ;
thy youth like dew shall be.

4 The Lord himself hath made an oath, and will repent him never,

Of th' order of Melchisedec
thou art a priest for ever.

5 The glorious and mighty Lord,
that sits at thy right hand, Shall, in his day of wrath, strike through kings that do him withstand.
6 He shall among the Heathen judge,
he shall with bodies dead
The places fill: o'er many lands
he wound shall ev'ry head.
7 The brook that runneth in the way with drink shall him supply:
And, for this cause, in triumph he shall lift his head on high.

P S A L M CXI.

1 Praise ye the Lord: with my whole heart
I will God's praise declare, Where the assemblies of the just and congregations are.
2 The whole works of the Lord our God are great above all measure, Sought out they are of ev'ry one that doth therein take pleasure.
3 His work most honourable is,
most glorious and pure,
And his unsainted righteousness for ever shall endure.
4 His works most wonderful he hath made to be thought upon:
The Lord is gracious, and he is full of compassion.
5 He giveth meat unto all those that truly do him fear;
And evermore his covenant
he in his mind will bear.
6 He did the power of his works unto his people show,
When he the Heathen's heritage upon them did bestow.
7 His handy-works are truth and right;
all his commands are sure:
8 And, done in truth and uprightness,
they evermore endure.
9 He sent redemption to his folk;
his covenant for aye
He did command: holy his name and rev'rend is alway.
10 Wisdom's beginning is God's fear:
good understanding they Have all that his commands fulfil:
his praise endures for aye.

P S A L M CXII.

1 Praise ye the Lord. The man is blest'd that fears the Lord aright,
He who in his commandments doth greatly take delight.
2 His seed and offspring powerful shall be the earth upon:
Of upright men blest'd shall be the generation.
3 Riches and wealth shall ever be within his house in store:
And his unsupported righteousness endures for evermore.
4 Unto the upright light doth rise, though he in darkness be:
Compassionate, and merciful, and righteous, is he.
5 A good man doth his favour shew,
and doth to others lend:
He with discretion his affairs will guide unto the end.
6 Surely there is not any thing that ever shall him move:
The righteous man's memorial shall everlasting prove.
7 When he shall evil tidings hear,
he shall not be afraid:
His heart is fix'd, his confidence
upon the Lord is stay'd.

8 His heart is firmly stablished, afraid he shall not be,
Until upon his enemies
his desire shall see.
9 He hath differe'd, giv'n to the poor, his righteousness shall be To ages all; with honour shall his horn be raised high.
10 The wicked shall it see, and fret,
his teeth gnash, melt away:
What wicked men do melt: desire shall utterly decay.

P S A L M CXIII.

1 Praise God, ye servants of the Lord,
O praise, the Lord's name praise.
2 Yea, blest'd be the name of God from this time forth always.
3 From rising sun to where it sets,
God's name is to be prais'd.
4 Above all nations God is high,
'bove heav'n his glory rais'd.
5 Unto the Lord our God, that dwells on high, who can compare?
6 Himself that humbleth things to see in heav'n and earth that are.
7 He from the dust doth raise the poor,
that very low doth lie;
And from the dunghill lifts the man
oppress'd with poverty;
8 That he may highly him advance,
and with the princes set;
With those that of his people are the chief, ev'n princes great.
9 The barren woman house to keep he maketh, and to be
Of sons a mother full of joy.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

P S A L M CXIV.

1 When Israel out of Egypt went,
and did his dwelling change,
When Jacob's house went out from those that were of language strange, 2 He Judah did his sanctuary,
his kingdom Israel make:
3 The sea it saw, and quickly fled,
Jordan was driven back.
4 Like rams the mountains, and like lambs
the hills skip'd to and fro.
5 O sea, why fled'st thou? Jordan, back why wast thou driven fo?
6 Ye mountains great, wherefore was it that ye did skip like rams?
And wherefore was it, little hills,
that ye did leap like lambs?
7 O at the presence of the Lord, earth, tremble thou for fear, While as the presence of the God of Jacob doth appear:
8 Who from the hard and stony rock
did standing water bring;
And by his pow'r did turn the flint into a water-spring.

P S A L M CXV.

1 Not unto us, Lord, not to us, but do thou glory take Unto thy name, ev'n for thy truth,
and for thy mercy's sake.
2 O wherefore should the Heathen say,
Where is their God now gone?
3 But our God in the heavens is,
what pleas'd him he hath done.
4 Their idols silver are and gold, work of men's hands they be.
5 Mouths have they, but they do not speak;
and eyes, but do not see:
6 Ears have they, but they do not hear;
nooses, not favour not;
7 Hands, feet, but handle not, nor walk;
nor speak they through their throat.

8 Like them their makers are, and all on them their trust that build.
9 O Israel, trust thou in the Lord,
he is their help and shield.
10 O Aaron's house, trust in the Lord, their help and shield is he.
11 Ye that fear God, trust in the Lord, their help and shield he'll be.
12 The Lord of us hath mindful been,
and he will bless us still:
He will the house of Israel bless,
bless Aaron's house he will.
13 Both small and great, that fear the Lord,
he will them surely bless.
14 The Lord will you, you and your feed, ay more and more increase.
15 O blest'd are ye of the Lord, who made the earth and heav'n.
16 The heav'n, ev'n heav'n are God's, but he earn to men's sons hath giv'n.
17 The dead, nor who to silence go,
God's praise do not record.
18 But henceforth we for ever will bless God. Praise ye the Lord.

P S A L M CXVI.

1 I Love the Lord, because my voice and prayers he did hear 2 I, while I live, will call on him, who bow'd to me his ear.
3 Of death the cords and sorrows did about me compass round,
The pains of hell took hold on me:
I grief and trouble found.
4 Upon the name of God the Lord
then did I call, and say, Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.
5 God merciful and righteous is,
yea, gracious is our Lord.
6 God saves the meek: I was brought low;
he did me help afford.
7 O thou my soul, do thou return unto thy quiet rest;
For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath express'd.
8 For my distressed soul from death
deliver'd was by thee:
Thou didst my mourning eyes from tears;
my feet from falling free.
9 I in the land of those that live will walk the Lord before.
10 I did believe, therefore I spake:
I was afflicted sore.
11 I said, when I was in my haste, that all men bars be.
12 What shall I render to the Lord for all his gifts to me?
13 I'll of salvation take the cup,
on God's name will I call:
14 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
before his people all.
15 Dear in God's sight is his saints' death.
16 Thy servant, Lord, am I;
Thy servant sure, thine handmaid's son:
my hands thou didst untie 17 Thank-off'rings I to thee will give,
and on God's name will call.
18 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
before his people all:
19 With'n the courts of God's own house,
within the midst of thee,
O city of Jerusalem.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

P S A L M CXVII.

1 O Give ye praise unto the Lord,
all nations that be;
Likewise, ye people all, accord
his name to magnify.

2 For great to us-ward ever are his loving-kindnesses:
His truth endures for evermore.
The Lord O do ye bleis.

P S A L M CXVIII.

1 O Praise the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy faileth ever.
2 Let those of Israel now say,
His mercy faileth never.
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
His mercy faileth ever.
4 Let those that fear the Lord now say,
His mercy faileth never.
5 I in distresses call'd on the Lord;
the Lord did answer me:
He in a large place did me set,
from trouble made me free.
6 The mighty Lord is on my side,
I will not be afraid;
For any thing that man can do
I shall not be dismay'd.
7 The Lord doth take my part with them that help to succour me:
Therefore on those that do me hate
I my desire shall see.
8 Better it is to trust in God than trust in man's defence; 9 Better to trust in God than make princes our confidence.
10 The nations, joining all in one,
did compass me about;
But in the Lord's most holy name
I shall them all root out.
11 They compass'd me about: I say,
they compass'd me about:
But in the Lord's most holy name
I shall them all root out.
12 Like bees they compass'd me about;
like unto thorns that flame
They quenched are: for them shall I destroy in God's own name.
13 Thou sore hast thrullt, that I might fall, but my Lord helped me.
14 God my salvation is become,
my strength and song is he.
15 In dwellings of the righteous is heard the melody
Of joy and health: the Lord's right hand
doth ever valiantly.
16 The right hand of the mighty Lord
exalted is on high;
The right hand of the mighty Lord
doth ever valiantly.
17 I shall not die, but live, and shall the works of God discover.
18 The Lord hath me chastised sore, but not to death giv'n over.
19 O set ye open unto me
the gates of righteousness;
Then will I enter into them,
and I the Lord will bleis.
20 This is the gate of God, by it
the just shall enter in.
21 Thee will I praise, for thou me heard'st, and hast my safety seen.
22 That stone is made a corner-stone, which builders did despise:
23 This is the doing of the Lord,
and wondrous in our eyes.
24 This is the day God made, in it we'll joy triumphantly.
25 Save now, I pray thee, Lord; I pray, send now prosper ry.
26 Blessed is he in God's great name that cometh unto save:
Who, from the hence which to the Lord pertains, you bleis'd have.

27 God is the Lord, who unto us hath made light to arise:
Bind ye unto the altar's horns with cords the sacrifice.
28 Thou art my God, I'll thee exalt;
my God, I will thee praise.
29 Give thanks to God, for he is good:
his mercy lasts always.

P S A L M CXIX.

A L E P H. The 1st Part.

1 Blessed are they that undefil'd, and straight are in the way;
Who in the Lord's most holy law
do walk, and do not stray.
2 Blessed are they who to observe his statutes are inclin'd;
And who do seek the living God with their whole heart and mind.
3 Such in his ways do walk, and they do no iniquity.
4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts carefully.
5 O that thy statutes to observe thou would'st my ways direct!
6 Then shall I not be sham'd, when I thy precepts all respect.
7 Then with integrity of heart thee will I praise and bleis,
When I the judgments all have learn'd of thy pure righteousness.
8 That I will keep thy statutes all firmly resolv'd have I:
O do not then, most gracious God, forsake me utterly.

B E T H. The 2d Part.

9 By what means shall a young man learn his way to purify?
If he according to thy word thereto attentive be.
10 Unfeignedly thee have I fought with all my soul and heart:
O let me not from the right path of thy commands depart.
11 Thy word I in my heart have hid,
that I offend not thee.
12 O Lord, thou ever blest art,
thy statutes teach thou me.
13 The judgments of thy mouth each one my lips declared have;
14 More joy thy testimonies' way than riches all me gave.
15 I will thy holy precepts make my meditation;
And carefully I'll have respect unto thy ways each one.
16 Upon thy statutes my delight shall constantly be set:
And, by thy grace, I never will thy holy word forget.

G I M E L. The 3d Part.

17 With me thy servant, in thy grace, deal bountifully, Lord;
That by thy favour I may live,
and duly keep thy word.
18 Open mine eyes, that of thy law
the wonders I may see.
19 I am a stranger on this earth,
hide not thy laws from me.
20 My soul within me breaks, and doth much fainting still endure, Though longing that it hath all times unto thy judgments pure.
21 Thou hast rebuk'd the cursed proud, who from thy precepts swerve.
22 Reproach and shame remove from me,
for I thy laws observe.

23 Against me princes spake with spite,
while they in council sat:
But I thy servant did upon thy statutes meditate.
24 My comfort, and my heart's delight, thy testimonies be;
And they, in all my doubts and fears,
are counsellors to me.

D A L E T H. The 4th Part.

25 My foul to dust cleaves: quicken me
according to thy word.
26 My ways I shew'd, and me thou heard'st;
teach me thy statutes, Lord.
27 The way of thy commandments make me aright to know;
So all thy works that wondrous are
I shall to others shew.
28 My soul doth melt, and drop away,
for heaviness and grief:
To me, according to thy word,
give strength, and send relief.
29 From me the wicked way of lyes let far removed be:
And graciously thy holy law
do thou grant unto me.
30 I chosen have the perfect way
of truth and verity:
Thy judgments that most righteous are before me laid have I.
31 I to thy testimonies cleave;
shame do not on me cast.
32 I'll run thy precepts' way, when thou my heart enlarged hast.

H E. The 5th Part.

33 Teach me, O Lord, the perfect way
of thy precepts divine,
And to observe it to the end
I shall my heart incline.
34 Give understanding unto me,
to keep thy law shall I; Yea, ev'n with my whole heart I shall observe it carefully.
35 In thy laws' path make me to go;
for I delight therein.
36 My heart unto thy testimonies, and not to greed, incline.
37 Turn thou away my sight and eyes from viewing vanity;
And in thy good and holy way
be pleas'd to quicken me.
38 Confirm to me thy gracious word,
which I did gladly hear, Ev'n to thy servant, Lord, who is devoted to thy fear.
39 Turn thou away my fear'd reproach;
for good thy judgments be.
40 I.o, for thy precepts I have long'd;
in thy truth quicken me.

V A U. The 6th Part.

41 Let thy sweet mercies also come and visit me, O Lord;
Ev'n thy benign salvation,
according to thy word.
42 So shall I have wherewith I may give him an answer just,
Who spitefully reproacheth me;
for in thy word I trust.
43 The word of truth out of my mouth take thou not utterly;
For on thy judgments righteous
my hope doth still rely.
44 So shall I keep for evermore thy law continually.
45 And, sith that I thy precepts seek,
I'll walk at liberty.
46 I'll speak thy word to kings, and I with shame shall not be mov'd; 47 And will delight myself always in thy laws, which I lov'd.

28 To thy commandments, which I lov'd, my hands lift up I will;
And I will also meditate upon thy statutes still.

Z A I N. The 7th Part.

49 Remember, Lord, thy gracious word
thou to thy servant spake,
Which, for a ground of my sure hope,
thou caus'dst me to take.
50 This word of thine my comfort is in mine affliction:
For in my straits I am reviv'd
by this thy word alone.
51 The men whose hearts with pride are stuff'd,
did greatly me deride:
Yet from thy straight commandments
I have not turn'd aside.
52 Thy judgments righteous, O Lord, which thou of old forth gave,
I did remember, and myself
by them comforted have.
53 Horror took hold on me, because ill men thy law forsake.
54 I in my house of pilgrimage thy laws my songs do make.
55 Thy name by night, Lord, I did mind,
and I have kept thy law.
56 And this I had, because thy word
I kept, and stood in awe.

C H E T H. The 8th Part.

57 Thou my sure portion art alone,
which I did chuse, O Lord:
I have resolv'd, and said, that I would keep thy holy word.
58 With my whole heart I did entreat thy face and favour free:
According to thy gracious word
be merciful to me.
59 I thought upon my former ways,
and did my life well try:
And to thy testimonies pure
my feet then turned I.
60 I did not stray, nor linger long,
as those that foolish are;
But hastily thy laws to keep myself I did prepare.
61 Bands of ill men me robb'd; yet I thy precepts did not slight.
62 I'll rise at midnight thee to praise,
ev'n for thy judgments right.
63 I am companion to all those who fear, and thee obey.
64 O Lord, thy mercy fills the earth:
teach me thy laws I pray.

T E T H. The 9th Part.

65 Well hast thou with thy servant dealt,
as thou didst promise give.
66 Good judgment me, and knowledge teach:
for I thy word believe.
67 Ere I afflicted was I stray'd;
but now I keep thy word.
68 Both good thou art, and good thou do'st:
teach me thy statutes, Lord.
69 The men that are puff'd up with pride against me forg'd a lie;
Yet thy commandments observe with my whole heart will I.
70 Their hearts thro' worldly ease and wealth,
as far as greas'd they be:
But in thy holy law I take delight continually.
71 It hath been very good for me that I afflicted was,
That I might well instructed be,
and learn thy holy laws.
72 The word that cometh from thy mouth is better unto me
Than many thousands and great sums of gold and silver be.

J O D. The 10th Part.

73 Thou mad'st and fashion'dst me: thy laws to know, give wisdom, Lord:
74 So who thee fear shall joy to see me trusting in thy word.
75 That very right thy judgments are
I know, and do confess;
And that thou hast afflicted me
in truth and faithfulness.
76 O let thy kindness merciful,
I pray thee, comfort me,
As to thy servant faithfully was promised by thee.
77 And let thy tender mercies come to me, that I may live:
Because thy holy laws to me
sweet delectation give.
78 Lord, let the proud ashamed be;
for they, without a cause,
With me perversely dealt; but I will muse upon thy laws.
79 Let such as fear thee, and have known thy statutes, turn to me.
80 My heart let in thy laws be found,
that sham'd I never be.

C A P H. The 11th Part.

81 My soul for thy salvation faints;
yet I thy word believe.
82 Mine eyes fail for thy word: I say,
When wilt thou comfort give?
83 For like a bottle I'm become,
that in the smoke is set:
I'm black, and parch'd with grief; yet I thy statutes not forget.
84 How many are thy servant's days?
when wilt thou execute Just judgment on these wicked men that do me persecute?
85 The proud have digged pits for me,
which is against thy laws.
86 Thy words all faithful are: help me, pursu'd without a cause.
87 They so consum'd me, that on earth
my life they scarce did leave:
Thy precepts yet forsook I not,
but close to them did cleave.
88 After thy loving-kindness, Lord,
me quicken, and preserve:
The testimony of thy mouth
for that I still observe.

L A M E D. The 12th Part.

89 Thy word for ever is, O Lord,
in heaven settled fast:
90 Unto all generations
thy faithfulness doth last:
The earth thou hast established,
and it abides by thee.
91 This day they stand as thou ordain'd'st,
for all thy servants be.
92 Unless in thy most perfect law
my soul delights had found,
I should have perished, when as my troubles did abound.
93 Thy precepts I will ne'er forget;
they quick'ning to me brought.
94 Lord, I am thine; O save thou me:
thy precepts I have sought.
95 For me the wicked have laid wait, me seeking to destroy:
But I thy testimonies true
consider will with joy.
96 And of all perfect on here have I seen, O God:
But as for thy commendment,
it is exceeding broad.

M E M. The 13th Part.

97 O how love I thy law! it is my study all the day:
98 It makes me wiser than my foes:
for it doth with me slay.
99 Than all my teachers now I have more understanding far;
Because my meditation
thy testimonies are.
100 In understanding I excel
those that are ancients;
For I endeavour'd to keep all thy commandments.
101 My feet from each ill way I stay'd, that I may keep thy word.
102 I from thy judgments have not swerv'd;
for thou hast taught me, Lord.
103 How sweet unto my taste, O Lord, are all thy words of truth!
Yea, I do find them sweeter far than honey to my mouth.
104 I through thy precepts, that are pure,
do understanding get:
I therefore ev'ry way that's false with all my heart do hate.

N U N. The 14th Part.

105 Thy word is to my feet a lamp,
and to my path a light.
106 I sworn have, and I will perform, to keep thy judgments right.
107 I am with sore affliction
even overwhelm'd, O Lord:
In mercy raise and quicken me,
according to thy word.
108 The free-will-off'rings of my mouth accept, I thee beseech:
And unto me thy servant, Lord,
thy judgments clearly teach.
109 Though still my soul be in my hand,
thy laws I'll not forget.
110 I err'd not from them, though for me
the wicked snares did set.
111 I of thy testimonies have above all things made choice,
To be my heritage for ay;
for they my heart rejoice.
112 I carefully inclined have my heart still to attend;
That I thy statutes may perform always unto the end.

S A M E C H. The 15th Part.

113 I hate the thoughts of vanity,
but love thy law do I.
114 My shield and hiding-place thou art:
I on thy word rely.
115 All ye that evil-doers are,
from me depart away;
For the commandments of my God
I purpose to obey.
116 According to thy faithful word
uphold and stablish me,
That I may live, and of my hope ashamed never be.
117 Hold thou me up, so shall I be in peace and safety still;
And to thy statutes have respect continually I will.
118 Thou tread'st down all that love to stray;
false their deceit dost prove.
119 Lewd men, like dross, away thou putt'st;
therefore thy law I love.
120 For fear of thee my very flesh
doth tremble, all dismay'd;
And of thy righteous judgments, Lord,
my soul is much afraid.

A I N. The 16th Part.

- 121 To all men I have judgment done,
performing justice right;
Then let me not be left unto my fierce oppressors' might.
- 122 For good unto thy servant, Lord,
thy servant's surety be:
From the oppression of the proud
do thou deliver me.
- 123 Mine eyes do fail with looking long for thy salvation,
The word of thy pure righteousness
while I do wait upon.
- 124 In mercy with thy servant deal,
thy laws me teach and show.
- 125 I am thy servant, wisdom give,
that I thy laws may know.
- 126 'Tis time thou work, Lord, for they have made void thy law divine.
- 127 Therefore thy precepts more I love than gold, yea, gold most fine.
- 128 Concerning all things thy commands
all right I judge therefore;
And every false and wicked way
I perfectly abhor.

P E. The 17th Part.

- 129 Thy statutes, Lord, are wonderful,
my soul them keeps with care.
- 130 The entrance of thy words gives light, makes wise who simple are.
- 131 My mouth I have wide opened,
and panted earnestly,
While after thy commandments
I long'd exceedingly.
- 132 Look on me, Lord, and merciful do thou unto me prove,
As thou art wont to do to those thy name who truly love.
- 133 O let my footsteps in thy word
aright still order'd be:
Let no iniquity obtain
dominion over me.
- 134 From man's oppression save thou me;
so keep thy laws I will.
- 135 Thy face make on thy servant shine;
teach me thy statutes still.
- 136 Rivers of waters from mine eyes did run down, when I saw How wicked men run on in sin,
and do not keep thy law.

T S A D D I. The 18th Part.

- 137 O Lord, thou art most righteous;
thy judgments are upright.
- 138 Thy testimonies thou command'st most faithful and are right.
- 139 My zeal hath ev'n consumed me, because mine enemies Thy holy words forgotten have,
and do thy laws despise.
- 140 Thy word's most pure, therefore on it thy servant's love is set.
- 141 Small, and despis'd I am, yet I thy precepts not forget.
- 142 Thy righteousness is righteousness,
which ever doth endure:
Thy holy law, Lord, also is the very truth most pure.
- 143 Trouble and anguish have me found,
and taken hold on me:
Yet in my trouble my delight thy just commandments be.
- 144 Eternal righteousness is in thy testimonies all;
Lord, to me understanding give,
and ever live I shall.

K O P H. The 19th Part.

- 145 With my whole heart I cry'd, Lord, hear;
I will thy word obey.
- 146 I cry'd to thee; save me, and I will keep thy laws alway.
- 147 I of the morning did prevent the dawning, and did cry:
For all mine expectation
did on thy word rely.
- 148 Mine eyes did timeously prevent the watches of the night,
That in thy word with careful mind
then meditate I might.
- 149 After thy loving-kindness hear my voice, that calls on thee:
According to thy judgment, Lord,
revive and quicken me.
- 150 Who follow mischief they draw nigh;
they from thy law are far:
- 151 But thou art near, Lord; most firm truth
all thy commandments are.
- 152 As for thy testimonies all,
of old this have I cry'd,
That thou hast surely founded them for ever to abide.

R E S H. The 20th Part.

- 153 Consider mine affliction,
in safety do me set:
Deliver me, O Lord, for I thy law do not forget.
- 154 After thy word revive thou me;
save me, and plead my cause.
- 155 Salvation is from sinners far;
for they seek not thy laws.
- 156 O Lord, both great and manifold thy tender mercies be:
According to thy judgments just revive and quicken me.
- 157 My persecutors many are,
and foes that do combine:
Yet from thy testimonies pure
my heart doth not decline.
- 158 I saw transgressors, and was griev'd:
for they kept not thy word.
- 159 See how I love thy law! as thou art kind, me quicken, Lord.
- 160 From the beginning all thy word hath been most true and sure;
Thy righteous judgments every one for evermore endure.

S C H I N. The 21st Part.

- 161 Princes have persecuted me,
although no cause they saw:
But still of thy most holy word
my heart doth stand in awe.
- 162 I at thy word rejoice, as one of spoil that finds great store.
- 163 Thy law I love, but lying all
I hate and do abhor.
- 164 Seven times a day it is my care
to give due praise to thee:
Because of all thy judgments, Lord, which righteous ever be.
- 165 Great peace have they who love thy law:
offence they shall have none.
- 166 I hope for thy salvation, Lord,
and thy commands have done.
- 167 My soul thy testimonies pure observed carefully:
On them my heart is set, and them
I love exceedingly.
- 168 Thy testimonies and thy laws
I kept with special care;
For all my words and ways each one before thee open are.

T A U. The 22d Part.

- 169 O let my earnest prayer
come near before thee, Lord:
Give understanding unto me,
according to thy word.
- 170 Let my request before thee come:
after thy word me free.
- 171 My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught thy laws to me.
- 172 My tongue of thy most blessed word shall speak, and it confess:
Because all thy commandments are perfect righteousness.
- 173 Let thy strong hand make help to me;
thy precepts are my choice.
- 174 I long'd for thy salvation, Lord,
and in thy law rejoice.
- 175 O let my soul live, and it shall give praise to thee;
And let thy judgments gracious be helpful unto me.
- 176 I, like a lost sheep, went astray;
thy servant seek, and find:
For thy commands I suffer'd not to slip out of my mind.

P S A L M CXX.

- 1 In my distress to God I cry'd, and he gave ear to me.
- 2 From lying lips, and guileful tongue,
O Lord, my soul let free.
- 3 What shall be given thee, or what shall be done to thee, false tongue?
- 4 Ev'n burning coals of juniper, sharp arrows of the strong.
- 5 Woe's me that I in Mesek am a sojourner so long;
That I in tabernacles dwell to Kedar that belong.
- 6 My soul with him that hateth peace hath long a dweller been.
- 7 I am for peace: but when I speak, for battle they are keen.

P S A L M CXXI.

- 1 To the hills will lift mine eyes,
from whence doth come mine aid.
- 2 My safety cometh from the Lord, who heav'n and earth hath made.
- 3 Thy foot he'll not let slide, nor will he stumble that thee keeps.
- 4 Behold, he that keeps Israel,
he slumbers not nor sleeps.
- 5 The Lord thee keeps, the Lord thy shade on thy right hand doth stay:
- 6 The moon by night thee shall not smite,
nor yet the sun by day.
- 7 The Lord shall keep thy soul; he shall preserve thee from all ill.
- 8 Henceforth thy going out and in,
God keep for ever will.

P S A L M CXXII.

- 1 Joy'd when to the house of God,
Go up, they said to me.
- 2 Jerusalem, within thy gates our feet shall standing be.
- 3 Jerusalem as a city is compactly built together:
- 4 Unto that place the tribes go up,
the tribes of God go thither:
- To lift eke's testimony, there to God's name thanks to pay.
- 5 For thrones of judgment, ev'n the thrones of David's house, there stay.
- 6 Pray that Jerusalem may have peace and felicity:
Let them that love thee and thy peace have still prosperity.

7 Therefore I wish that peace may still within thy walls remain,
And ever may thy palaces prosperity retain 8 Now, for my friends' and brethren's sakes,
Peace be in thee, I'll say.
9 And for the house of God our Lord,
I'll feel thy good alway.

P S A L M CXXIII.

1 O Thou that dwellest in the heav'ns,
I lift mine eyes to thee.
2 Behold, as servants' eyes do look,
their masters hand to fee,
As handmaids' eyes nor mistress' hand;
so do our eyes attend
Upon the Lord our God, until to us he mercy send.
3 O Lord, be gracious to us, unto us gracious be;
Because replenish'd with contempt exceedingly are we.
4 Our soul is fill'd with scorn of those that at their ease abide,
And with the insolent contempt of those that swell in pride.

P S A L M CXXIV.

1 H Ad not the Lord been on our side,
may Israel now fay;
2 Had not the Lord been on our side,
when men rose us to slay;
3 They had us swallow'd quick, when as their wrath 'gainst us did flame:
4 Waters had cover'd us, our soul had sunk beneath the stream.
5 Then had the waters, swelling high,
over our soul made way.
6 Bless'd be the Lord, who to their teeth us gave not for a prey.
7 Our soul's escap'd, as a bird,
out of the fowler's snare:
The snare asunder broken is,
and we escap'd are.
8 Our sure and all-sufficient help is in J E H O V A H's name:
His name who did the heav'n create,
and who the earth did frame.

Another of the same.

1 N OW Israel
may say, and that truly,
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd;
2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd, When cruel men against us furiously Rose up in wrath,
to make of us their prey;
3 Then certainly they had devour'd us all,
And swallow'd quick,
for ought that we could deem:
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem.
4 And as fierce floods before them all things drown, So had they brought our soul to drown quite down.
5 The rising streams,
with their proud swelling waves,
Had then our soul
o'erwhelm'd in the deep.
6 But bless'd be God,
who doth us safely keep,
And hath not giv'n
as for a living prey Unto their teeth,
and bloody cruelty.

7 Ev'n as a bird
out of the fowler's snare Escapes away,
so is our soul set free:
8 Broke are their nets,
and thus escap'd we.
9 Therefore our help is in the Lord's great name, Who heav'n and earth
by his great pow'r did frame.

P S A L M CXXV.

1 T H EY in the Lord that firmly trust shall be like Zion hill,
Which at no time can be remov'd, but standeth ever still.
2 As round about Jerusalem
the mountains stand alway,
The Lord his folk doth compass from henceforth and for ay.
3 For ill men's rod upon the lot of just men shall not lie;
Let righteous men stretch forth their hands unto iniquity.
4 Do thou to all those that be good thy goodness, Lord, impart;
And do thou good to those that are upright within their heart.
5 But as for such as turn aside
after their crooked way,
God shall lead forth with wicked men:
on Israel's peace shall stay.

P S A L M CXXVI.

1 W H E N Sion's bondage God turn'd back, as men that dream'd were we.
2 Then fill'd with laughter was our mouth,
our tongue with melody:
They 'mong the Heathen said, The Lord great things for them hath wrought.
3 The Lord hath done great things for us, whence joy to us is brought.
4 As freams of water in the fouth, our bondage, Lord, recall.
5 Who sow in tears, a reaping-time of joy enjoy they shall.
6 That man who, bearing precious seed,
in going forth doth mourn,
He doubtless bringing back his sheaves, rejoicing shall return.

P S A L M CXXVII.

1 E XCEPT the Lord do build the house,
the builders lose their pain:
Except the Lord the city keep,
the watchmen watch in vain.
2 'Tis vain for you to rise betimes, or late from rest to keep,
To feed on sorrows' bread; so gives his beloved sleep.
3 Lo, children are God's heritage,
the womb's fruit his reward.
4 The sons of youth as arrows are,
for strong men's hands prepar'd.
5 O happy is the man that hath his quiver fill'd with those;
They unarm'd in the gate shall speak unto their foes.

P S A L M CXXVIII.

1 B LESS'D is each one that fears the Lord,
and walketh in his ways:
2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat, and happy be always.
3 Thy wife shall as a fruitful vine
by thy house's sides be found:
Thy children like to olive-plants about thy table round.
4 Behold, the man that fears the Lord
thus bless'd shall he be.
5 The Lord shall out of Sion give his blessing unto thee:

Thou shalt Jerusalem's good behold whilst thou on earth dost dwell.

6 Thou shalt thy children's children see,
and peace on Israel.

P S A L M CXXIX.

1 O F T did they vex me from my youth,
may I feel it now declare:
2 Oft did they vex me from my youth,
yet not victorious were.
3 The plowers plow'd upon my back;
they long their furrows drew.
4 The righteous Lord did cut the cords of the ungodly crew.
5 Let Sion's haters all be turn'd back with confusion.
6 As grass on houses' tops be they,
which fades ere it be grown:
7 Whereof enough to fill his hand
the mower cannot find;
Nor can the man his bosom fill,
whose work is heaves to bind.
8 Neither say they who do go by,
God's blessing on you rest:
We in the name of God the Lord do wish you to be blest.

P S A L M CXXX.

1 L ORD, from the depths thence I cry'd.
2 My voice, Lord, do thou hear:
Unto my supplication's voice
give an attentive ear.
3 Lord, who shall stand, if thou, O Lord,
shouldst mark iniquity?
4 But yet with thee forgiveness is,
that fear'd thou mayest be.
5 I wait for God, my soul doth wait,
my hope is in his word.
6 More than they that for morning watch,
my soul waits for the Lord;
I say, more than they that do watch
the morning light to see.
7 Let Israel hope in the Lord, for with him mercies be;
And plenteous redemption is ever found with him.
8 And from all his iniquities
he Israel shall redeem.

P S A L M CXXXI.

1 M Y heart not haughty is, O Lord, mine eyes not lofty be Nor do I deal in matters great,
or things too high for me.
2 I surely have myself behav'd with quiet spirit and mild,
As child of mother wean'd: my soul is like a weaned child.
3 Upon the Lord let all the hope of Israel rely,
Ev'n from the time that present is unto eternity.

P S A L M CXXXII.

1 D AVID, and his afflictions all,
Lord, do thou think upon:
2 How unto God he sware, and vow'd to Jacob's mighty One.
3 I will not come within my house,
nor rest in bed at all;
4 Nor shall mine eyes take any sleep, nor eyelids slumber shall;
5 Till for the Lord a place I find,
where he may make abode;
A place of habitation
for Jacob's mighty God.
6 Lo, at the place of Ephraim of it we understand:
And we did find it in the fields,
and city of the wood.

- 7 We'll go into his tabernacles,
and at his footstool bow.
8 Arise, O Lord, into thy rest,
th' ark of thy strength, and thou.
9 O let thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness;
And let all those that are thy saints shout loud for joyfulness.
10 For thine own favour David's sake,
do not deny thy grace:
Nor of thine own accord one turn thee away the face.
11 The Lord in truth to David sware,
he will not turn from it,
I of thy body's fruit will make upon thy throne to sit.
12 My covenant if thy sons will keep,
and laws to them made known,
Their children then shall also fit for ever on thy throne.
13 For God of Zion hath made choice:
there he desires to dwell.
14 This is my rest, here till I'll stay;
for I do like it well.
15 Her food I'll greatly bless; her poor with bread will satisfy.
16 Her priests I'll clothe with health; her saints shall shout forth joyfully.
17 And there will I make David's horn to bud forth pleasantly:
For him that mine anointed is a lamp ordain'd have I.
18 As with a garment I will clothe with flame his enemies all:
But yet the crown that he doth wear upon him flourish shall.

P S A L M CXXXIII.

- 1 Behold, how good a thing it is,
and how becoming well, Together such as brethren are in unity to dwell!
2 Like precious ointment on the head,
that down the beard did flow, Ev'n Aaron's beard, and to the skirts did of his garments go.
3 As Hermon's dew, the dew that doth on Zion hills descend:
For there the blessing God commands, life that shall never end.

P S A L M CXXXIV.

- 1 Behold, bless ye the Lord, all ye that his attendants are,
Ev'n you that in God's temple be,
and praise him nightly there.
2 Year hands within God's holy place lift up, and praise his name.
3 From Zion still the Lord three bless, that heav'n and earth did frame.

P S A L M CXXXV.

- 1 Praise ye the Lord, the Lord's name praise,
his servants, praise ye God.
2 Who stand in God's house, in the courts of our God make a noise, 3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good;
unto him praises sing:
Sing praises to his name, because it is a pleasant thing.
4 For Jacob to himself the Lord did choose of his good pleasure,
And he hath chosen Israel
for his peculiar treasure.
5 Because I know assuredly
the Lord is very great,
And that our Lord above all gods
in glory hath his seat.
6 What things forever pleas'd the Lord, what in the heav'n and he
And in the earth, the sea, and all the place, deep that sea.

- 7 He from the ends of earth doth make the vapours to ascend;
With rain he lightnings makes, and wind doth from his arkature send.
8 Egypt's first-born, from man to beast who smote. Strange tokens he On Pharaoh and his servants sent,
Egypt, in midst of thee.
9 He smote great nations, slew great kings:
10 Sihon of Heshbon king,
And Og of Bashan, and to night did Canaan's kingdoms bring:
12 And for a wealthy heritage their pleasant land he gave,
An heritage which Israel,
his chosen folk, should have.
13 Thy name, O Lord, shall still endure, and thy memorial
With honour shall continu'd be
to generations all.
14 For why? the righteous God will judge
his people righteously; Concerning those that do him serve,
himself repent will he.
15 The idols of the nations of silver are and gold,
And by the hands of men is made their fashion and mould.
16 Mouths have they, but they do not speak;
eyes, but they do not see:
17 Ears have they, but hear not; and in their mouths no breathing be.
18 Their makers are like them; so are all that on them rely.
19 O Israel's house, bless God; bless God,
O Aaron's family.
20 O bless the Lord, of Levi's house ye who his servants are;
And bless the holy name of God,
all ye the Lord that fear.
21 And blessed be the Lord our God,
Who dwelleth at Jerusalem.
The Lord O praise ye still.

P S A L M CXXXVI.

- 1 Give thanks to God, for good is he:
for mercy hath he ever.
2 Thanks to the God of gods give ye:
for his grace faileth never.
3 Thanks give the Lord of lords unto:
for mercy hath he ever.
4 Who only wonders great can do:
for his grace faileth never.
5 Who by his wisdom made heav'n's high:
for mercy hath he ever.
6 Who stretch'd the earth above the sea:
for his grace faileth never.
7 To him that made the great lights shine:
for mercy hath he ever.
8 The sun to rule till day decline:
for his grace faileth never.
9 The moon and stars to rule by night:
for mercy hath he ever.
10 Who Egypt's first-born kill'd outright:
for his grace faileth never.
11 And Israel brought from Egypt land:
for mercy hath he ever.
12 With stretch'd-out arm, and with strong for his grace faileth never. (hand: 13 By whom the Red sea parted was:
for mercy hath he ever.
14 And through its midst made Israel pass:
for his grace faileth never.
15 But Pharaoh and his host did drown:
for mercy hath he ever.
16 Who through the desert led his own:
for his grace faileth never.

- 17 To him great kings who overthrew:
for he hath mercy ever.
18 Yea, famous kings in battle slew:
for his grace faileth never.
19 Ev'n Siffon, king of Amorites:
for he hath mercy ever.
20 And Og, the king of Bashanites:
for his grace faileth never.
21 Their land in heritage to have:
(for mercy hath he ever.)
22 His servant Israel right he gave:
for his grace faileth never.
23 In our low state who on us thought:
for he hath mercy ever.
24 And from our foes our freedom wrought:
for his grace faileth never.
25 Who doth all flesh with food relieve:
for he hath mercy ever.
26 Thanks to the God of heaven give:
for his grace faileth never.

Another of the same.

- 1 Praise God, for he is kind:
His mercy lasts for aye.
2 Give thanks with heart and mind
To God of gods alway:
For certainly
His mercies dure
Most firm and sure Eternally.
3 The Lord of lords praise ye,
Whose mercies still endure.
4 Great wonders only he Doth work by his great pow'r:
For certainly, &c.
5 Which God omnipotent,
By night and wisdom high,
The heav'n and firmament
Did frame, as we may see:
For certainly, &c.
6 To him who did outstretch
This earth, so great and wide;
Above the waters' reach:
Making it to abide:
For certainly, &c.
7 Great lights he made to be,
For his grace lasteth aye:
8 Such as the sun we see,
To rule the lightsome day:
For certainly, &c.
9 Also the moon to clear,
Which shineth in our sight:
The stars that do appear,
To guide the darkness night:
For certainly, &c.
10 To him that Egypt smote,
Who did his message scorn;
And in his anger hot
Did kill all their first-born:
For certainly, &c.
11 Thence Israel out he brought:
For his grace lasteth ever.
12 With a strong hand he wrought,
And stretch'd-out arm deliver:
For certainly, &c.
13 The sea he cut in two:
For his grace lasteth still.
14 And through its midst to go
Made his own Israel:
For certainly, &c.
15 But overwalm'd and lost
Was proud king Pharaoh,
With all his mighty host,
And chariots there aloft.
For certainly, &c.
16 To him who powerfully
His chosen people led,
Ev'n through the desert dry,
And in that place them fed:
For certainly, &c.

- 17 To him great kings who smote :
For his grace hath no bound.
18 Who flew, and spared not Kings famous and renowned :
For certainly, &c.
19 Sihon, the Am'rites king :
For his grace lasteth ever :
20 Og also, who did reign
The land of Bashan over :
For certainly, &c.
21 Their land by lot he gave,
For his grace faileth never,
22 That Iſr'el might it have
In heritage for ever :
For certainly, &c.
23 Who hath remembered
Us in our low estate ;
24 And us delivered
From foes which did us hate :
For certainly, &c.
25 Who to all flesh gives food :
For his grace faileth never.
26 Give thanks to God most good,
The God of heav'n, for ever :
For certainly, &c.

P S A L M CXXXVII.

- 1 BY Babel's streams we sat and wept
when Sion we thought on.
2 In midst thereof we hang'd our harps
the willow-trees upon.
3 For there a song required they who did us captive bring :
Our spoilers call'd for mirth, and said,
A song of Sion sing.
4 O how the Lord's song shall we sing within a foreign land ?
5 If thee, Jerus'lem, I forget, skill part from my right hand.
6 My tongue to my mouth's roof let cleave,
if I do thee forget,
Jerusalem, and thee above
my chief joy do not set.
7 Remember Edom's children, Lord, who in Jerus'lem's day,
Ev'n unto its foundation,
Raze, raze it quite, did say.
8 O daughter thou of Babylon, near to destruction ;
Bless'd shall he be that thee rewards,
as thou to us hast done.
9 Yea, happy surely shall he be thy tender little ones Who shall lay hold upon, and them shall dash against the stones.

P S A L M CXXXVIII.

- 1 Thee will I praise with all my heart,
I will sing praise to thee
2 Before the gods : And worship will toward thy sanctuary.
I'll praise thy name, ev'n for thy truth,
and kindness of thy love ;
For thou thy word hast magnify'd
all thy great name above.
3 Thou didst me answer in the day when I to thee did cry
And thou my fainting soul with strength didst strengthen inwardly.
4 All kings upon the earth that are shall give thee praise, O Lord ;
When as from thy mouth shall hear thy true and faithful word.
5 Yea, in the righteous ways of God with gladness they shall sing :
For great's the glory of the Lord,
who doth for ever reign.
6 Though God be high, yet he respects all those that lowly be ;
Whereas the proud and lofty ones afar off knoweth he.

- 7 Though I in midst of trouble walk,
I life from thee shall have :
'Gainst my foes' wrath thou'lt stretch thine thy right hand shall me save. (hand, 8 Surely that which concerneth me
the Lord will perfect me :
Lord, still thy mercy lasts, do not thine own hands' works forsake.

P S A L M CXXXIX.

- 1 O Lord, thou hast me search'd and known-2 Thou know'st my sitting down, and rising up : yea, all my thoughts afar to thee are known.
3 My footsteps, and my lying down,
thou compass'st always ;
Thou also most entirely art acquaint with all my ways.
4 For in my tongue, before I speak, not any word can be,
But altogether, lo, O Lord,
it is well known to thee.
5 Behind, before, thou hast beset,
and laid on me thine hand.
6 Such knowledge is too strange for me, too high to understand.
7 From thy Spirit whither shall I go ?
or from thy presence fly ?
8 Ascend I heav'n, lo, thou art there ;
there, if in hell I lie.
9 Take I the morning wings, and dwell
in utmost parts of sea ;
10 Ev'n there, Lord, shall thy hand me lead, thy right hand hold shall me.
11 If I do say that darkness shall me cover from thy sight,
Then surely shall the very night about me be as light.
12 Yea, darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day ;
To thee the darkness and the light are both alike alway.
13 For thou possessest half my reins,
and thou hast cover'd me,
When I within my mother's womb inclosed was by thee.
14 Thee will I praise ; for fearfully and strangely made I am !
Thy works are marvellous, and right well my soul doth know the same.
15 My substance was not hid from thee, when as in secret I Was made ; and in earth's lowest parts was wrought most curiously.
16 Thine eyes my substance did behold,
yet being imperfect ;
And in the volume of thy book
my members all were writ ;
Which after in continuance were fashion'd ev'ry one,
When as they yet all shapeless were,
and of them there was none.
17 How precious also are thy thoughts,
O gracious God, to me !
And in their firm how passing great and numberless they be !
18 If I should count them, than the sand
they more in number be :
What time soever I awake,
I ever am with thee.
19 Thou, Lord, wilt sure the wicked slay :
hence from me bloody men.
20 Thy foes against thee loudly speak, and take thy name in vain.
21 Do not I hate all those, O Lord, that hate'd bear to thee ?
With those that up against thee rise can I but grieved be ?

- 22 With perfect hatred them I hate,
my foes I them do hold.
23 Search me, O God, and know my heart,
try me, my thoughts unfold :
24 And see if any wicked way
there be at all in me ;
And in thine everlasting way to me a leader be.

P S A L M CXL.

- 1 Lord, from the ill and froward man
give me deliverance,
And do thou safe preserve me from the mah of violence :
2 Who in their heart mischievous things are meditating ever ;
And they for war assembled are continually together.
3 Much like unto a serpent's tongue their tongues they sharp do make :
And underneath their lips there lies the poison of a snake.
4 Lord, keep me from the wicked's hands,
from violent men me save ;
Who utterly to overthrow my goings purpos'd have.
5 The proud for me a snare have hid,
and cords ; yea, they a net
Have by the way-side for me spread,
they grins for me have set.
6 I said unto the Lord, Thou art
my God : unto the cry
Of all my supplications,
Lord, do thine ear apply.
7 O God the Lord, who art the strength
of my salvation ;
A covering in the day of war
my head thou hast put on.
8 Unto the wicked man, O Lord,
his wishes do not grant ;
Nor further thou his ill device,
lest they themselves should vaunt.
9 As for the head and chief of those about that compass me, Ev'n by the mischief of their lips
let thou them cover'd be.
10 Let burning coals upon them fall,
them throw in fiery flame,
And in deep pits, that they no more may rise out of the same.
11 Let not an evil speaker be on earth established :
Mischief shall hast the violent man till he be ruined.
12 I know God will th' afflictive cause maintain, and poor man's right.
13 Surely the just shall praise thy name ;
th' upright dwell in thy sight.

P S A L M CXLI.

- 1 O Lord, I unto thee do cry,
do thou make haste to me,
And give an ear unto my voice,
when I cry unto thee.
2 As incense let my prayer be directed in thine eyes ;
And the uprising of my hands
as th' evening sacrifice.
3 Set, Lord, a watch before my mouth,
keep of my lips the door.
4 My heart in line thou not unto the ill I should abhor :
To practise wicked works with men
that work iniquity :
And with their dainties my taste
let me not satisfy.
5 Let him that a righteous man is me smite, let him a kindness be :
Let him reprove, I shall it count
a precious oil to me ;

6 Men of this earth shall show, thine egress, the me-
And I, thy durand
thy great egress, the me-

With songs of praise, thy shall extol thy perfect righteousness.
8 The Lord is great in his
in him capacious flow;
In mercy he is very great,
and is to glorify flow.
9 The Lord HOVAH unto all his good doth declare;
And over all other works
his tenderness are.
10 These all shall praise, O Lord,
and these shall bless, 11 They shall thy kingdom's glory show,
thy power shall express:
12 To make the acts of men to know thy might, thy excellent 13 Thy kingdom shall for ever stand, thy reign shall ages all.
14 God raiseth up the lowly,
and bow'd down, shall at fall.
15 The eyes of the giver of the gift shall wait on thee,
And thou in thy bowels on bestowest on their food:
16 Thine hand shall open lib'rally, and of thy bounty gives Enough to satisfy the need of every thing that lives.
17 The Lord is holy in all his ways, works all.
18 God's near to all that call on him,
in truth on him call.
19 He will accomplish the desire of those that do him fear:
He also will deliver them,
and he shall cry will hear.
20 The Lord preserves all who him love, that nought can them annoy:
But he all the wicked are will utterly destroy.
21 My mouth shall raise of the Lord to publish: shall never Let all flesh bless his holy name for ever: ever.

of the Lord.
1 O Lord, thou art my God and King;
Thy name is great and praise.
I will thee bless, and glorify thy unto thy holy name, always 2 Each day I will praise thee,
And praise thy name, time without end.
3 Much to be praised, and get God is;
His greatness in coprehend.
4 Race shall thy praise unto race,
The mighty do, do thy race.
5 I will speak of thy name, thy And honour thy name, thy 6 By men the name of thy name
Of all thy creatures, thy name
And in thy greatness.
7 They utter thy name, thy
And shall sing thy name, thy 8 The Lord our God is merciful and Compassionate, and his name
In mercy he is, and his name
But unto wrath

9 Good unto all men is the Lord:
O'er all his works his mercy is.
10 Thy works all praise to thee afford;
Thy saints, O Lord, thy name shall bless.
11 The glory of thy kingdom show
Shall they, and of thy power tell:
12 That to men's sons his deeds may know,
His kingdom's grace that doth excel.
13 Thy kingdom hath none end at all,
It doth through ages all remain.
14 The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
The cast-down raiseth up again.
15 The eyes of all things, Lord, attend,
And on thee wait that here do live,
And thou in season due dost send Sufficient food them to relieve.
16 Yea, thou thine hand dost open wide,
And every thing dost satisfy
That lives, and doth on earth abide,
Of thy great liberality.
17 The Lord is just in his ways all,
And holy in his works each one.
18 He's near to all that on him call,
Who call in truth on him alone.
19 God will the just desire fulfil
Of such as do him fear and dread:
Their cry regard, and hear he will,
And save them in the time of need.
20 The Lord preserves all, more, and less,
That bear to him a loving heart:
But workers all of wickedness
Destroy will he, and clean subvert.
21 Therefore my mouth and lips I'll frame
To speak the praises of the Lord:
To magnify his holy name
For ever let all flesh accord.

P S A L M CXLVI.

1 Praise God. The Lord praise, O my soul.
2 I'll praise God while I live;
While I have being to my God in songs I'll praises give.
3 Trust not in princes, nor man's son,
in whom there is no stay;
4 His breath departs, to's earth he turns;
that day his thoughts decay.
5 O happy is that man, and blest, whom Jacob's God doth aid;
Whose hope upon the Lord doth rest,
and on his God is staid:
6 Who made the earth, and heavens high,
who made the swelling deep,
And all that is within the same:
who truth doth ever keep:
7 Who righteous judgment executes for those oppress'd that be;
Who to the hungry giveth food:
God sets the prisoners free.
8 The Lord doth give the blind their sight;
the bowed down doth raise;
The Lord doth dearly love all those
That walk in upright ways.
9 The stranger's shield, the widow's stay,
the orphan's help, is he:
But yet by him the wicked's way turn'd upside down shall be.
10 The Lord shall reign for evermore:
thy God, O Sion, he Reigns to all generations.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

P S A L M CXLVII.

1 Praise ye the Lord: for it is good praise to our God to sing:
For it is pleasant, and to praise
it is a comely thing.
2 God doth build up Jerusalem;
and he it is alone
That the dispers'd of Israel doth gather into one.

3 Those that are broken in their heart,
and grieved in their minds,
He healeth, and their painful wounds
he tenderly up-binds.
4 He counts the number of the stars,
he names them every one.
5 Great is our Lord, and of great power;
his wisdom search can none.
6 The Lord lifts up the meek; and calls
the wicked to the ground.
7 Sing to the Lord, and give him thanks;
on harp his praises sound.
8 Who covereth the heav'n with clouds, who for the earth below
Prepareth rain, who maketh grafs upon the mountains grow.
9 He gives the beast his food, he feeds
the ravens young that cry.
10 His pleasure not in horses' strength, nor in man's legs, doth lie.
11 But in all those that do him fear the Lord doth pleasure take;
In those that to his mercy do
by hope themselves betake.
12 The Lord praise, O Jerusalem:
Sion, thy God confit:
13 For thy gates' bars he maketh strong;
thy sons in thee doth bless.
14 He in thy borders maketh peace;
with fine wheat filleth thee.
15 He sends forth his command on earth,
his word runs speedily.
16 Hoar-frost, like ashes, scattereth he;
like wool he snow doth give:
17 Like morsels casteth forth his ice;
who in its cold can live?
18 He sendeth forth his mighty word and melteth them again;
His wind he makes to blow, and then the waters flow again.
19 The doctrine of his holy word to Jacob he doth flow;
His statutes and his judgments he gives Israel to know.
20 To any nation never he such favour did afford;
For they his judgments have not known:
O do ye praise the Lord.

his hosts all, praise him ye.
3 O praise ye him, both sun and moon,
praise him, all stars of light.
4 Ye heav'n's of heav'n's him praise, and floods above the heav'n's height.
5 Let all the creatures praise the name of our almighty Lord:
For he commanded, and they were created by his word.
6 He also, for all times to come,
hath them establish'd sure:
He hath appointed them a law,
which ever shall endure.
7 Praise ye JEHOVAH from the earth, dragons, and every deep:

his word that fully keep.

and all ye cedars high:

and all ye birds that fly.
11 Kings of the earth, all nations, princes, earth's judges all:

old men, and children small.

alone is great.
